FLOOR DEBATE

May 16, 2001

as will be the case when we start dividing up money in the General Fund, as we reach the point where we are going to discuss what vetoes that were given are to be overridden. But if I were the big dog, I would be just sitting over there gnawing contentedly on one of those milk bones because the Legislature doesn't have the belly to do anything, at least the Democrats in the Legislature don't. And the Governor should...oops, I mean the big dog certainly should have his party in line. So how are they going to override any vetoes? I'm going to be taught something else about practical politics, not wise or strong politics, but practical politics. And by practical politics, I am talking about what actually happens. Not what ought to happen, what would happen if I controlled the situation, but rather what will happen under the circumstances that exist now. If I were a Democrat, which I'm not, and I'm so glad those things are matters of choice, but if I were a Democrat, I would be so happy to have somebody like Senator Chambers to ally myself with and follow along and learn...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN PRESIDING

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...how to get some consideration in the Legislature and I would be putting motions on bills. I would be discussing bills. I would not let my hostages go. And if I were a Democrat, I would be ashamed, but I'm not a Democrat so I need not feel any shame. I just think that it's not in the best interest of the Republic when you have two parties and one lays down for the other one. The one that lays down is just token in terms of loyal opposition, as it's called. Because of the nature of this bill...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Time. Senator Chambers, you're recognized to close.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President. Because of the nature of this bill, I'm not going to take any more time on it. Mr. President, I withdraw my motion.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: The motion is withdrawn. Our first motion
