

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

April 14, 1998

never at home, and my law office thought I was never in the office. So I don't know where I've been the last eight to ten years, but probably in the commute between Omaha and Lincoln I think. I know the bends pretty well and driving home at night when we've had our late nights I've been able to pretty much drive that with my eyes closed. I'd like to thank my wife Ann Marie for being here today. She's been a big, big help since we've been married. She's allowed me to serve in the Legislature the last eight, nine years, going on nine years, my children. During the last election there were all these signs up and they were following the election between Governor Nelson and Senator Hagel or Chuck Hagel at the time and they had the opportunity to meet Chuck Hagel after he was elected and they thought it was a big deal. And my son Michael and Megan, we were driving to school, I was dropping them off and they were...Megan got to meet Chuck Hagel and it was a big deal because she got to meet him, sit on his lap and she was kind of bragging to Michael who at the time was a first grader that she got to meet Chuck Hagel. And at the time I was driving, I said, you know, I'm a senator, too. And they both started laughing. They said, Dad, you're not a senator. We've met a senator and you're not a senator. It was an interesting perspective so I thought, well, maybe they ought to come down here and see me at work so I was able to bring them down here this spring. But it makes you realize how fast life does go. When I first came to the Legislature, I was pretty much a greenhorn. I...Senator Landis was here, Beutler, certainly Senator Chambers was here. I'd like to thank you for giving me an education and not only to the members that have been here but I've always felt that every day I've been here has been an education and I've always felt that I've learned something. And whether it's from sirens and the power of the volunteer fire department to legislative committees that I've worked with, the Judiciary Committee and Business and Labor, I've always...it's always been a fun, fun experience. And it's always been a real learning experience and I think that that's something that, I think that's something we can all appreciate. I'd like to thank my constituents for allowing me to serve the length of time because it has been truly an honor and a pleasure. I'd like to thank my parents, my brothers, friends and relatives that worked so hard to keep me in office. And I'd like to thank my staff because really they're the ones that do all the work around here anyway. I get
