

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

March 25, 1999      LB 194

The old date was April 1st but we've moved that back to March 20th. The old practice was to allow leeway without specific statutory authority. That bothered the Property Tax Administrator's Office.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay. That's enough...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Okay.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...on that.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Okay. The other one...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Secondly?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Excuse me?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: And, yeah, the other one then.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Okay. The other change is to move the date that the Property Tax Administrator's Office certifies values, this is adjusted values, not assessed values...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...this is adjusted values to the Department of Education to use in the state aid formula.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: The current date is July 1st. The date of July 1st is prior to the date that the values for centrally assessed property are determined. So you have to use the prior year's centrally assessed value.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: This moves the date to October 10th.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: That date is after the date that centrally
