

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

January 10, 2000

SENATOR VRTISKA: Well, given the fact that many committees have many more pieces of legislation than we do, I suspect probably the answer would be yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: It's beyond your ability and that of your committee members...

SENATOR VRTISKA: It's not...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...to deal with those issues.

SENATOR VRTISKA: It's not above our ability.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So you don't think that the committee could handle that.

SENATOR VRTISKA: No, I said I thought they could.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, I'm sorry. Okay.

SENATOR VRTISKA: I'm not...that's not my opinion. I'm just saying that it's possible that the committee, with the limited number of bills it has on both sides, could probably handle it, but I'm not...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, thank you.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's all that I had to ask. I didn't want to miss...I meant I had misunderstood. And the reason I asked Senator Vrtiska is so that it wouldn't seem like I'm manufacturing a numbers type approach. Why then could we not do this? We could do anything we want to, but the body does not want to do it. And why not? Because it's fixated on getting rid of the Agriculture Committee. That is where the fixation is. That is what must be done. In the same way that the Americans were saying we've got to sink the Bismarck to the bottom of the sea, this Legislature is saying we must get rid of the Agriculture Committee at all costs. If it costs a day of discussion, a week of discussion, two weeks, we must get rid of the Agriculture Committee. But that doesn't give them what they
