February 25, 2002 LR 6

around from the Omaha World-Herald. I believe that was in yesterday's paper. They also write little articles about, at election time, who they think would best represent the people in their district. Then I think that they should be looking at letting the people decide who they want in those districts, or what constitutional amendments they'd like to place on the ballot. All we're doing here is allowing our constituents to decide for themselves which direction they want to go. We all better be looking at the revenue situation that was before us this morning. We know it's going to happen, and we had better be looking at every little bill that comes along. If we can save $1,000, that's a little piece of the pie. No bill that has a...that shows an...a revenue increase should be overlooked. Senator Beutler's amendment, that he's trying to bring back, thanks to Senator Brashear, is another good example. We would take away what we keep hearing about, you know, you're going to have this all over the...all over the state. Well, my friends, two miles away from...from a casino is nothing. I think it's a good amendment. It puts a little sense and a little argument that we have...we're hearing from the opponents of...of expanded gaming that say that, oh, it's going to be all over the whole state. This is narrowly drawn to the fact that you can only be two miles away from an existing state that has existing casinos in it. Would our constituents rather see us cut state aid to schools and raise their property taxes? Or would they rather see a little cushion, somewhere along the line, that we can direct to other areas in the state which will allow us to continue with state aid to education, for one? We all think about HHS and what a problem they have trying to stay within their budget. This is another area that maybe we'll give a little relief there. There are other areas, too, that...where we can find some relief from them...for them, but they neglect to look at that. So I'm just asking you to allow...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR JANSSEN: ...the people in your district the opportunity to decide for themselves whether they want to have this type of gaming in the state, or do they want it to be underground and not aboveboard. I am going to support the reconsideration motion brought by Senator Brashear, and I will support Senator
