April 24, 2001 LB 543

going to be spent to track down somebody for $2,500 and the person may not have it anyway. So what are you going to do, take them to court? You're going to take somebody out of school who has no property for you to possess or get a lien upon. And if you get a lien, how are you going to enforce the judgment? If they leave town, you're not going to go after them. This is money just given away. Even if it's not, I don't like the idea of saying that children in some parts of the state are so bad and so difficult to deal with that you have to bribe teachers to go there. I'd like to ask Senator Tyson a question.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Tyson, would you respond?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, he's not here.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: I do not see him, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Oh, I'd like to ask Senator Hilgert a question.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Hilgert, would you respond?

SENATOR HILGERT: Sure.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Hilgert, you were in the military, correct?

SENATOR HILGERT: Yes, sir.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Were there other individuals of your rank who received the same amount of pay that you received?

SENATOR HILGERT: Yes, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Were you all required to do the same thing based on the, I'll call it a job description for ease of reference, for people with that rank grade and responsibility?

SENATOR HILGERT: We each had our job descriptions and missions but, yes, and it was pretty much analogous.
