April 14, 1998 LR 481, 482

represent the mentally ill, the mentally retarded, to allow for the full protection of their rights. I've had a chance to work with them over the years and find their work to be outstanding. This commemorates their work and is a sign of appreciation from the Legislature for their efforts. With that, I'd ask for support for LR 481.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator Wesely. Is there any discussion of the Wesely resolution? Seeing none, Senator Wesely, do you wish to close? Closing is waived. The question before you is the adoption of LR 481. All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 0 nays, Madam President, on adoption of LR 481.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: LR 481 is adopted. You may have all seen, but we have a Senator back in our presence today, Senator Ray Janssen is back on the floor today. Welcome back, Senator, we are glad you are well. Thank you for being here. LR 482, Chair recognizes Senator Kristensen to open on the resolution.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Thank you, Madam President and members of the Legislature. On behalf of Senator Hudkins and Senator Raikes, it's my pleasure to announce that a team of six Raymond Central Junior High eighth graders, who are composed of Nicholas Bordovsky, Jonathan Bouc, Michael Comstock, Scott Jambor, Spencer Nelson, and Christopher Richman, they were coached by Susan Schrader, won the Junior High Division of the statewide "Odyssey of the Mind" finals competition held at the University of Nebraska at Kearney this last April 4th. As a result, they're going to represent the state of Nebraska in the upcoming "Odyssey of the Mind" world finals competition in Orlando, May 26th through the 31st and it's my great pleasure that we should congratulate them. We do a lot for athletic teams, but these truly are the best and brightest of our state of Nebraska. We could do a great honor by approving this resolution, Madam President. We're very proud of them and I'd urge the body to extend our congratulations and that of the state to the Raymond Central Junior High eighth graders who won the "Odyssey of the Mind". Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator. Is there any discussion
