PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Any messages, reports, and announcements?

CLERK: A series of reports, Madam President, on file in the Clerk's office available for member review. They'll be listed in the Journal independently. No hearing notices. Well, let me say...begin with a reference report, Madam President, from this morning offered by Senator Coordsen. And hearing notices from the Education Committee and the Business and Labor Committee signed by the respective chairs. A couple of announcements, Madam President. Revenue Committee will meet upon adjournment in Room 1520. Revenue upon adjournment in Room 1520. And Natural Resources will have an executive session in Room 1517 at 1:15. (See pages 324-26 of the Legislative Journal.) That's all that I have, Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Mr. Clerk, new bills.

CLERK: Madam President, new bills. (Read LB 1187-1190 by title for the first time. See page 326 of the Legislative Journal.) That's all that I have, Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. We now turn to resolutions and LR 316.

CLERK: Madam President, (LR) 316 offered by Senator Lynch. It's found on page 275 of the Legislative Journal.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The Chair recognizes Senator Lynch.

SENATOR LYNCH: Madam President and members, I'd like to draw your attention to this resolution because this man was such a good man and such an important man. He was the most unselfish person I think I've ever met. At his funeral, which was one of the largest that I've ever attended, not only was the church filled, there were people in front and microphones were put in the school. He deserved that tribute. He never did anything in his life that he thought was important enough or had anything to do with what he thought or anybody else thought might be his place in history. He did things because he loved people and all he wanted to do was help. Talking about a former Douglas County
