trying to do now and say, well, let's just strike the whole thing because we don't want those there guidelines, and guidelines are very important. The General Affairs Committee has been on this issue for several years. I have been chairman now, I think, for eight, seven or eight years, whatever it is. It seems a lifetime some days, but it's an issue that we've been on, and we think we have to have guidelines, and this is a way to get some guidelines in there so that the stings are conducted according to the way that we think they should be. That's all we're trying to do with this amendment. It doesn't go as far that they are all going to be done the same, they all have to wear purple clothes, or have yellow hair. We are just saying it will be some guidelines. So I would urge the body to not support the Chambers amendment, to look at what's actually in it. I passed out the suggested guidelines. Take a look at that. That's all we're asking for. Thank you.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Senator Schellpeper. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President, Senator Schellpeper provoked me so that I have to respond. Senator Schellpeper, as I read these guidelines, you're talking about Donny and Marie Osmond being the ones who have to go in here. Listen to this, the underage cooperating individual used during a compliance check of retail outlets for sale of alcohol or tobacco to minors should not be deceptively mature in appearance, an obviously young appearance is best. I guess wearing diapers or Pampers and booties. An obviously young appearance is best, males should not have whiskers. You can be under 20...Senator Schellpeper, I'd like to ask you a question.

SENATOR CROSBY: Senator Schellpeper, will you yield?

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Schellpeper, at what age is a person considered underage for the purpose of purchasing liquor.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Twenty-one.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Is it uncommon to see 21-year-old men with
