LEGISLATIVE BILL 724. Placed on General File as amended.

Standing Committee amendment to LB 724:

AM1031

- 1 1. Strike the original sections and insert the following
- 2 new sections:
- 3 "Section 1. Sections 1 to 9 of this act shall be known
- 4 and may be cited as the Nebraska Behavioral Health Reform Act.
- 5 Sec. 2. The purpose of the Nebraska Behavioral Health
- 6 Reform Act is to state legislative intent for reform of the
- 7 behavioral health system and for a substantive recodification of
- 8 statutes relating to the funding and delivery of behavioral health
- 9 services in the State of Nebraska. Such statutes include, but are
- 10 not limited to: (1) The Nebraska Comprehensive Community Mental
- 11 Health Services Act; (2) the Nebraska Mental Health Commitment Act;
- 12 (3) the Alcoholism, Drug Abuse, and Addiction Services Act; (4) the
- 13 Rehabilitation and Support Mental Health Services Incentive Act;
- 14 (5) sections 71-5016 to 71-5040; (6) sections 71-5053 to 71-5057;
- 15 and (7) sections 83-305 to 83-357.
- 16 Sec. 3. For purposes of the Nebraska Behavioral Health
- 17 Reform Act:
- 18 (1) Behavioral health system means the statewide array of
- 19 behavioral health services provided by the regional centers or by
- 20 any other public or private facility or practitioner;
- 21 (2) Behavioral health disorder means mental illness or
- 22 alcoholism, drug abuse, or other addictive disorder;
- 23 (3) Behavioral health region means a mental health region
- 24 described in subdivision (6) of section 71-5002;
- 1 (4) Behavioral health services means services provided
- 2 for the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of behavioral health
- 3 disorders;
- 4 (5) County regional governance system means the system
- 5 for the funding and delivery of community-based behavioral health
- 6 services in the behavioral health regions, including the regional
- 7 governing boards established pursuant to section 71-5004, the
- 8 behavioral health programs and services funded and administered by
- 9 such boards, and the program administrators appointed by such
- 10 boards;
- 11 (6) Mental health board means a mental health board
- 12 created pursuant to section 83-1017;
- 13 (7) Nebraska Health and Human Services System means the
- 14 Department of Health and Human Services, the Department of Health
- 15 and Human Services Regulation and Licensure, and the Department of
- 16 Health and Human Services Finance and Support; and
- 17 (8) Regional center means one of the state hospitals for
- 18 the mentally ill designated in section 83-305.
- 19 Sec. 4. The Legislature finds that:
- 20 (1) The separate and distinct funding and administrative

21 mechanisms of the regional centers and the county regional 22 governance system present significant barriers to statewide 23 coordination of the behavioral health system; 24 (2) The number of inpatients at the regional centers is 25 significantly less than the originally designed capacity of such 26 centers and many regional center buildings are uninhabitable or 27 require significant expenditures of state funds for maintenance and 1 renovation;

2 (3) The size and scope of the administrative bureaucracy
3 in each behavioral health region has significantly expanded since 4 passage of the Nebraska Comprehensive Community Mental Health 5 Services Act and each regional governing board both provides 6 behavioral health services and administers state and other funds 7 for the provision of such services;

8 (4) The availability of community-based behavioral health
9 services in the State of Nebraska is inadequate to meet the need 10 for such services; and 11 (5) Many persons with behavioral health disorders are 12 admitted for inpatient treatment when outpatient treatment would be 13 a clinically appropriate and less restrictive treatment alternative 14 for such persons, mental health board commitments lack uniformity 15 statewide, and persons are frequently retained in emergency 16 protective custody after being committed for treatment by a mental 17 health board and prior to the commencement of such treatment.

18 Sec. 5. It is the intent of the Legislature that 19 statutes relating to the regional centers be revised and recodified 20 to:

21 (1) Decrease reliance on the regional centers for the 22 inpatient treatment of behavioral health disorders and consolidate 23 the inpatient treatment currently provided at such centers, which 24 may include the designation of one inpatient regional center 25 facility with a single administrative and clinical staff for all 26 regional center operations;

27 (2) Reinvest revenue from the reduction or elimination of 1 inpatient regional center services into the statewide development 2 of community-based behavioral health services; and

3 (3) Provide for more accountable and cost-effective 4 utilization of professional staff at the regional centers, 5 consistent with the clinical needs of patients at such centers.

6 Sec. 6. It is the intent of the Legislature that 7 statutes relating to the county regional governance system be 8 revised and recodified to:

9 (1) Change membership of the regional governing boards to 10 include elected officials and other persons with a broad range of 11 interests and expertise in the provision of behavioral health 12 services in the region and change the method for the appointment of 13 such members to such boards;

14 (2) Limit and redefine the powers and duties of the 15 regional governing boards, while preserving local control to the 16 greatest possible extent in each behavioral health region; 17 (3) Eliminate the county matching funds requirement in 18 sections 71-5009 and 71-5027 and require local funding for 19 behavioral health services provided in each behavioral health 20 region based on a maintenance of effort requirement established by 21 the department, including funding from counties and other public 22 and private sources; and

23 (4) Restrict or prohibit the regional governing boards 24 from directly providing behavioral health services in the region 25 without state approval.

26 Sec. 7. It is the intent of the Legislature that 27 statutes relating to the statewide administration and funding of 1 the behavioral health system be revised and recodified to:
2 (1) Reduce the overall growth of state expenditures for 3 the system and maximize access to federal medicaid funding for 4 community-based behavioral health services;
5 (2) Provide additional support and guidance for the 6 statewide development of community-based behavioral health 7 services;
8 (3) Require that all public funding for the behavioral 9 health system, including community-based funding, regional center
10 funding, and medicaid funding, be integrated within the Nebraska
11 Health and Human Services System to provide for the most efficient 12 and effective transition of persons to the least costly and least 13 restrictive treatment environment possible consistent with the 14 clinical needs of such persons; and 15 (4) Restructure the statewide administration of the 16 behavioral health system and require the appointment of a chief 17 administrative and clinical officer for behavioral health within 18 the Nebraska Health and Human Services System.

19 Sec. 8. It is the intent of the Legislature that the 20 Nebraska Mental Health Commitment Act be revised and recodified to:

21 (1) Limit the number of mental health boards and change 22 provisions relating to such boards;

23 (2) Permit physicians and psychologists to initiate 24 emergency protective custody procedures;

25 (3) Encourage outpatient community-based commitments, 26 avoid more costly and inappropriate inpatient commitments, and 27 facilitate the transition of persons from the regional centers to 1 less restrictive community-based treatment alternatives consistent 2 with the clinical needs of such persons; and

3 (4) Clarify the authority and obligation of counties 4 relating to the emergency protective custody of persons after 5 commitment by a mental health board and prior to the admission of 6 such persons for treatment pursuant to such commitment.

7 Sec. 9. The chairperson of the Health and Human Services
8 Committee of the Legislature shall prepare and introduce 9 legislation or amendments to legislation in the Ninety-eighth 10 Legislature, Second Session, to implement sections 5 to 8 of this 11 act.".

7 Sec. 11. (1) Whenever a natural resources district
8 pursuant to subsection (16) of section 46-656.28 has temporarily 9 suspended the drilling of new wells in all or part of the district, 10 ground water withdrawn outside the affected area shall not be

5 Sec. 12. Section 46-656.12, Revised Statutes Supplement,
6 2002, is amended to read:
7 46-656.12. Each district shall prepare a ground water 8 management plan based upon the best available information and

27 geographical area of the district included in such control area,

1 management area, or special ground water quality protection area.
2 A district may change references from control area or special

- 5 necessary to investigate any public utility or common carrier or 7 carrier, such public utility or common carrier, in case the 8 expenses reasonably attributable to such investigation or appraisal 9 exceed the sum of one hundred dollars, including both direct and 10 indirect expenses incurred by the commission or its staff, shall 11 pay such expenses which shall be assessed against such public 12 utility or common carrier by the commission. Such expenses shall 13 be assessed beginning on the date that the proceeding is filed or 15 utility or common carrier notice of the assessment by United States 16 mail, whichever is later. The commission shall give such public 17 utility or common carrier notice and opportunity for a hearing in 19 the public utility or common carrier may be heard as to the 20 necessity of such investigation or appraisal and may show cause, if 21 any, why such investigation or appraisal should not be made or why 22 the costs thereof should not be assessed against such public 23 utility or common carrier. The finding of the commission as to the 2 the expenses thereof shall be conclusive, except that no such 3 public utility or common carrier shall be liable for payment of any 4 such expenses incurred by the commission in connection with any 5 proceeding before or within the jurisdiction of any federal 6 regulatory body.

7 (2) The commission shall ascertain the expenses of any

9 against the public utility or common carrier investigated or whose 10 property is appraised in such proceeding, and shall render a bill 11 therefor, by United States mail, to the public utility or common 12 carrier, either at the conclusion of the investigation or appraisal 13 or from time to time during such investigation or appraisal. Such 14 bill shall constitute notice of such assessment and demand of 15 payment thereof. Upon a bill rendered to such public utility or 16 common carrier, within fifteen days after the mailing thereof, such 17 public utility or common carrier shall pay to the commission the 18 amount of the assessment for which it is billed. Such payment when 19 made shall be remitted by the commission to the State Treasurer for 20 credit to the Public Service Commission Regulation Fund for the use 21 of the commission or for the use of the Citizens' Utility Ratepayer 22 Board. The total amount, in any one fiscal year, for which any 23 public utility or common carrier shall be assessed under this 24 section shall not exceed the following: (a) For a public utility or 25 common carrier that is under the jurisdiction of the commission and 26 has not filed an annual report with the commission as provided in

6 or common carrier's gross operating revenues derived from 7 intrastate operations as reflected in the last annual report filed 8 with the commission pursuant to the act prior to the beginning of 9 the commission's fiscal year. The commission may render bills in 10 one fiscal year for costs incurred within a previous fiscal year.

11 (3) The commission, in accordance with the procedures 12 prescribed by subsection (2) of this section, may assess against an 13 entity, other than a residential or small commercial ratepayer, 14 that is not subject to assessment pursuant to subsection (1) of 15 this section actual expenses of any services extended, filings 16 processed, or actions certified by the commission for the entity.

17 Sec. 66. (1) The commission shall determine, within 18 fifteen days after each quarter-year for each such quarter-year, 19 the total amount of its expenditures during such period of time and 20 the total amount of expenditures of the Citizens' Utility Ratepayer 21 Board during such period of time. The total amount shall include 22 the salaries of members and employees and all other lawful 23 expenditures of the commission and the board, including all 24 expenditures in connection with investigations or appraisals made 25 under the State Natural Gas Regulation Act, except that there shall 26 not be included in such total amount of expenditures for the 27 purpose of this section the expenditures during such period of time 1 which are otherwise provided for by fees and assessments pursuant 2 to the act.

3 (2) From the amount determined under subsection (1) of 4 this section, the commission shall deduct (a) all amounts collected 5 under section 65 of this act during such period of time and (b) all 6 other funds collected with regard to public utilities or common 7 carriers.

8 (3) To the remainder, after making the deductions under 9 subsection (2) of this section, the commission shall add such 10 amount as in its judgment may be required to satisfy any deficiency 11 in the prior assessment period's assessment and to provide for 12 anticipated increases in necessary expenditures for the current 13 assessment period.

14 (4) The amount determined under subsections (1) to (3) of 15 this section shall be assessed by the commission against all public 16 utilities and common carriers subject to the jurisdiction of the 17 commission and shall not exceed, during any fiscal year, the 18 greater of one hundred dollars or each public utility's or common 19 carrier's proportionate share of the total amount determined under 20 this section based upon meters served by each public utility or 21 common carrier as a proportion of all meters of public utilities 22 and common carriers. Such assessment shall be paid to the 23 commission within fifteen days after the notice of assessment has 24 been mailed to such public utilities and common carriers, which 25 notice of assessment shall constitute demand of payment thereof.

26 (5) The commission shall remit all money received by or 27 for it for the assessment imposed under this section to the State

1 Treasurer for credit to the Public Service Commission Regulation
2 Fund.

3 (6) The commission shall not pursuant to this section 4 assess a total of more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars in 5 any twelve-month period.

6 Sec. 67. The Public Service Commission Regulation Fund 7 is created. The commission shall remit all money received by or

- 1 1. Insert the following new sections:
- 2 "Sec. 12. The Legislature finds and declares that public
- 3 power provides special and unique benefits to the citizens of the
- 4 State of Nebraska. These benefits include low utility rates and
- 5 public input and accountability in the governance of the state's
- 6 public power entities. The Legislature has consistently endorsed
- 7 the importance of public power to the state, including the
- 8 conclusions by the LR 455 Task Force in 1999 that the electric
- 9 utility industry in Nebraska should not be deregulated and that
- 10 markets should not be opened to private retail competition. For 11 these reasons, the Legislature finds that any decision to contract 12 for the operation of a public power district facility by a private 13 entity should be made only in extraordinary circumstances.

14 Sec. 14. (1) If a public power district or public power
15 and irrigation district desires to contract with a private entity 16 for the operation of a nuclear power plant, such decision shall be 17 made after public notice and hearing and shall require: (a) A 18 two-thirds majority vote of the elected members of the board of the 19 district; and (b) findings of fact that there are extraordinary 20 circumstances which require such action. Extraordinary 21 circumstances include, but are not limited to (a) no public power 22 entity is willing and able to assume operation of the facility, (b) 23 regulatory compliance issues and concerns, or (c) health and 1 safety.
2 (2) The notice shall be in addition to the notice usually 3 provided for board meetings and shall be published in a newspaper 4 having general circulation in the state and, as appropriate, in 5 other newspapers and publications. The notice shall include, at a 6 minimum, a brief description of the extraordinary circumstances as 7 well as the sites where documents regarding this hearing may be 8 reviewed by the public. At least one of such sites shall be on the 9 web site of the district providing the notice."

SELECT COMMITTEE REPORTSEnrollment and Review

LEGISLATIVE BILL 210. Placed on Select File as amended.

E & R amendment to LB 210:

AM7098

- 1 1. Strike the original sections and all amendments
2 thereto and insert the following new sections:
- 3 "Section 1. Section 48-106, Revised Statutes Supplement, 4 2002, is amended to read:
- 5 48-106. (1) The Nebraska Workers' Compensation Act shall 6 apply to the State of Nebraska, to every governmental agency 7 created by the state, and, except as provided in this section, to 8 every resident employer in this state and nonresident employer 9 performing work in this state who employs one or more employees in 10 the regular trade, business, profession, or vocation of such 11 employer.

12 (2) The act shall not apply to:

13 (a) A railroad company engaged in interstate or foreign 14 commerce;

15 (b) Service performed by a worker who is a household 16 domestic servant in a private residence;

17 (c) Service performed by a worker when performed on a 18 farm or ranch for an employer who is engaged in an agricultural 19 operation and employs only related employees; and 20 (d) Service performed by a worker when performed on a 21 farm or ranch for an employer who is engaged in an agricultural 22 operation and employs unrelated employees unless:

23 (i) Such service is performed on a farm or ranch for an 24 employer who during any calendar year employs six or more 25 unrelated, full-time employees, whether in one or more locations, 26 on each working day during any thirteen-week period, whether or not 27 such weeks are consecutive; and 28 (ii) Forty percent or more of the employer's annual gross 29 revenue is derived from the cultivation of land owned or leased by 30 someone other than the employer or a person related to the employer 31 within the third degree by blood or marriage for the production of 32 agricultural crops, fruit, or other horticultural products, or 33 forty percent or more of the employer's annual gross revenue is 34 derived from the keeping or feeding of animals not owned by the 35 employer or a person related to the employer within the third 36 degree by blood or marriage for the production of livestock or 37 livestock products. Relationship by blood or marriage within the 38 third degree has the same meaning as in subdivision (8)(b) of this 39 section.

40 (3) If the employer is the state or any governmental 41 agency created by the state, the exemption from the act under 42 subdivision (2)(d) of this section does not apply.

43 (4) If the act applies to an employer because the 44 employer meets the requirements of subdivisions (2)(d)(i) and 45 (2)(d)(ii) of this section, all unrelated employees shall be 46 covered under the act and such employees' wages shall be considered 47 for premium purposes.

48 (5) If an employer to whom the act applies because the 49 employer meets the requirements of subdivisions (2)(d)(i) and 50 (2)(d)(ii) of this section subsequently employs fewer than six 51 unrelated employees, such employer shall continue to provide 52 workers' compensation insurance coverage for the employees for a 53 full calendar year after the number of employees is less than six.
54 Such employer may elect to return to exempt status, and if such 55 election is made, the employer shall give the employees notice as 56 provided in subsection (6) of this section.

57 (6) An employer who is exempt from the act may elect to 58 bring the employees of such employer under the act. Such election
59 is made by the employer obtaining a policy of workers' compensation

9 insurance covering such employees. Such policy shall be obtained 10 from a corporation, association, or organization authorized and 11 licensed to transact the business of workers' compensation
12 insurance in this state. If such an exempt employer procures a 13 policy of workers' compensation insurance which is in full force 14 and effect at the time of an accident to an employee of such 15 employer, such procurement is conclusive proof of the employer's 16 and employee's election to be bound by the act. Such an exempt 17 employer who has procured a policy of workers' compensation 18 insurance may elect to return to exempt status by (a) posting, 19 continuously in a conspicuous place at the employment locations of 20 the employees for a period of at least ninety days, a written or 21 printed notice stating that the employer will no longer carry 22 workers' compensation insurance for the employees and the date such 23 insurance will cease and (b) thereafter no longer carrying a policy 24 of workers' compensation insurance. Failure to provide notice in 25 accordance with this subsection voids an employer's attempt to 26 return to exempt status.

27 (7) An exclusion from coverage in any health, accident,
1 or other insurance policy covering a person employed by an employer 2 who is exempt from the act under this section which provides that 3 coverage under the health, accident, or other insurance policy does 4 not apply if such person is entitled to workers' compensation
5 coverage is void as to such person if such employer has not elected 6 to bring the employees of such employer within the act as provided 7 in subsection (6) of this section.

8 (8) For purposes of this section:

9 (a) Agricultural operation means (i) the cultivation of 10 land for the production of agricultural crops, fruit, or other 11 horticultural products or (ii) the ownership, keeping, or feeding 12 of animals for the production of livestock or livestock products; 13 and

14 (b) Related employee means an employee related to the 15 employer within the third degree by blood or marriage.
16 Relationship by blood or marriage within the third degree includes 17 parents, grandparents, great grandparents, children, grandchildren, 18 great grandchildren, brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts, nephews, 19 nieces, and spouses of the same. If the employer is a partnership, 20 limited liability company, or corporation in which all of the 21 partners, members, or shareholders are related within the third 22 degree by blood or marriage, then related employee means any 23 employee related to any such partner, member, or shareholder within 24 the third degree by blood or marriage. The Nebraska Workers' 25 Compensation Act shall apply to the State of Nebraska and every 26 governmental agency created by it, and to every employer in this 27 state, including nonresident employers performing work in the State
1 of Nebraska, employing one or more employees, in the regular trade, 2 business, profession, or vocation of such employer, except railroad 3 companies engaged in interstate or foreign commerce.

4 (2) The following are declared not to be hazardous
5 occupations and not within the provisions of the Nebraska Workers' 6 Compensation Act: Employers of household domestic servants and 7 employers of farm or ranch laborers. An employer who is excluded 8 from the act under this subsection may elect to bring the employees 9 of such employer within the provisions of the act. Such election
10 is made by the employer obtaining a policy of workers' compensation
11 insurance covering such employees from a corporation, association, 12 or organization authorized and licensed to transact the business of 13 workers' compensation insurance in this state. If an employer who 14 is excluded from the act under this subsection has not elected to 15 bring the employees of such employer within the provisions of the 16 act by obtaining a policy of workers' compensation insurance as 17 provided in this subsection and any health, accident, or other 18 insurance policy covering such employees contains an exclusion of 19 coverage if the insured is otherwise entitled to workers' 20 compensation coverage, such exclusion shall be null and void as to 21 such employees.

22 (3) The procuring by any such employer of such a policy 23 of insurance, referred to in subsection (2) of this section, which 24 is in full force and effect at the time of an accident to any of 25 his or her employees, shall be conclusive proof of such employer's 26 and his or her employees' election to be bound by the Nebraska 27 Workers' Compensation Act, to all intents and purposes as if they 1 had not been specifically excluded by the terms of this section.
2 Such employer of household domestic servants and such employer of 3 farm or ranch laborers who has procured such a policy of insurance 4 may elect to return to the status of being not within the 5 provisions of the Nebraska Workers' Compensation Act by (a) no 6 longer carrying a policy of workers' compensation insurance and (b) 7 posting and thereafter keeping continuously posted for a period of 8 at least one year in a conspicuous place about the place or places 9 where his or her workers are employed a written or printed notice 10 of election not to be bound by the provisions of such act.

11 Sec. 2. Section 48-125.01, Reissue Revised Statutes of 12 Nebraska, is amended to read:

13 48-125.01. Any employer who knowingly transfers, sells, 14 encumbers, assigns, or in any manner disposes of, conceals, 15 secretes, or destroys any property or records belonging to such 16 employer, after one of his or her employees has been injured within 17 the purview of the Nebraska Workers' Compensation Act, and with 18 intent to avoid the payment of compensation under such act to such 19 employee or his or her dependents, shall be guilty of a Class I 20 misdemeanor. In any case when such employer is a corporation, any 21 officer or employee thereof, if knowingly participating or 22 acquiescing in the act with intent to avoid the payment of 23 compensation under the Nebraska Workers' Compensation Act, shall be 24 also individually guilty of a Class I misdemeanor as well as 25 jointly and severally liable with such corporation for any fine

26 imposed upon the corporation. In any case when such employer is a 27 limited liability company, any member or manager thereof, if 1 knowingly participating or acquiescing in the act with intent to 2 avoid the payment of compensation under the Nebraska Workers'
 3 Compensation Act, shall be also individually guilty of a Class I 4 misdemeanor as well as jointly and severally liable with such 5 limited liability company for any fine imposed upon the limited
 6 liability company. In any case when such employer is a limited 7 partnership or a limited liability partnership, any general 8 partner, if knowingly participating or acquiescing in the act with 9 intent to avoid the payment under the Nebraska Workers' 10 Compensation Act, shall also be guilty of a Class I misdemeanor as 11 well as jointly and severally liable with such limited partnership 12 or limited liability partnership, and limited partners shall not be 13 liable.
 14 Sec. 3. Original section 48-125.01, Reissue Revised
 15 Statutes of Nebraska, and section 48-106, Revised Statutes

22 use and purposes stated in the Nebraska Hospital-Medical Liability
23 Act. Such fund and any income from it shall be held by the State
24 Treasurer in trust, deposited in a separate account, and invested
25 and reinvested pursuant to law.

26 (2) To create the fund, an annual surcharge shall be

16 insofar as primary liability coverage is concerned. The insurer

18 shall collect the surcharge from the health care provider and remit

21 to levy a special surcharge on all health care providers who have 22 qualified under the Nebraska Hospital-Medical Liability Act, which

26 care providers who have qualified under the Nebraska
27 Hospital-Medical Liability Act on the date of the special surcharge
1 or at any time during the preceding twelve months and shall be in 2 an amount proportionate to the surcharge each health care provider

16 44-2829 and 44-2830, but in no event shall the surcharge exceed 17 fifty percent of the annual premium paid by a health care provider
18 for maintenance of current financial responsibility.

SELECT COMMITTEE REPORT Enrollment and Review

LEGISLATIVE BILL 754. Placed on Select File as amended.
 E & R amendment to LB 754:

1 1. Strike the original sections and all amendments
 2 thereto and insert the following new sections:
 3 "Section 1. The Legislature finds that livestock 4 production has traditionally served a significant role in the 5 economic vitality of rural areas of the state and in the state's 6 overall economy and that the growth and vitality of the state's 7 livestock sector are critical to the continued prosperity of the 8 state and its citizens. The Legislature further finds that trends 9 in livestock production suggest a need to identify and address
 10 factors that affect the viability and expansion of livestock
 11 production. Those factors include the impact of livestock 12 production on the state's economy and its communities, all 13 applicable regulatory agencies, and the latest technology available 14 to enhance the livestock industry. It is the intent of the 15 Legislature to seek reasonable means to nurture and support the 16 livestock sector of this state.
 17 Sec. 2. (1) The Director of Agriculture shall establish 18 a process, including criteria and standards, to recognize and 19 assist efforts of counties to maintain or expand their livestock
 20 sector. A county that meets the criteria may apply to the director

21 to be designated a livestock friendly county. A county may remove 22 itself from the process at any time. Such criteria and standards 23 may include, but are not limited to, the following factors:
24 Consideration of the diversity of activities currently underway or 1 being initiated by counties; a formal expression of interest by a 2 county board, by a duly enacted resolution following a public 3 hearing, in developing the livestock production and processing 4 sectors of such county's economy; an assurance that such county 5 intends to work with all other governmental jurisdictions within 6 its boundaries in implementing livestock development within the 7 county; flexible and individual treatment allowing each county to 8 design its own development program according to its own timetable; 9 and a commitment to compliance with the Livestock Waste Management
10 Act.

11 (2) In order to assist any county with information and 12 technology, the Department of Agriculture shall establish a 13 resource data base to provide, upon written request of the county 14 zoning authority or county board, information sources that may be 15 useful to the county in evaluating and crafting livestock facility 16 conditional use permits that meet the objectives of the county and 17 the livestock producer applicant.

18 (3) The Department of Agriculture shall adopt and 19 promulgate rules and regulations to carry out this section.

21 Nebraska, is amended to read:

22 23-114.01. (1) In order to avail itself of the powers 23 conferred by section 23-114, the county board shall appoint a 24 planning commission to be known as the county planning commission.
25 The members of the commission shall be residents of the county to 26 be planned and shall be appointed with due consideration to 27 geographical and population factors. Since the primary focus of 1 concern and control in county planning and land-use regulatory 2 programs is the unincorporated area, a majority of the members of 3 the commission shall be residents of unincorporated areas, except 4 that this requirement shall not apply to joint planning 5 commissions. Members of the commission shall hold no county or 6 municipal office, except that a member may also be a member of a 7 city, village, or other type of planning commission. The term of 8 each member shall be three years, except that approximately 9 one-third of the members of the first commission shall serve for 10 terms of one year, one-third for terms of two years, and one-third 11 for terms of three years. All members shall hold office until 12 their successors are appointed. Members of the commission may be 13 removed by a majority vote of the county board for inefficiency, 14 neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office or other good and 15 sufficient cause upon written charges being filed with the county 16 board and after a public hearing has been held regarding such 17 charges. Vacancies occurring otherwise than through the expiration 18 of terms shall be filled for the unexpired terms by individuals

19 appointed by the county board. Members of the commission shall be 20 compensated for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in 21 connection with their duties in an amount to be fixed by the county
22 board. Reimbursement for mileage shall be made at the rate 23 provided in section 81-1176. Each county board may provide a per 24 diem payment for members of the commission of not to exceed fifteen 25 dollars for each day that each such member attends meetings of the 26 commission or is engaged in matters concerning the commission, but 27 no member shall receive more than one thousand dollars in any one 1 year. Such per diem payments shall be in addition to and separate 2 from compensation for expenses.

3 (2) The commission: (a) Shall prepare and adopt as its 4 policy statement a comprehensive development plan and such 5 implemental means as a capital improvement program, subdivision 6 regulations, building codes, and a zoning resolution; (b) shall 7 consult with and advise public officials and agencies, public 8 utilities, civic organizations, educational institutions, and 9 citizens relating to the promulgation of implemental programs; (c) 10 may delegate authority to any of the groups named in subdivision 11 (b) of this subsection to conduct studies and make surveys for the 12 commission; and (d) shall make preliminary reports on its findings 13 and hold public hearings before submitting its final reports. The 14 county board shall not hold its public meetings or take action on 15 matters relating to the comprehensive development plan, capital 16 improvements, building codes, subdivision development, or zoning 17 until it has received the recommendations of the commission.

18 (3) The commission may, with the consent of the governing 19 body, in its own name: Make and enter into contracts with public 20 or private bodies; receive contributions, bequests, gifts, or 21 grants of funds from public or private sources; expend the funds 22 appropriated to it by the county board; employ agents and 23 employees; and acquire, hold, and dispose of property. The 24 commission may, on its own authority: Make arrangements consistent 25 with its program; conduct or sponsor special studies or planning 26 work for any public body or appropriate agency; receive grants, 27 remuneration, or reimbursement for such studies or work; and at its 1 public hearings, summon witnesses, administer oaths, and compel the 2 giving of testimony.

3 (4) In all counties in the state, the county planning 4 commission may grant conditional uses or special exceptions to 5 property owners for the use of their property if the county board 6 of commissioners or supervisors has officially and generally 7 authorized the commission to exercise such powers and has approved 8 the standards and procedures the commission adopted for equitably 9 and judiciously granting such conditional uses or special 10 exceptions. The granting of a conditional use permit or special 11 exception shall only allow property owners to put their property to 12 a special use if it is among those uses specifically identified in 13 the county zoning regulations as classifications of uses which may 14 require special conditions or requirements to be met by the owners 15 before a use permit or building permit is authorized. The 16 applicant for a conditional use permit or special exception may 17 request a final determination by the county planning commission or 18 by the county board of commissioners or supervisors if the board 19 has not authorized the commission to exercise such authority. Upon 20 request the commission or board shall issue such final 21 determination in a timely manner. Such final determination may be 22 issued subject to such conditions as are imposed by the commission 23 or board, including, but not limited to, the obtaining of 24 applicable state or federal permits. The commission or the board 25 may request and review, prior to making a final determination, all 26 information relevant to the setting of conditions for the 27 conditional use or special exception.

1 (5) The power to grant conditional uses or special 2 exceptions as set forth in subsection (4) of this section shall be 3 the exclusive authority of the commission, except that the county 4 board of commissioners or supervisors may choose to retain for 5 itself the power to grant conditional uses or special exceptions 6 for those classifications of uses specified in the county zoning 7 regulations. The county board of commissioners or supervisors may 8 exercise such power if it has formally adopted standards and 9 procedures for granting such conditional uses or special exceptions 10 in a manner that is equitable and which will promote the public 11 interest.

12 (6) Whenever a county planning commission or county board 13 is authorized to grant conditional uses or special exceptions 14 pursuant to subsection (4) or (5) of this section, the planning 15 commission or county board shall, with its decision to grant or 16 deny a conditional use permit or special exception, issue a 17 statement of factual findings arising from the record of 18 proceedings that support the granting or denial of the conditional 19 use permit or special exception. If a county planning commission's 20 role is advisory to the county board, the county planning 21 commission shall submit such statement with its recommendation to 22 the county board as to whether to approve or deny a conditional use 23 permit or special exception.

24 Sec. 4. Original section 23-114.01, Reissue Revised
25 Statutes of Nebraska, is repealed."

26 2. On page 1, strike beginning with "54-2412" in line 1 27 through line 7 and insert "23-114.01, Reissue Revised Statutes of 1 Nebraska; to state intent; to provide for designation of livestock
2 friendly counties; to provide powers and duties; to change
3 provisions relating to zoning; and to repeal the original 4 section."

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINIONOpinion # 03008

DATE: April 9, 2003

SUBJECT: Competitive Bidding By Joint Entities Organized Under The Nebraska Public Safety Wireless Communication System Act.

REQUESTED BY: Senator Gene Tyson
Nebraska State Legislature

WRITTEN BY: Jon Bruning, Attorney General
Dale A. Comer, Assistant Attorney General

Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 86-401 through 86-419 (Cum. Supp. 2002) constitute the Nebraska Public Safety Wireless Communication System Act (the "Act"). That Act permits the creation of two separate joint entities under the Nebraska Interlocal Cooperation Act to implement a statewide public safety communications system.¹ Those two joint entities include an "Acquisition Agency" and an "Alliance." Under § 86-410 (1), the purpose of the Acquisition Agency is to acquire real and personal property for use in connection with a public safety communications system, and to construct any facilities necessary to implement such a system. Under § 86-410 (2), the purpose of the Alliance is to operate, maintain and manage a statewide public safety communications system. Both of those joint entities may include public safety agencies from the State, cities and villages, counties, and other political subdivisions in Nebraska as participants. Apparently, an Acquisition Agency and an Alliance involving the State and various political subdivisions have now been created under the Act to carry out its provisions.

The Act was extensively amended in 2002 by LB 1105 and LB 1211. 2002 Neb. Laws LB 1105; 2002 Neb. Laws LB 1211. In your opinion request, you state:

As one of the co-introducers of LB 1211, it concerns me that further legislation might be necessary by amendment this session. I am not aware of any requirement to force the executive board of the "alliance" to issue an RPF (sic). However, some members of the executive board of the "alliance" are concerned that the board may not have the statutory authority to freely negotiate terms and conditions with one or both of the companies which submitted bids to the state [for creation of a statewide public safety communications system] prior to passage of LB 1211. Both bids were rejected by the state.

It is my understanding that several members of the executive board of the "alliance" would like to begin negotiations with one or both companies. The executive board would be assisted by a consultant and project manager previously hired by the executive board. At a minimum, this would avoid the costly and time-consuming process of issuing another RFP.

In that context, you have posed the following question to us:

Is the executive board of the "alliance" required by any law to issue another RFP or does it have the authority to begin negotiation with one or both companies, subject to whatever terms and conditions to which the party or parties may agree?

We understand your use of the term "RFP" to refer to the "Request For Proposal" which is used by many state agencies as an initial part of the process for competitive bidding on public purchases. As a result, it appears that you have asked us whether the Alliance in this case is required to engage in a competitive bidding process to perform its duties regarding creation of a statewide public safety communications system.

We received your opinion request on the afternoon of April 7, 2003, and you have asked us to complete our response to your request by the close of the day on April 9, 2003. While we will accommodate your need for an expedited response, we will also point out that the time frame you have allowed us leaves us little opportunity for research regarding the question you presented. In addition, our response will necessarily be brief.

Under common law, and generally, there is no requirement that public contracts be let by competitive bidding in the absence of a statutory provision requiring such a bidding process. 72 C.J.S. Supp. Public Contracts § 8. In that regard, competitive bidding is not an essential prerequisite to the validity of contracts with public bodies, and the government has the unrestricted power to determine with whom it will deal, and to fix the terms and conditions upon which it will make purchases. Id. However, even in those instances where a public body has no duty to require bids in letting public contracts, it must act in the public interest, and must be fair, honest, and exercise a wise discretion in the awarding of public contracts. 72 C.J.S. Supp. Public Contracts § 7. Consequently, it seems to us that the Alliance in the present instance must engage in a competitive bidding process and issue a new RFP as described in your letter only if there are Nebraska statutes which require it to do so. In the absence of such statutes, the executive board of the Alliance may freely negotiate terms and conditions with one or both of the companies which earlier submitted bids to the state, or with others.

We have reviewed the Nebraska Public Safety Wireless Communication System Act and the Nebraska Interlocal Cooperation Act, and we have found nothing in those statutes which specifically requires competitive bidding with respect to the duties of either the Acquisition Agency or the Alliance.² Section 13-804 (5) of the Interlocal Cooperation Act does provide that no agreement under that Act will relieve any public agency of an obligation or responsibility imposed upon it by law, except to the extent that such an obligation is performed by the joint entity created under the Act. That statute could be used as the basis for an argument that the Alliance is subject to any bidding requirements imposed upon its participants under their own statutes, and we have indicated previously that a joint body formed by counties under the Interlocal Cooperation Act must publish its proceedings and claims allowed because individual counties were required to do so. Op. Att'y Gen. No. 152 (October 23, 1983). However, it appears to us that § 13-804 (5) is inapplicable to the circumstances surrounding your question because the authority of the Alliance to engage in its activities grows out of Nebraska Public Safety Wireless Communication System Act itself, and not out of the particular statutes pertinent to each of the individual

We would also note that the provisions of the Nebraska Joint Public Agency Act, Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 13-2501 to 13-2550 (Cum. Supp. 2002), contain a specific requirement regarding the bidding procedures which must be used by joint public agencies organized under that act. Neb. Rev. Stat. § 13-2526 (Cum. Supp. 2002). The fact that the Legislature chose to specifically impose bidding procedures on joint public agencies formed under the Joint Public Agency Act, but did not chose to do so for joint entities formed under Nebraska Interlocal Cooperation Act, supports the notion that competitive bidding is not required under the latter statutes.

In sum, we do not believe that the executive board of the Alliance is required by any law to issue another RFP in this case or to engage in competitive bidding as it goes about its duties. However, the board could still choose to use a competitive bidding process, if board members for the Alliance believe that such a process is proper policy under the circumstances in this case.

²We indicated earlier in an informal opinion that, in our view, the Alliance is a governmental subdivision separate and apart from the State. Therefore, we have not reviewed any statutes pertaining to the bidding requirements placed upon state agencies, because we do not believe that those statutes have application to the Alliance.

Sincerely yours,
JON BRUNING

SUBJECT: Changing the Boundaries of Community College Areas

REQUESTED BY: Senator Tom Baker

Lynn A. Melson, Assistant Attorney General

You have requested the opinion of this office regarding the constitutionality of potential legislation to change the boundaries of the community college areas. The state is currently divided into six community college areas pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 85-1504 (1999). Your question is whether it is constitutional to change, legislatively, the boundaries of the community college areas or whether the counties would be required to vote on their "district affiliation." It is our understanding, after our telephone conversation, that you do not have a concern as to a specific constitutional provision. Rather, you are asking our general opinion whether this type of legislation may be constitutionally suspect in light of the original statutory scheme which provided for a vote of area citizens prior to the forming or joining of community college areas.

The current statutes governing community colleges are found at Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 85-1501 through 85-1542 (1999 and Cum. Supp. 2002). In reviewing the history of these statutes, we have found that the current scheme was enacted in 1975 after provisions of a prior act, the Technical Community College Area Act, were found unconstitutional by the Nebraska Supreme Court in State ex rel. Western Nebraska Technical Community College Area v. Tallon, 192 Neb. 201, 219 N.W.2d 454 (1974). Specifically, a prior statute was found to provide for a property tax to support a state purpose contrary to Article VIII, § 1A of the Nebraska Constitution. As described by the Nebraska Supreme Court, the Technical Community College Area Act of 1971 "designated eight different community college areas but did not place each of the counties in the State of Nebraska into an area but left the forming or joining of areas to the vote of the citizens, or otherwise for designation by the Legislature during the 1973 legislative session, since the Act did not become fully effective operatively until July 1, 1973." Id. at 205, 219 N.W.2d at 457. Neb. Rev. Stat. § 85-1504, which divides the state into six community college areas, was enacted in 1975 as part of the new statutory scheme to address the concerns of the Nebraska Supreme Court. The old statutory provisions which provided for a vote to be held prior to the establishment of these community college areas were not included in the new statutory scheme.

We are unaware of any state constitutional provision that would restrict the Legislature in changing the boundaries of any of the community college areas. As a general principle, the Legislature may legislate on any subject not inhibited by the state or federal constitutions and restrictions on this legislative power will not be inferred unless the restriction is clearly implied. State ex rel. Creighton Univ. v. Smith, 217 Neb. 682, 353 N.W.2d 267 (1984); Lenstrom v. Thone, 209 Neb. 783, 311 N.W.2d 884 (1981). While Nebraska statutes at one time provided for a vote of the citizens in an area as one means of establishing a community college area, the statutes which were enacted after the community college areas had been established no longer provide such an option and we know of no constitutional provision that would require that the voters of each county or community college area vote on a change in the boundaries of their community college area.

Sincerely,
JON BRUNING
Attorney General

14 is qualified under the Nebraska Hospital-Medical Liability Act.

15 (4) The director shall adopt and promulgate notice
16 requirements for insurers to use in notifying their policyholders 17 of their eligibility and the cost for qualification under the act.

20 44-2829. (1) There is hereby created an Excess Liability
21 Fund to be collected and received by the director for the exclusive
22 use and purposes stated in the Nebraska Hospital-Medical Liability
23 Act. Such fund and any income from it shall be held by the State
24 Treasurer in trust, deposited in a separate account, and invested
25 and reinvested pursuant to law.

7 sections 44-2827 and 44-2837 to 44-2839; and

8 (b) The charge shall not exceed the amount necessary to 10 (3) Such surcharge and any primary insurance premiums due 11 under sections 44-2837 to 44-2839 shall be due and payable within 12 thirty days after the health care provider has qualified in 13 Nebraska pursuant to section 44-2824 and shall be payable annually 14 thereafter in such amounts as may be determined by the director 15 insofar as the surcharge is concerned and by the risk manager

16 insofar as primary liability coverage is concerned. The insurer
17 which provides professional liability insurance to the provider
18 shall collect the surcharge from the health care provider and remit 19 it to the fund within thirty days after receipt.

20 (4) The net premiums payable for primary insurance

5 giving the date upon which the suspension becomes effective has 6 been provided by the director to the health care provider.

13 legal defense of the fund. All expenses of collecting, protecting,

16 Nebraska, is amended to read:

17 44-2831. (1) The director may, at any time, analyze the 18 fund to determine if the amount in such fund is inadequate to pay 19 in full all claims allowed or to be allowed during the calendar
20 year. Upon such determination, the director shall have the power 21 to levy a special surcharge on all health care providers who have
23 special surcharge shall be an amount sufficient to permit full 24 payment of all claims allowed against the fund during a calendar
25 year. The special surcharge shall be levied against all health
26 care providers who have qualified under the Nebraska

27 Hospital-Medical Liability Act on the date of the special surcharge
1 or at any time during the preceding twelve months and shall be in 2 an amount proportionate to the surcharge each health care provider
3 has paid to the fund. Such special surcharge shall be due and 4 payable within thirty days after the same is levied. Such special 5 surcharge shall be collected by the health care provider's current 6 insurer, if the health care provider is currently qualified, or by 7 the health care provider's most recent insurer that provided 8 qualifying underlying coverage, if the health care provider is no 9 longer qualified.

10 (2) The director shall have authority to cause all or any 11 part of the potential liability of the Excess Liability Fund to be 12 reinsured, if such reinsurance is available, on a fair and 13 reasonable basis. The cost of such reinsurance shall be paid by 14 the fund and the fact of the reinsurance shall be taken into 15 account in determining the surcharge as provided in sections

17 fifty percent of the annual premium paid by a health care provider

RESOLUTION

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 74. Introduced by Hartnett, 45; Jensen, 20; Byars, 30; Johnson, 37.

WHEREAS, the Legislature recognizes that most citizens of the state would benefit from consuming calcium-rich food and beverage. It is the intent of the Legislature that governmental units, as major consumers and examples for others, should encourage the consumption of calcium-rich food and beverage by giving such products a preferred purchasing status as provided in this resolution; and

WHEREAS, for purposes of this resolution:

(1) Calcium-rich food and beverage means food or beverage that is naturally high in calcium or food or beverage to which calcium has been added in processing to improve its nutritional value; and

(2) Governmental unit means any agency, board, department, division, or institution of state government, the University of Nebraska, any state college, and any school district; and

WHEREAS, the purchasing agent for a governmental unit or for a private business which contracts with a governmental unit to purchase food or beverage that will be served in a building or room owned or operated by a governmental unit is encouraged to purchase calcium-rich food and beverage unless:

(1) The calcium-rich food or beverage is higher in price than non-calcium-rich food or beverage of similar type and quality; or

(2) The director of a state institution for which the purchase is being made determines that calcium-rich food or beverage would interfere with the proper treatment and care of a resident of the institution, and if so, food or beverage which is not calcium-rich shall be purchased for the use of such resident; and

WHEREAS, it is the intent of the Legislature that this resolution shall not apply to a contract entered into before the date this resolution is passed if purchasing calcium-rich food and beverage would change the terms of the contract.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Clerk of the Legislature provide notification of this resolution to all affected governmental units.

Laid over.

25 year. The special surcharge shall be levied against all health
26 care providers who have qualified under the Nebraska
27 Hospital-Medical Liability Act on the date of the special surcharge
1 or at any time during the preceding twelve months and shall be in 2 an amount proportionate to the surcharge each health care provider

15 account in determining the surcharge as provided in sections
16 44-2829 and 44-2830, but in no event shall the surcharge exceed 17 fifty percent of the annual premium paid by a health care provider
18 for maintenance of current financial responsibility.

24 Hospital-Medical Liability Act in advance of filing such actions.

25 (2) No action against a health care provider may be 26 commenced in any court of this state before the claimant's proposed

15 upon the director personally or by registered or certified mail at 16 the time the action is filed in court.

1 sales price of the property.

2 Sec. 8. Section 77-2703, Revised Statutes Supplement,
3 2002, is amended to read:

4 77-2703. (1) There is hereby imposed a tax at the rate 5 provided in section 77-2701.02 upon the gross receipts from all 6 sales of tangible personal property sold at retail in this state, 7 the gross receipts of every person engaged as a public utility, as 8 a community antenna television service operator or any person 9 involved in the connecting and installing of the services defined 10 in subdivision (2)(a), (b), or (d) of section 77-2702.07, or as a 11 retailer of intellectual or entertainment properties referred to in 12 subsection (3) of section 77-2702.07, the gross receipts from the 13 sale of admissions in this state, the gross receipts from the sale 14 of warranties, guarantees, service agreements, or maintenance 15 agreements when the items covered are subject to tax under this 16 section, and the gross receipts from the provision of services 17 defined in subsection (4) of section 77-2702.07. For purposes of 18 this subsection, the provision of services shall be deemed to be in 19 this state for services provided to real estate if the real estate 20 is located in this state, for services provided to personal 21 property or animals if the personal property or animal is located 22 in this state and the service is rendered for use in this state, 23 and for computer software training and detective services under 24 ~~subdivision~~ subdivisions (4)(c) and (4)(i) of section 77-2702.07 if 25 the training ~~is~~ or detective services are performed at a location 26 that is within this state for a customer located within this state.

27 When there is a sale, the tax shall be imposed at the rate in 1 effect at the time the gross receipts are realized under the 2 accounting basis used by the retailer to maintain his or her books 3 and records.

4 (a) The tax imposed by this section shall be collected by 5 the retailer from the consumer. It shall constitute a part of the 6 purchase price and until collected shall be a debt from the 7 consumer to the retailer and shall be recoverable at law in the 8 same manner as other debts. The tax required to be collected by 9 the retailer from the consumer constitutes a debt owed by the 10 retailer to this state.

11 (b) It is unlawful for any retailer to advertise, hold 12 out, or state to the public or to any customer, directly or 13 indirectly, that the tax or part thereof will be assumed or 14 absorbed by the retailer, that it will not be added to the selling, 15 renting, or leasing price of the property sold, rented, or leased, 16 or that, if added, it or any part thereof will be refunded. The 17 provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to a public utility.

18 (c) The tax required to be collected by the retailer from 19 the purchaser, unless otherwise provided by statute or by rule and 20 regulation of the Tax Commissioner, shall be displayed separately 21 from the list price, the price advertised in the premises, the 22 marked price, or other price on the sales check or other proof of 23 sales, rentals, or leases.

24 (d) For the purpose of more efficiently securing the 25 payment, collection, and accounting for the sales tax and for the 26 convenience of the retailer in collecting the sales tax, it shall 27 be the duty of the Tax Commissioner to adopt and promulgate 1 appropriate rules and regulations prescribing a schedule or 2 schedules of the amounts to be collected from the consumer or user 3 to effectuate the computation and collection of the tax imposed by 4 the Nebraska Revenue Act of 1967. Such schedule or schedules shall 5 provide that the tax shall be collected from the consumer or user 6 uniformly on sales according to brackets based on sales prices of 7 the item or items, except that the Tax Commissioner may authorize 8 computation and collection of the tax uniformly on a straight 9 percentage basis in lieu of brackets in situations involving 10 machine or computer billing.

11 (e) The use of tokens or stamps for the purpose of 12 collecting or enforcing the collection of the taxes imposed in the 13 Nebraska Revenue Act of 1967 or for any other purpose in connection

14 with such taxes is prohibited.

15 (f) For the purpose of the proper administration of the 16 provisions of the Nebraska Revenue Act of 1967 and to prevent 17 evasion of the retail sales tax, it shall be presumed that all 18 gross receipts are subject to the tax until the contrary is 19 established. The burden of proving that a sale of property is not 20 a sale at retail is upon the person who makes the sale unless he or 21 she takes, in good faith, from the purchaser (i) a resale 22 certificate to the effect that the property is purchased for the 23 purpose of reselling, leasing, or renting it, (ii) an exemption 24 certificate pursuant to subsection (7) of section 77-2705, or (iii) 25 a direct payment permit pursuant to sections 77-2705.01 to 26 77-2705.03. Receipt of a resale certificate, exemption 27 certificate, or direct payment permit, taken in good faith, shall 1 be conclusive proof for the seller that the sale was made for 2 resale or was exempt or that the tax will be paid directly to the 3 state.

4 (g) In the rental or lease of automobiles, trucks,
5 trailers, semitrailers, and truck-tractors as defined in section 6 60-301, the tax shall be collected by the lessor on the rental or 7 lease price, except as otherwise provided within this section:

8 (i) From all vehicles registered for operation upon the 9 highways of this state which are rented or leased for periods of 10 one year or more; or

11 (ii) From all vehicles delivered by the lessor within 12 this state which are rented or leased for periods of less than one 13 year.

14 (h) In the rental or lease of automobiles, trucks,
15 trailers, semitrailers, and truck-tractors as defined in section 16 60-301, for periods of one year or more, the lessor may elect not 17 to collect and remit the sales tax on the gross receipts and 18 instead pay a sales tax on the cost of such vehicle. If such 19 election is made, it shall be made pursuant to the following 20 conditions:

21 (i) Notice of the desire to make such election shall be 22 filed with the Tax Commissioner and shall not become effective 23 until the Tax Commissioner is satisfied that the taxpayer has 24 complied with all conditions of this subsection and all rules and 25 regulations of the Tax Commissioner;

26 (ii) Such election when made shall continue in force and 27 effect for a period of not less than two years and thereafter until 1 such time as the lessor elects to terminate the election;

2 (iii) When such election is made, it shall apply to all 3 vehicles of the lessor rented or leased for periods of one year or 4 more except vehicles to be leased to common or contract carriers
5 who provide to the lessor a valid common or contract carrier
6 exemption certificate. If the lessor rents or leases other 7 vehicles for periods of less than one year, such lessor shall 8 maintain his or her books and records and his or her accounting

9 procedure as the Tax Commissioner prescribes; and 10 (iv) The Tax Commissioner by rule and regulation shall 11 prescribe the contents and form of the notice of election, a 12 procedure for the determination of the tax base of vehicles which 13 are under an existing lease at the time such election becomes 14 effective, the method and manner for terminating such election, and 15 such other rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper 16 administration of this subdivision.

17 (i) The tax imposed by this section on the sales of motor 18 vehicles, trailers, and semitrailers as defined in section 60-301 19 shall be the liability of the purchaser and, with the exception of 20 motor vehicles, trailers, and semitrailers registered pursuant to 21 section 60-305.09, the tax shall be collected by the county
22 treasurer or designated county official as provided in section 23 60-302 at the time the purchaser makes application for the 24 registration of the motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer for 25 operation upon the highways of this state. The tax imposed by this 26 section on motor vehicles, trailers, and semitrailers registered 27 pursuant to section 60-305.09 shall be collected by the Department 1 of Motor Vehicles at the time the purchaser makes application for 2 the registration of the motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer for 3 operation upon the highways of this state. At the time of the sale 4 of any motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer, the seller shall (i) 5 state on the sales invoice the dollar amount of the tax imposed 6 under this section and (ii) furnish to the purchaser a certified 7 statement of the transaction, in such form as the Tax Commissioner 8 prescribes, setting forth as a minimum the total sales price, the 9 allowance for any trade-in, and the difference between the two.
10 The sales tax due shall be computed on the difference between the 11 total sales price and the allowance for any trade-in as disclosed 12 by such certified statement. Any seller who willfully understates 13 the amount upon which the sales tax is due shall be subject to a 14 penalty of one thousand dollars. A copy of such certified
15 statement shall also be furnished to the Tax Commissioner. Any 16 seller who fails or refuses to furnish such certified statement
17 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction
18 thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars
19 nor more than one hundred dollars. If the seller fails to state on 20 the sales invoice the dollar amount of the tax due, the purchaser 21 shall have the right and authority to rescind any agreement for 22 purchase and to declare the purchase null and void. If the 23 purchaser retains such motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer in 24 this state and does not register it for operation on the highways 25 of this state within thirty days of the purchase thereof, the tax 26 imposed by this section shall immediately thereafter be paid by the 27 purchaser to the county treasurer, the designated county official, 1 or the Department of Motor Vehicles. If the tax is not paid on or 2 before the thirtieth day after its purchase, the county treasurer, 3 designated county official, or Department of Motor Vehicles shall

4 also collect from the purchaser interest from the thirtieth day
5 through the date of payment and sales tax penalties as provided in 6 the Nebraska Revenue Act of 1967. The county treasurer, designated 7 county official, or Department of Motor Vehicles shall report and 8 remit the tax so collected to the Tax Commissioner by the fifteenth 9 day of the following month. The county treasurer or designated 10 county official shall deduct and withhold for the use of the county 11 general fund, from all amounts required to be collected under this 12 subsection, the collection fee permitted to be deducted by any 13 retailer collecting the sales tax. The Department of Motor 14 Vehicles shall deduct, withhold, and deposit in the Motor Carrier 15 Division Cash Fund the collection fee permitted to be deducted by 16 any retailer collecting the sales tax. The collection fee shall be 17 forfeited if the county treasurer, designated county official, or 18 Department of Motor Vehicles violates any rule or regulation 19 pertaining to the collection of the use tax.

20 (j)(i) The tax imposed by this section on the sale of a 21 motorboat as defined in section 37-1204 shall be the liability of 22 the purchaser. The tax shall be collected by the county treasurer 23 or designated county official at the time the purchaser makes 24 application for the registration of the motorboat. At the time of 25 the sale of a motorboat, the seller shall (A) state on the sales 26 invoice the dollar amount of the tax imposed under this section and 27 (B) furnish to the purchaser a certified statement of the

1 transaction, in such form as the Tax Commissioner prescribes, 2 setting forth as a minimum the total sales price, the allowance for 3 any trade-in, and the difference between the two. The sales tax 4 due shall be computed on the difference between the total sales 5 price and the allowance for any trade-in as disclosed by such 6 certified statement. Any seller who willfully understates the 7 amount upon which the sales tax is due shall be subject to a
8 penalty of one thousand dollars. A copy of such certified
9 statement shall also be furnished to the Tax Commissioner. Any 10 seller who fails or refuses to furnish such certified statement
11 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction
12 thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars
13 nor more than one hundred dollars. If the seller fails to state on 14 the sales invoice the dollar amount of the tax due, the purchaser 15 shall have the right and authority to rescind any agreement for 16 purchase and to declare the purchase null and void. If the 17 purchaser retains such motorboat in this state and does not 18 register it within thirty days of the purchase thereof, the tax 19 imposed by this section shall immediately thereafter be paid by the 20 purchaser to the county treasurer or designated county official.
21 If the tax is not paid on or before the thirtieth day after its 22 purchase, the county treasurer or designated county official shall 23 also collect from the purchaser interest from the thirtieth day 24 through the date of payment and sales tax penalties as provided in 25 the Nebraska Revenue Act of 1967. The county treasurer or 26 designated county official shall report and remit the tax so 27 collected to the Tax Commissioner by the fifteenth day of the 1 following month. The county treasurer or designated county

2 official shall deduct and withhold for the use of the county
3 general fund, from all amounts required to be collected under this 4 subsection, the collection fee permitted to be deducted by any 5 retailer collecting the sales tax. The collection fee shall be 6 forfeited if the county treasurer or designated county official 7 violates any rule or regulation pertaining to the collection of the 8 use tax.

9 (ii) In the rental or lease of motorboats, the tax shall 10 be collected by the lessor on the rental or lease price, except as 11 otherwise provided within this section:

12 (A) From all motorboats registered for operation within 13 this state which are rented or leased for periods of one year or 14 more; or

15 (B) From all motorboats delivered by the lessor within
17 year.

18 (iii) Subdivisions (1)(j)(i) and (ii) of this section 19 become operative January 1, 1997.

20 (k) The Tax Commissioner shall adopt and promulgate 21 necessary rules and regulations for determining the amount subject 22 to the taxes imposed by this section so as to insure that the full 23 amount of any applicable tax is paid in cases in which a sale is 24 made of which a part is subject to the taxes imposed by this 25 section and a part of which is not so subject and a separate 26 accounting is not practical or economical.

27 (2) A use tax is hereby imposed on the storage, use, or 1 other consumption in this state of property purchased, leased, or 2 rented from any retailer and on any transaction the gross receipts 3 of which are subject to tax under subsection (1) of this section on 4 or after June 1, 1967, for storage, use, or other consumption in 5 this state at the rate set as provided in subsection (1) of this 6 section on the sales price of the property or, in the case of 7 leases or rentals, of the lease or rental prices.

8 (a) Every person storing, using, or otherwise consuming 9 in this state property purchased from a retailer or leased or 10 rented from another person for such purpose shall be liable for the 11 use tax at the rate in effect when his or her liability for the use 12 tax becomes certain under the accounting basis used to maintain his 13 or her books and records. His or her liability shall not be 14 extinguished until the use tax has been paid to this state, except 15 that a receipt from a retailer engaged in business in this state or 16 from a retailer who is authorized by the Tax Commissioner, under 17 such rules and regulations as he or she may prescribe, to collect 18 the sales tax and who is, for the purposes of the Nebraska Revenue 19 Act of 1967 relating to the sales tax, regarded as a retailer 20 engaged in business in this state, which receipt is given to the 21 purchaser pursuant to subdivision (b) of this subsection, shall be 22 sufficient to relieve the purchaser from further liability for the 23 tax to which the receipt refers.

24 (b) Every retailer engaged in business in this state and 25 selling, leasing, or renting property for storage, use, or other 26 consumption in this state shall, at the time of making any sale, 27 collect any tax which may be due from the purchaser and shall give 1 to the purchaser, upon request, a receipt therefor in the manner
2 and form prescribed by the Tax Commissioner.

3 (c) The Tax Commissioner, in order to facilitate the 4 proper administration of the use tax, may designate such person or 5 persons as he or she may deem necessary to be use tax collectors 6 and delegate to such persons such authority as is necessary to 7 collect any use tax which is due and payable to the State of 8 Nebraska. The Tax Commissioner may require of all persons so 9 designated a surety bond in favor of the State of Nebraska to 10 insure against any misappropriation of state funds so collected.
11 The Tax Commissioner may require any tax official, city, county, or 12 state, to collect the use tax on behalf of the state. All persons 13 designated to or required to collect the use tax shall account for 14 such collections in the manner prescribed by the Tax Commissioner.
15 Nothing in this subdivision shall be so construed as to prevent the 16 Tax Commissioner or his or her employees from collecting any use 17 taxes due and payable to the State of Nebraska.

18 (d) All persons designated to collect the use tax and all 19 persons required to collect the use tax shall forward the total of 20 such collections to the Tax Commissioner at such time and in such 21 manner as the Tax Commissioner may prescribe. For all use taxes
22 collected prior to October 1, 2002, such collectors of the use tax 23 shall deduct and withhold from the amount of taxes collected two 24 and one-half percent of the first three thousand dollars remitted 25 each month and one-half of one percent of all amounts in excess of 26 three thousand dollars remitted each month as reimbursement for the 27 cost of collecting the tax. For use taxes collected on and after 1 October 1, 2002, such collectors of the use tax shall deduct and 2 withhold from the amount of taxes collected two and one-half 3 percent of the first three thousand dollars remitted each month as 4 reimbursement for the cost of collecting the tax. Any such 5 deduction shall be forfeited to the State of Nebraska if such 6 collector violates any rule, regulation, or directive of the Tax 7 Commissioner.

8 (e) For the purpose of the proper administration of the 9 Nebraska Revenue Act of 1967 and to prevent evasion of the use tax, 10 it shall be presumed that property sold, leased, or rented by any 11 person for delivery in this state is sold, leased, or rented for 12 storage, use, or other consumption in this state until the contrary 13 is established. The burden of proving the contrary is upon the 14 person who purchases, leases, or rents the property.

15 (f) It shall be further presumed, in the absence of 16 evidence to the contrary, that property shipped or brought to this 17 state by the purchaser after June 1, 1967, was purchased from a 18 retailer on or after that date for storage, use, or other 19 consumption in this state.

20 (g)(i) Except as provided in subdivisions (g)(ii) through 21 (g)(v) of this subsection, when a person purchases property in 22 another state, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or 23 possession of the United States, or any foreign country with the 24 intent of using such property in such other state, commonwealth, 25 territory, possession, or country and such property is actually 26 used in the other state, commonwealth, territory, possession, or 27 country for its intended purpose, the property shall not be subject 1 to tax in this state.

2 (ii) Subdivision (g)(i) of this subsection shall only 3 apply to a motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer as defined in 4 section 60-301 when it is licensed for operation on the highways of 5 the other state, commonwealth, territory, possession, or country
6 prior to being brought into this state. Licensed for operation on 7 the highways does not include any temporary registration, 8 licensing, or in transit procedure that allows nonresidents to 9 operate the motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer on the highways 10 of the other state, commonwealth, territory, possession, or country 11 for a limited time with the intent to remove the motor vehicle from 12 the other state, commonwealth, territory, possession, or country.

13 (iii) Subdivision (g)(i) of this subsection shall not 14 apply to an aircraft which is brought into this state within one 15 year of purchase and (A) is regularly based within this state or 16 (B) more than one-half of the aircraft's operating hours are within 17 this state.

18 For purposes of subdivision (g)(iii) of this subsection, 19 operation of the aircraft for the purpose of maintenance, repair, 20 or fabrication with subsequent removal from this state upon 21 completion of such maintenance, repair, or fabrication shall not be 22 considered operating hours.

23 (iv)(A) Subdivision (g)(i) of this subsection shall only 24 apply to a motorboat as defined in section 37-1204 when it is 25 registered for operation in the other state, commonwealth, 26 territory, possession, or country prior to being brought into this 27 state.

1 (B) Subdivision (g)(iv)(A) of this subsection becomes 2 operative January 1, 1997.

3 (v) Subdivision (g)(i) of this subsection shall not apply 4 to any property that is manufactured, processed, or fabricated in 5 another state and that is not used for its intended purpose in the 6 other state after its manufacture, processing, or fabrication.

- 3 "Section 1. The purposes of sections 1 to 9 of this act
- 4 are to establish a standardized, open, and fair process for
- 5 selection of contractual services and to create an accurate
- 6 reporting of expended funds for contractual services. This process
- 7 shall promote a standardized method of selection for state
- 8 contracts for services, assuring a fair assessment of
- 9 qualifications and capabilities for project completion. There
- 10 shall also be an accountable, efficient reporting method of
- 11 expenditures for these services.
- 12 Sec. 2. For purposes of sections 1 to 9 of this act:
- 13 (1) Contract for services means any contract that
- 14 directly engages the time or effort of an independent contractor
- 15 whose purpose is to perform an identifiable task, study, or report
- 16 rather than to furnish an end item of supply, goods, equipment, or
- 17 material;
- 18 (2) Emergency means necessary to meet an urgent or
- 19 unexpected requirement or when health and public safety or the
- 20 conservation of public resources is at risk;

- 2 source to provide the service. Determination that the contractor

- 4 uniqueness of the service or sole availability at the location
- 5 required; and
- 6 (5) State agency or agency means any state agency, board,
- 7 or commission other than the University of Nebraska, the Nebraska
- 8 state colleges, the courts, the Legislature, or any officer or
- 9 agency established by the Constitution of Nebraska.

22 (2) The requirements of this section also apply to the 23 Nebraska state colleges, the courts, the Legislature, and any 24 officer or agency established by the Constitution of Nebraska, but 25 not to the University of Nebraska.

26 (3) The Director of Administrative Services shall 27 establish a centralized data base, either through the state 1 accounting system or through an alternative system, which 2 specifically identifies where a copy of each contract for services 3 may be found.

18 then state agency directors shall ensure that bid documents for 19 each contract for services in excess of fifty thousand dollars are 20 prereviewed by the materiel division and that any changes to the 21 proposed contract that differ from the bid documents in the 22 proposed contract for services are reviewed by the materiel 23 division before signature by the parties;

3 may appeal in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act.

4 (3) If the commission enters an order declining 5 jurisdiction under subsection (1) of this section, any interested 6 person may petition the district court of the county in which such 7 alleged violation has occurred. If it appears to the court, after 8 a hearing, that a provision of such acts or sections has been 9 violated, the court may issue an injunction or other proper process 10 to restrain the telecommunications company and its directors, 11 officers, employees, or agents or the agency or political 13 order additional relief. Any party to the case shall have the 14 right to appeal the decision of the district court to the Court of 15 Appeals under the rules provided by law for appeals in civil cases.

16 Sec. 12. Section 75-134, Revised Statutes Supplement,

20 a basic or underlying nature, (b) the ultimate facts, and (c) the 21 commission's reasoning or other authority relied upon by the 22 commission.

23 (2) Every order of the commission shall become effective 24 ten days after the date of the mailing of a copy of the order to 25 the parties of record except (a) when the commission prescribes a 26 later effective date, (b) as otherwise provided in section 75-121 27 or 75-139, (c) as otherwise provided for cease and desist orders 1 issued pursuant to section 75-133, or (d) for orders entered 2 pursuant to section 75-319 which shall be effective on the date of 3 entry.

4 (3) Except as otherwise provided in this section or for 5 rate orders provided for in section 75-139, if one of the parties 6 of record commences an appeal pursuant to section 75-137, the order 7 appealed shall be in abeyance until the Court of Appeals or Supreme 8 Court issues its mandate. Nothing in this section shall hold in 9 abeyance an order authorizing the issuance of a certificate or 10 permit, an order denying relief or authority, or an order entered 11 pursuant to section 75-319.

12 (4) If a party of record to a telecommunications order
13 commences an appeal in accordance with the Administrative Procedure
14 Act, the order appealed shall become effective on the date

3 (a) the applicant for the stay is likely to prevail when the matter 4 is finally decided, (b) without relief, the applicant will suffer 5 irreparable injury, and (c) the grant of relief to the applicant 6 will not substantially harm other parties to the proceedings. The 7 commission or district court may require the party requesting such 8 stay to give bond in such amount and conditioned as the commission 9 or court may direct. The grant or denial of a stay shall not be 10 considered to be a final order.

11 Sec. 13. Section 75-156, Revised Statutes Supplement,
12 2002, is amended to read:

13 75-156. (1) In addition to other penalties and relief 14 provided by law, the Public Service Commission may, upon a finding 15 that the violation is proven by clear and convincing evidence,

16 assess a civil penalty of up to ten thousand dollars per day 17 against any person, motor carrier, regulated motor carrier, common 18 carrier, or contract carrier for each violation of (a) any 19 provision of sections 75-301 to 75-390 administered by the

23 Act, the Emergency Telephone Communications Systems Act, the 24 Intrastate Pay-Per-Call Regulation Act, the Nebraska
25 Telecommunications Regulation Act, the Nebraska Telecommunications
26 Universal Service Fund Act, or the Telecommunications Relay System

1 permit issued by the commission pursuant to sections 75-301 to 2 75-390, or (d) any rule, regulation, or order of the commission 3 issued under authority delegated to the commission pursuant to 4 sections 75-301 to 75-390. The civil penalty assessed under this 5 section shall not exceed two million dollars per year for each 6 violation. The amount of the civil penalty assessed in each case 7 shall be based on the severity of the violation charged. The 8 commission may compromise or mitigate any penalty prior to hearing 9 if all parties agree. In determining the amount of the penalty, 10 the commission shall consider the appropriateness of the penalty in 11 light of the gravity of the violation and the good faith of the 12 violator in attempting to achieve compliance after notification of 13 the violation is given.

14 (2) Upon notice and hearing in accordance with this 15 section and section 75-157, the commission may enter an order 16 assessing a civil penalty of up to (a) one hundred dollars against 17 any person, firm, partnership, limited liability company, 18 corporation, cooperative, or association for failure to file an 19 annual report as required by section 75-116 and as prescribed by 20 commission rules and regulations or for failure to register as 21 required by section 86-125 and as prescribed by commission rules 22 and regulations or (b) up to two thousand five hundred dollars for 23 a violation of the Telephone Solicitation Regulation Act. Each day 24 during which the violation continues after the commission has 25 issued an order finding that a violation has occurred constitutes a 26 separate offense. Any party aggrieved by an order of the 27 commission under this section, except an order assessing a civil 1 penalty issued under subdivision (1)(b) of this section, has the 2 rights of appeal set forth in section 75-136.01. For an order 3 assessing a civil penalty issued under subdivision (1)(b) of this 4 section, any party aggrieved may appeal. The appeal shall be in 5 accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act.

6 (3) When any person or party is accused of any violation 7 listed in this section, the commission shall notify such person or 8 party in writing (a) setting forth the date, facts, and nature of 9 each act or omission upon which each charge of a violation is 10 based, (b) specifically identifying the particular statute,

11 certificate, permit, rule, regulation, or order purportedly 12 violated, (c) that a hearing will be held and the time, date, and 13 place of the hearing, (d) that in addition to the civil penalty, 14 the commission may enforce additional penalties and relief as 15 provided by law, and (e) that upon failure to pay any civil penalty 16 determined by the commission, the penalty may be collected by civil 17 action in the district court of Lancaster County.

3 determination that an actual or potential environmental hazard or 4 accessibility barrier exists, that a life safety code violation 5 exists, or that expenditures are needed for indoor air quality or 6 mold abatement and prevention within the school buildings or 7 grounds under its control, a school board may make and deliver to 8 the county clerk of such county in which any part of the school 9 district is situated, not later than the date provided in section 10 13-508, an itemized estimate of the amounts necessary to be 11 expended for the abatement of such environmental hazard, ~~for~~ or 12 accessibility barrier elimination, or for modifications for life 13 safety code violations, indoor air quality, or mold abatement and 14 prevention in its such school buildings or grounds. The board 15 shall conduct a public hearing on the itemized estimate prior to 16 presenting such estimate to the county clerk. Notice of the place 17 and time of such hearing shall, at least five days prior to the 18 date set for hearing, be published in a newspaper of general 19 circulation within the school district. The board shall designate 20 the particular environmental hazard abatement project, ~~or~~

6 tax levy provided for by this section will be expended, the period 7 of years, not exceeding fifteen, for which the tax will be levied

9 for each year of the period. The hearing required by this 13 district.

14 (3) The board may designate more than one project under 15 subsection (1) of this section or qualified capital purpose under 16 subsection (2) of this section and levy a tax pursuant to this

19 levy in each year and the duration of each such levy will not 20 exceed the limitations specified in this section. Each levy for a 21 project or qualified capital purpose which is authorized by this 22 section may be imposed for such duration as the board specifies, 23 notwithstanding the contemporaneous existence or subsequent

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINION

Opinion # 03010

SUBJECT: Does the "Office of the Nebraska Capitol

Commission" Proposed to be Created Under LB 755 Constitute an "Executive Office of the State" Under Neb. Const. art. IV, § 27, Requiring Approval by a
Two-Thirds Majority Vote of the Legislature?

REQUESTED BY: Senator Carroll Burling

L. Jay Bartel, Assistant Attorney General

You have requested our opinion regarding whether the "Office of the Nebraska Capitol Commission" proposed to be established under LB 755, as amended by AM470, would create a new "executive state office" under Neb. Const. art. IV, § 27, which would require approval by a two-thirds majority vote of the Legislature. For the reasons set forth below, we do not believe that the proposed "Office of the Capitol Commission" would be an "executive state office" within the intent and meaning of art. IV, § 27.

On several occasions, the Nebraska Supreme Court has construed the phrase "executive state office" in art. IV, § 27. In Mekota v. State Bd. of Equal., 146 Neb. 370, 19 N.W.2d 633 (1945), the Court considered whether legislation establishing the Department of Industrial Development created a new "executive state office" within the meaning of art. IV, § 27. In addressing this issue, the Court quoted from its earlier opinion in State v. Loechner, 65 Neb. 814, 818-19, 91 N.W. 874, 875 (1902), where it noted that "[a]n executive officer, in the proper sense of the term, is one whose duties are mainly to cause the laws to be executed; such as the president, the governor of a state, or the chief executive officer of a city. It pertains to the execution and enforcement of the laws by one charged with that particular duty." 146 Neb. at 382, 19 N.W.2d at 640. Noting the various "named and defined" purposes of the Department of Industrial Development, and the numerous powers and duties granted the Department, "without anything the purport of which [was] to subject the department or any of its personnel to any type of control, supervision, or direction in the accomplishment of its purposes or the performance of its powers and duties to any other department of the state or any official thereof. . .", the Court concluded the Department was "a new executive state office within the meaning of" art. IV, § 27, which was not validly created because the legislation creating the Department did not receive the required two-thirds vote of the Legislature.

Shortly after its decision in Mekota, the Court, in State ex rel. Howard v. Marsh, 146 Neb. 750, 21 N.W.2d 503 (1946), considered whether the Department of Agriculture and Inspection was an executive department of the state within the meaning of Neb. Const. art. IV, § 1, created pursuant to art. IV, § 27, as well as whether the Director of the Department was an executive officer within the meaning of art. IV, § 1.¹ In concluding the Department was an executive department of the state, and that its director was an executive officer, the Court noted the Department was one of six departments legislatively created "for the purpose of aiding the Governor in the execution and administration of the laws" of the State, and outlined at length the "vast powers and functions which [were] conferred upon the Department of Agriculture and Inspection" to enforce and administer various general laws. Id. at 756-762, 21 N.W.2d at 506-510.

A few months after deciding Marsh, the Court, in State ex rel. Johnson v. Chase, 147 Neb. 758, 25 N.W.2d 1 (1946), held that the Nebraska Liquor Control Commission was not an executive department of the state, and Commissioners were thus not "heads of an executive department" within the meaning of art. IV, § 1. The Court's opinion included a discussion of the historical background surrounding Nebraska's constitutional provisions relating to executive departments and officers. In particular, the Court noted that the Constitution of 1875 set forth the specific offices of the executive department, and prohibited the creation of other executive state offices. 147 Neb. at 764, 25 N.W.2d at 5. In 1919, the Legislature adopted the "Civil Administrative Code", which vested civil administration in the Governor, and established several executive and administrative departments to aid the Governor, including the Department of Finance, the Department of Agriculture, the Department of Labor, the Department of Trade and Commerce, the Department of Public Welfare, and the Department of Public Works. Id. at 765, 21 N.W.2d at 5-6. The 1919 Legislature also called a constitutional convention, which convened in 1920. Id. at 766, 21 N.W.2d at 6. During the constitutional convention proceedings leading to the adoption of the new Constitution in 1920, "the question arose as to how executive offices and officers should be treated in such Constitution." Id. at 767, 21 N.W.2d at 6. A committee report prepared on this issue noted the prohibition against creation of executive offices in the Constitution of 1875 "made the Constitution of 1875 very rigid as to the creation of other executive offices. . . ." Id. Because many duties had evolved which could not be performed by the executive departments established in the Constitution, and the Legislature was prohibited from creating new executive departments, "the Legislature went into the makeshift of creating boards to perform the functions of the executive department which were or could not be performed by the individual officers by reason of the constitutional limitations that were placed upon the power of the Legislature." Id. "The Civil Administrative Code bill was an attempt to remedy some of the difficulties occurring in this respect." Id. The boards previously established to perform various functions were eliminated by the Code and six departments "with executive heads appointed by the governor. . ." were established, thus "for the first time in the legislative history of the state" creating "what [were] known as 'heads of executive departments.'" Id. at 768, 21 N.W.2d at 6-7. Discussing the import of this history in relation to the question presented, the Court in Chase stated:

The phrase 'heads of executive departments' could mean nothing more than the heads of the code departments of 1919, or as provided for in section 1, article IV, of the Constitution of 1920, '* * * such other executive departments as may be established by law.' It is therefore clear that the language used in the code law, and the language used in the present Constitution refers to executive departments created, or to be created, within the limitations of the Constitution. It is obvious that this language does not foreclose the right or power of the Legislature to create boards or bureaus or departments that deal singly with independent legislation such as, in the instant case, the Nebraska Liquor Control Commission. . . .

Id. at 768, 21 N.W.2d at 7.

The Court further noted that "[t]he Legislature, over a long period of years, interpreted the Constitution as permitting the creation of boards, commissions, and agencies that are not executive departments within the constitutional definition. . .", citing as examples the Nebraska Aeronautics Commission, the Game, Forestation and Parks Commission, the Board of Examiners and Professional Engineers and Architects, the State Real Estate Commission, "and other boards and bureaus too numerous to mention." Id. at 776, 21 N.W.2d at 11. "A careful analysis" of the duties of such boards and commissions "disclose[d] that they have some executive duties to perform, but they deal primarily with special independent subjects removed from the category of executive departments as defined and recognized by law. . ." Id. Emphasizing the limited functions performed by such creations, the Court stated:

Every commission that exercises executive duties in some capacity cannot be narrowed to the definition of being an executive department under the governor. The full purport of the act under consideration, the duties involved with the subject matter as distinguished from executive officers enumerated in the Constitution and under the statutes, make it perfectly plain that the Legislature was not creating an executive department when it created the Nebraska Liquor Control Commission.

Id. at 777, 21 N.W.2d at 11.

Stating "[t]he distinction between executive departments of government and many other executive or independent agencies, though difficult of definition, is and has been recognized from the beginning by the federal government. . .", the Court in Chase cited with approval from Burnap v. United States, 252 U.S. 512, 515 (1920), in which the U. S. Supreme Court stated: "'The term 'head of a Department' means. . . the Secretary in charge of a great division of the executive branch of the Government, . . . It does not include heads of bureaus or lesser divisions.'" 147 Neb. at 777, 21 N.W.2d at 11. The Chase Court found this language "appropriate in the instant case", noting that "[o]ne of the very important tests is that the department, if executive, has primarily to do with the political government of the state in the execution and enforcement of the law wherein the Governor is the supreme executive power." Id. at 777-78, 21 N.W.2d at 11. As the Liquor Control Commission established "an independent, bipartisan body of experts charged with duties that pertain to an independent subject. . .", the Court reasoned it could not "in any proper sense be characterized as an arm or eye of the executive", and a member of the Commission thus could not "possibly be said to the head of an executive department. . . ." Id. at 778 780, 21 N.W.2d at 12.

Finally, in Sommerville v. Johnson, 149 Neb. 167, 30 N.W.2d 577 (1948), the Court considered whether the Nebraska Merit System Act was unconstitutional because it created a new "executive state office" without receiving the vote of a two-thirds majority of the Legislature as required by art. IV, § 27. The Court, as it did in Chase, reviewed the history of the constitutional provisions governing executive departments and officers. Id. at 170-174, 30 N.W.2d at 580-81. Referencing the Proceedings of the Constitutional Convention of 1919-20, the Court stated:

What did the Constitutional Convention intend when they used the words 'executive officers,' 'heads of such other executive departments,' and 'executive state office' in the amendments which the people adopted? . . . [I]t appears that the Constitutional Convention, when using the terms above quoted, did so with the meaning that they were referring to officers and departments and offices that had the comparable scope, functions, and purposes of the officers, departments, and offices specifically named in the amendment. . . Again, as we said in the Chase opinion,. . . , it does not indicate an intent to restrict the 'power of the Legislature to create boards or bureaus or departments that deal singly with independent legislation.'

Based on this standard, the Sommerville Court phrased the question before it as follows:

Does the act here under attack and the offices it creates reasonably compare with the scope, powers, and functions of the established executive officers and departments, within the executive department of government named in the Constitution, or do they properly classify in the group of administrative officers and activities that have always been recognized as within the power of the Legislature to create?

Id. at 174, 30 N.W.2d at 581-82.

After reviewing the purpose, structure, and duties provided under the Merit System Act, the Court concluded it did not create an "executive state office":

It is evident that the Legislature here established an agency in the nature of a civil service commission. It created a council to guide and direct the administration of the act. . . It is intended to promote efficiency, economy, and equality as to salaries for comparable work in the participating agencies. It depends in part upon cooperative effort between the council, the director, and the participating agencies. It administers no law save the law by which it was created. It deals with state officials and those who are or desire to be employees of the state in the limited classifications. It executes none of the laws of the state so far as they relate to the people generally. We think it quite clear that it does not create an executive department nor an executive state office within the meaning of the constitution[]. . . .

Id. at 177, 30 N.W.2d at 583.

The Nebraska Supreme Court's decisions interpreting the term "executive state office" in art. IV, § 27, indicate that the phrase is understood to apply only to departments and offices of State government which are comparable in scope, function, and purpose to the executive officers established in art. IV, § 1, and the "heads of executive departments" established by law pursuant to this constitutional provision. These executive departments are those identified in Neb. Rev. Stat. § 81-101 (Cum. Supp. 2002), and the heads of those departments are established by Neb. Rev. Stat. § 81-102 (Cum. Supp. 2002). These executive departments and officers are involved principally in the execution and enforcement of general laws of the state. "[B]oards, bureaus, departments, or commissions that deal singly with independent legislation" are not "executive state offices" within the meaning of art. IV, § 27. Chase, 147 Neb. at 768, 21 N.W.2d at 7.

An analysis of the purposes, powers, and duties of the proposed "Office of the Nebraska Capitol Commission" [the "Office"] under LB 755, as amended, demonstrates that the Office would not be an "executive state office" within the meaning of art. IV, § 27. The Office would be part of the Nebraska Capitol Commission [the "Commission"], and headed by a State Capitol Administrator [the "Administrator"]. The primary functions of the Office would be facilities planning, facilities construction, and facilities administration of the State Capitol and capitol grounds. The Administrator would be appointed by the Governor upon recommendation by the Commission. The Administrator would be required to take the constitutional oath of office before serving, and be bonded, but is not subject to approval by the Legislature. The Commission would replace the Director of the Department of Administrative Services as the designated custodian of the State Capitol and capitol grounds, and the Administrator, under the direction and oversight of the Governor, would be granted control and power to maintain the State Capitol and capitol grounds. The Administrator would essentially assume the powers and duties currently performed by the State Building Administrator appointed by the Director of the Department of Administrative Services pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 81-1108.17 (1999) with respect to maintenance and control of the State Capitol and capitol grounds. In addition, the Administrator would develop a recommended office space utilization plan for the State Capitol to be approved by the Commission which accommodates elected constitutional officers, and would be responsible for determining the space needs of departments and agencies of the state located in the Capitol.

The purposes, powers, and duties of the Office under LB 755, as amended, are limited in scope, and pertain specifically to the maintenance, preservation, and utilization of the State Capitol and capitol grounds. The Office would not be charged with enforcing and executing laws of the state generally. The Office is properly viewed as a commission dealing "singly with independent legislation", and thus not an "executive state office" within the intent and meaning of art. IV, § 27. Accordingly, it is our opinion that LB 755, as amended, may be validly enacted without receiving the two-thirds majority vote required by art. IV, § 27, and that a simple majority vote of the Legislature would be sufficient to create the Office.

¹ At the time Marsh was decided, Neb. Const. art. IV, § 1, provided, in pertinent part: "The executive officers of the state shall be the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Attorney General, Superintendent of Public Instruction and the heads of such other executive departments as may be established by law." 146 Neb. at 753, 21 N.W.2d at 505. Article IV, § 1, currently provides the "executive officers of the state" include the same named officers, with the exception of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, as well as "the heads of such other executive departments of government as set forth herein or as may be established by law." Neb. Const. art. IV, § 1.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 81. Introduced by Thompson, 14.

The Legislature finds that:

- (1) The recruitment and retention of fire and emergency personnel is a priority to all Nebraska communities;
- (2) The pension plans for firefighters in cities of the first class have not been reviewed since their revision in the 1980's; and
- (3) Cities of the first class are at a competitive disadvantage in retaining their firefighters because of stagnant growth in existing pension plans versus firefighting pension plans in cities of the primary and metropolitan classes.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Nebraska Retirement Systems Committee of the Legislature shall conduct an interim study to determine the implications of allowing existing firefighter pension plans of cities of the first class to serve as a minimum pension standard and of allowing all cities of the first class the opportunity to upgrade existing firefighter pension plans.

Referred to the Executive Board.

14 their beneficiaries shall be paid from the fund.

15 (8) Any member who is making contributions to the fund on 16 December 25, 1969, may, on or before June 30, 1970, elect to become 17 a future member by delivering written notice of such election to 18 the board.

19 (9) Not later than January 1 of each year, the State
20 Treasurer shall transfer to the fund an amount, determined on the 21 basis of an actuarial valuation as of the previous June 30 and 22 certified by the board, to fully fund the unfunded accrued
23 liabilities of the retirement system as of June 30, 1988, by level
24 payments up to January 1, 2000. Such valuation shall be on the 25 basis of actuarial assumptions recommended by the actuary, approved

26 by the board, and kept on file with the board. For the fiscal year 27 beginning July 1, 2002, and each fiscal year thereafter, the 1 actuary for the board shall perform an actuarial valuation of the 2 system using the entry age actuarial cost method. Under this 3 method, the actuarially required funding rate is equal to the 4 normal cost rate, plus the contribution rate necessary to amortize
5 the unfunded actuarial accrued liability on a level payment basis.
6 The normal cost under this method shall be determined for each
7 individual member on a level percentage of salary basis. The 8 normal cost amount is then summed for all members. The initial 9 unfunded actual accrued liability as of July 1, 2002, if any, shall 10 be amortized over a twenty-five-year period. During each
11 subsequent actuarial valuation, changes in the funded actuarial
12 accrued liability due to changes in benefits, actuarial
13 assumptions, the asset valuation method, or actuarial gains or 14 losses shall be measured and amortized over a twenty-five-year
15 period beginning on the valuation date of such change. If the 16 unfunded actuarial accrued liability under the entry age actuarial
17 cost method is zero or less than zero on an actuarial valuation 18 date, then all prior unfunded actuarial accrued liabilities shall 19 be considered fully funded and the unfunded actuarial accrued
20 liability shall be reinitialized and amortized over a
21 twenty-five-year period as of the actuarial valuation date. If the 22 actuarially required contribution rate exceeds the rate of all
23 contributions required pursuant to the Judges Retirement Act, there 24 shall be a supplemental appropriation sufficient to pay for the 25 differences between the actuarially required contribution rate and 26 the rate of all contributions required pursuant to the Judges
27 Retirement Act.

1 (10) The state or county shall pick up the member
2 contributions required by this section for all compensation paid on 3 or after January 1, 1985, and the contributions so picked up shall 4 be treated as employer contributions in determining federal tax
5 treatment under the Internal Revenue Code as defined in section 6 49-801.01, except that the state or county shall continue to 7 withhold federal income taxes based upon these contributions until 8 the Internal Revenue Service or the federal courts rule that,
9 pursuant to section 414(h) of the code, these contributions shall 10 not be included as gross income of the member until such time as 11 they are distributed or made available. The state or county shall 12 pay these member contributions from the same source of funds which 13 is used in paying earnings to the member. The state or county
14 shall pick up these contributions by a compensation deduction
15 through a reduction in the compensation of the member. Member 16 contributions picked up shall be treated for all purposes of the 17 Judges Retirement Act in the same manner and to the extent as 18 member contributions made prior to the date picked up.
19 Sec. 4. Section 24-708, Revised Statutes Supplement,
20 2002, is amended to read:

21 24-708. (1) Any judge may retire upon reaching the age
22 of sixty-five years and upon making application to the board. Upon 23 retiring each such judge shall receive retirement annuities as 24 provided in section 24-710.

25 (2) A judge may retire upon reaching the age of sixty-two 26 years and receive the retirement annuity provided by section 24-710
27 but shall be subject to a reduction of such annuity by three 1 percent for each year after the judge's sixty-second birthday that 2 is between his or her retirement and his or her sixty-fifth
3 birthday.

4 (3) A judge may retire upon ~~the attainment of~~ reaching 5 the age of fifty-five years and elect to receive a reduced monthly
6 retirement income in lieu of a deferred vested annuity. The judge 7 may request that the reduced monthly retirement income commence at 8 any date, beginning on the first day of the month following the 9 actual retirement date and ending on the normal retirement date.
10 The amount of the monthly retirement income shall be calculated
11 based on the length of creditable service and average compensation 12 at the actual retirement date and shall be reduced when the 13 payments commence prior to the normal retirement date to an amount 14 that is actuarially equivalent to the deferred vested annuity
15 payable at the normal retirement date.

16 (3) (4) Payment of any benefit provided under the Judges
17 Retirement Act may not be deferred later than the sixtieth day 18 after the end of the year in which the judge has both attained at 19 least age seventy and one-half years and terminated his or her
20 employment as a judge.

21 (4) (5) The effective date of retirement payments shall 22 be the first day of the month following (a) the date a member 23 qualifies for retirement as provided in this section or (b) the 24 date upon which a member's request for retirement is received on an 25 application form provided by the retirement system, whichever is 26 later. An application may be filed no more than ninety days in 27 advance of qualifying for retirement.

1 Sec. 5. Section 24-710, Revised Statutes Supplement,
2 2002, is amended to read:

3 24-710. (1) The retirement annuity of a judge who is an 4 original member, who has not made the election provided for in 5 subsection (8) of section 24-703 or section 24-710.01, and who 6 retires under section 24-708 or 24-709 shall be computed as 7 follows: Each such judge shall be entitled to receive an annuity,
8 each monthly payment of which shall be in an amount equal to three 9 and one-third percent of his or her final average compensation as 10 such judge, multiplied by the number of his or her years of 11 creditable service. The amount stated in this section shall be 12 supplemental to any benefits received by such judge under the 13 Nebraska and federal old age and survivors' insurance acts at the 14 date of retirement, but the monthly combined benefits received
15 thereunder and by the Judges Retirement Act shall not exceed

16 sixty-five percent of the final average compensation such judge was 17 receiving when he or she last served as such judge. The amount of 18 retirement annuity of a judge who retires under section 24-708 or 19 24-709 shall not be less than twenty-five dollars per month if he 20 or she has four years or more of service credit.

21 (2) The retirement annuity of a judge who is a future
22 member and who retires after July 1, 1986, under section 24-708 or

24 entitled to receive an annuity, each monthly payment of which shall 25 be in an amount equal to three and one-half percent of his or her
26 final average compensation as such judge, multiplied by the number
27 of his or her years of creditable service, except that the monthly
1 benefits received under this subsection shall not exceed seventy 2 percent of the final average compensation such judge was receiving 3 when he or she last served as such judge.

4 (3) Except as provided in section 42-1107, any member
5 may, when filing an application as provided by the retirement
6 system, elect to receive, in lieu of the normal form annuity
7 benefits to which the member or his or her beneficiary may 8 otherwise be entitled under the Judges Retirement Act, any form of 9 annuity which the board may by rules and regulations provide, the 10 value of which, determined by accepted actuarial methods and on the 11 basis of actuarial assumptions recommended by the actuary, approved 12 by the board, and kept on file in the office of the director, is 13 equal to the value of the benefit replaced. The board shall (a) 14 adopt and promulgate appropriate rules and regulations establishing 15 joint and survivorship annuities, with and without reduction on the 16 death of the first annuitant, ~~and~~ such other forms of annuities as 17 may in its judgment be appropriate, and as provided in section 18 24-707, (b) prescribe appropriate forms for making the election by 19 the members, and (c) provide for the necessary actuarial services
20 to make the required valuations.

21 (4) A one-time cost-of-living adjustment shall be made 22 for each retired judge and each surviving beneficiary who is 23 receiving a retirement annuity as provided for in this section.
24 The annuity shall be adjusted by the increase in the cost of living
25 or wage levels between the effective date of retirement and June 26 30, 1992, except that such increases shall not exceed three percent 27 per year of retirement and the total increase shall not exceed two 1 hundred fifty dollars per month.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 86. Introduced by McDonald, 41; Synowiecki, 7; Mossey, 3.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to study whether Nebraska should adopt legislation requiring the use of uniform digitized law enforcement identification for all peace officers in the state as defined in section 49-801.

Nebraska does not have a common standard for law enforcement identification. Identification varies with the law enforcement agency and most identification cards can be easily forged with a minimum of effort and equipment.

In order to carry out the purpose of this resolution, the Judiciary Committee of the Legislature should seek the assistance of the Nebraska Commission on Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice and consider the input of interested persons as the committee deems necessary and useful.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Judiciary Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

Referred to the Executive Board.

2 fixtures, equipment, supplies, and other improvements and materials
3 reasonably required to operate a child care facility and the direct
4 operating costs of staffing, operating, and maintaining a child
5 care facility. The costs include the payroll taxes and employee
6 benefit costs of staffing the child care facility and sales and use
7 taxes on purchases included in the costs of providing child care,
8 but not an allocation of the business firm's general,

11 buildings. The costs include payments to third parties to 12 reimburse the third parties for amounts expended by them and which 13 would have been costs incurred by the business firm in providing 14 child care services if incurred directly by the business firm or to 15 subsidize the cost of providing child care for the children of 16 employees in such third parties' facilities; and 17 (d) Providing child care services means expending funds
18 to improve, furnish, license, accredit, qualify for accreditation,

27 as amended, any business firm which provides child care services
1 shall be allowed a credit against the individual income tax,
2 corporate income tax, premium or related retaliatory tax, or 3 franchise tax equal to thirty percent of the costs incurred by the 4 business firm in providing child care services for children of 5 employees for each taxable year, up to fifty percent of such 6 business firm's total tax liability. In the case of a sole 7 proprietorship, partnership, or limited liability company which is 8 taxed as a pass-through entity or a corporation which has in effect
9 an election under subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code, the

12 corporation subject to the state income tax imposed by section
13 77-2734.02. Such pass-through entities shall allocate the 14 allowable credit among their proprietors, partners, members, or 15 shareholders in the same manner as taxable income is allocated. In 16 the case of a fiduciary, the maximum allowable amount of the credit 17 shall be fifty percent of the income tax liability of the fiduciary
18 computed without any deduction for distributions, and the allowable
19 credit shall be allocated among the fiduciary and its beneficiaries 20 in proportion to the taxable income included by each beneficiary in 21 his or her Nebraska income tax returns. In the case of a
22 corporation which is part of a unitary group as defined in section
23 77-2734.04 and which is included in the combined income tax return

24 of such group, the unitary group shall be the business firm which 25 is providing child care services. Entities which are disregarded
26 for federal income tax purposes shall be disregarded for purposes
27 of defining the business firm which is providing child care
1 services. The credit shall only be used to reduce the tax
2 liabilities of the business firm, or in the case of pass-through 3 entities, the beneficiaries, proprietors, partners, members, or 4 shareholders, for the year in which the costs were incurred. The 5 credit may not be carried forward to the next taxable year. The 6 credit may be taken by the business firm for not more than three 7 taxable years, except that if the child care facility is accredited
8 under section 43-2620 or becomes accredited under section 43-2620
9 during the three-taxable-year period, the credit may be taken for 10 an additional consecutive two taxable years after the end of the 11 third taxable year for which a credit was taken under this section.

12 (3) Costs incurred by the business firm in providing 13 child care services for children of employees shall be reduced by 14 payments received by the business firm from employees. If the 15 business firm provides child care services for the children of 16 employees and also for the children of non-employees, the direct 17 operating costs of staffing, operating, and maintaining the child
18 care facility, including the related payroll taxes, employee
19 benefits, and sales and use taxes, shall be multiplied by a
20 fraction, the numerator of which is the total child hours of care 21 provided to the children of employees and the denominator of which 22 is the total child hours of care provided in the child care
23 facility. Child hour means one hour of care provided for one
24 child. For purposes of calculating child hours, if the business 25 firm does not in the ordinary course of its business compile the 26 actual child hours of care, it may determine the number of child 27 hours based on a reasonable convention if such convention is used 1 consistently for each year that the credit is claimed or the
2 business firm obtains the advance consent of the Tax Commissioner
3 to change the convention. Costs shall be considered incurred in 4 the taxable year in which they are either accruable or are paid in 5 accordance with the business firm's overall income tax method of 6 accounting.

7 (4) A business firm operating a child care facility on 8 January 1, ~~2003~~ 2007, shall only qualify for the two years of tax 9 credits allowed under subsection (2) of this section relating to 10 expenditures by the business firm for direct operating costs if the 11 child care facility is accredited after January 1, ~~2003~~ 2007.

12 (5) A business firm shall not be considered to be 13 providing child care services for purposes of this section unless 14 the child care services are provided to the employees of the firm
15 who qualify under classifications established by the business firm
16 which are found by the Tax Commissioner not to be discriminatory in 17 favor of highly compensated employees. For purposes of this 18 section, highly compensated employee means an employee who was a

19 five-percent owner of the business firm at any time during the year 20 or the preceding year or, for the preceding year, either (a) had 21 compensation from the employer in excess of eighty thousand dollars 22 or (b) was among the highest twenty percent of employees ranked by 23 compensation, whichever results in the smaller group. Whether an 24 employer's classifications are nondiscriminatory shall be
25 determined on the basis of employees' eligibility to place children
26 in the child care facility.

27 (6) No amount paid or incurred by an employer to provide
1 child care assistance to an employee shall qualify for the credit
2 if the amount was paid or incurred pursuant to a salary reduction
3 plan or is not paid for services performed within this state.

4 (7) This section shall only apply to business firms that
5 meet the requirements of this section on or before December 31, 6 ~~2007~~ 2011.

7 (8) If two or more business firms share in the cost of 8 providing child care services for children of such business firms' 9 employees, each business firm shall be allowed a tax credit in 10 proportion to such business firm's share of the total costs.

11 (9) The Department of Revenue and the Department of 12 Insurance shall issue a joint report by December 1, ~~2004~~ 2008, and 13 by each December 1 thereafter for so long as the credit is 14 effective, that provides the following information:

15 (a) The number of business firms qualifying for the 16 credit under this section during taxable years ending on or before
17 the previous December 31;

18 (b) The number and location by county of child care
19 facilities qualifying for the credit under this section during the 20 taxable years ending on or before the previous December 31;

21 (c) The total child-years of child care provided, the 22 range of child-years of child care provided per qualifying
23 business, and the average and median child-years of care provided 24 per qualifying business, sorted in reasonable groupings by maximum 25 enrollment during the year that include a sufficient number of 26 qualifying businesses in each group to maintain the confidentiality
27 of the taxpayers qualifying for the credit;

1 (d) The percentage of costs paid by the employees in each
2 size grouping in subdivision (c) of this subsection;

3 (e) The percentage of such child-years of care provided
4 in accredited facilities in each size grouping in subdivision (c)
5 of this subsection; and

6 (f) The total credits claimed and the total credits
7 allowed in each size grouping in subdivision (c) of this 8 subsection.

9 (10) The Department of Revenue shall develop a form for 10 claiming the credit allowed by this section stating that any 11 business firm seeking a credit under this section must supply the 12 information listed in subsection (9) of this section as a condition
13 for receiving the credit.

14 (11) The Tax Commissioner and Director of Insurance may 15 adopt and promulgate rules and regulations as necessary to carry 16 out this section.

17 Sec. 4. Sections 2 and 6 of this act become operative on 18 January 1, 2003. The other sections of this act become operative 19 on July 1, 2003.

20 Sec. 5. Original sections 53-160, Reissue Revised
21 Statutes of Nebraska, and section 77-27,222, Revised Statutes
22 Supplement, 2002, are repealed.

23 Sec. 6. Original section 77-2101.03, Revised Statutes
24 Supplement, 2002, is repealed."

25 2. Renumber the remaining section accordingly.

Senator Brashear filed the following amendment to LB 320:

(Amendments to Standing Committee amendments, AM0805)

1 1. Strike the original sections and all amendments

2 thereto and insert the following new sections:

3 "Section 1. Beginning July 1, 2005:

4 (1) In the event of the death of a judge subsequent to 5 retirement, his or her surviving spouse, if any, shall be entitled 6 to receive, if the surviving spouse was born not more than five 7 years after the birth of the deceased judge, a benefit equal to 8 fifty percent of the benefit the retired judge was entitled to 9 receive. Such benefit to the surviving spouse shall be provided 10 without actuarial reduction or other assessment to the retired 11 judge in determining his or her benefits. The entire cost of such 12 a benefit shall be assumed by the Judges' Retirement Fund;

13 (2) In the event of the death of a judge subsequent to 14 retirement, his or her surviving spouse, if any, shall be entitled 15 to receive, if the surviving spouse was born more than five years 16 after the birth of the deceased judge, a benefit equal to fifty 17 percent of the benefit the retired judge was entitled to receive.
18 Such benefit to the surviving spouse shall be provided with an 19 actuarial reduction to the benefits of the retired judge based on 20 the actuarial cost of such benefit when the spouse is more than 21 five years younger than the retired judge; and 22 (3) This section shall not prevent a retiring judge from 23 contracting to provide a larger percentage of benefit for a 1 surviving spouse under other applicable statutes.

2 Sec. 2. Section 24-701.01, Revised Statutes Supplement,
3 2002, is amended to read:

5 this act shall be known and may be cited as the Judges Retirement
6 Act.

7 Sec. 3. Section 24-703, Revised Statutes Supplement,
8 2002, is amended to read:

9 24-703. (1) Each original member shall contribute 10 monthly four percent of his or her monthly compensation to the fund

11 until the maximum benefit as limited in subsection (1) of section 12 24-710 has been earned. It shall be the duty of the Director of 13 Administrative Services in accordance with subsection (10) of this 14 section to make a deduction of four percent on the monthly payroll 15 of each original member who is a judge of the Supreme Court, a 16 judge of the Court of Appeals, a judge of the district court, a 17 judge of a separate juvenile court, a judge of the county court, a 18 clerk magistrate of the county court who was an associate county 19 judge and a member of the fund at the time of his or her 20 appointment as a clerk magistrate, or a judge of the Nebraska 21 Workers' Compensation Court showing the amount to be deducted and 22 its credit to the fund. The Director of Administrative Services 23 and the State Treasurer shall credit the four percent as shown on 24 the payroll and the amounts received from the various counties to 25 the fund and remit the same to the director in charge of the judges 26 retirement system who shall keep an accurate record of the 27 contributions of each judge.

1 (2)(a) Prior to July 1, 2003, each ~~Each~~ future member
2 shall contribute monthly six percent of his or her monthly 3 compensation to the fund until the maximum benefit as limited in 4 subsection (2) of section 24-710 has been earned. Prior to July 1, 5 2003, any ~~Any~~ time the maximum benefit is changed, a future member 6 who has previously earned the maximum benefit as it existed prior 7 to the change shall contribute monthly six percent of his or her 8 monthly compensation to the fund until the maximum benefit as 9 changed and as limited in subsection (2) of section 24-710 has been 10 earned.

11 (b) Beginning July 1, 2003, each future member shall 12 contribute monthly eight percent of his or her monthly compensation 13 to the fund until the maximum benefit as limited in subsection (2) 14 of section 24-710 has been earned. Beginning July 1, 2003, after 15 the maximum benefit as limited in subsection (2) of section 24-710 16 has been earned, a future member shall contribute monthly four 17 percent of his or her contribution to the fund.

18 (c) It shall be the duty of the Director of 23 the county court, a clerk magistrate of the county court who was an 24 associate county judge and a member of the fund at the time of his 25 or her appointment as a clerk magistrate, or a judge of the 26 Nebraska Workers' Compensation Court showing the amount to be 27 deducted and its credit to the fund. This shall be done each

1 month. The Director of Administrative Services and the State 2 Treasurer shall credit the ~~six percent amount~~ as shown on the 3 payroll and the amounts received from the various counties to the 4 fund and remit the same to the director in charge of the judges
5 retirement system who shall keep an accurate record of the 6 contributions of each judge.

7 (3) A Nebraska Retirement Fund for Judges fee of ~~one~~ 8 ~~dollar five dollars~~ shall be taxed as costs in each civil cause of 9 action, criminal cause of action, traffic misdemeanor or 10 infraction, and city or village ordinance violation filed in the 11 district courts and the county courts. In county courts a sum 12 shall be charged which is equal to ten percent of each fee provided 13 by sections 33-125, 33-126.02, 33-126.03, and 33-126.06. No judges 14 retirement fee shall be charged for filing a report pursuant to 15 sections 33-126.02 and 33-126.06. When collected by the clerk of 16 the district or county court, such fees shall be paid to the 17 director in charge of the judges retirement system on forms 18 prescribed by the board by the clerk within ten days after the 19 close of each calendar quarter. Such director shall promptly 20 thereafter remit the same to the State Treasurer for credit to the 21 fund. No Nebraska Retirement Fund for Judges fee which is 22 uncollectible for any reason shall be waived by a county judge as 23 provided in section 29-2709.

24 (4) All expenditures from the fund shall be authorized by 25 voucher in the manner prescribed in section 24-713. The fund shall 26 be used for the payment of all annuities and other benefits and for 27 the expenses of administration.

1 (5) The fund shall consist of the total fund as of 2 December 25, 1969, the contributions of members as provided in this
3 section, all supplementary court fees as provided in subsection (3)
4 of this section, and any required contributions of the state.

5 (6) Not later than January 1 of each year, the State
6 Treasurer shall transfer to the fund the amount certified by the 7 board as being necessary to pay the cost of any benefits accrued
8 during the fiscal year ending the previous June 30 in excess of 9 member contributions for that fiscal year and court fees as 10 provided in subsection (3) of this section, if any, for that fiscal 11 year plus any required contributions of the state as provided in 12 subsection (9) of this section.

13 (7) Benefits under the retirement system to members or to 14 their beneficiaries shall be paid from the fund.

15 (8) Any member who is making contributions to the fund on 16 December 25, 1969, may, on or before June 30, 1970, elect to become 17 a future member by delivering written notice of such election to 18 the board.

19 (9) Not later than January 1 of each year, the State
20 Treasurer shall transfer to the fund an amount, determined on the 21 basis of an actuarial valuation as of the previous June 30 and 22 certified by the board, to fully fund the unfunded accrued
23 liabilities of the retirement system as of June 30, 1988, by level
24 payments up to January 1, 2000. Such valuation shall be on the 25 basis of actuarial assumptions recommended by the actuary, approved
26 by the board, and kept on file with the board. For the fiscal year 27 beginning July 1, 2002, and each fiscal year thereafter, the

2 system using the entry age actuarial cost method. Under this 3 method, the actuarially required funding rate is equal to the 4 normal cost rate, plus the contribution rate necessary to amortize
5 the unfunded actuarial accrued liability on a level payment basis.
6 The normal cost under this method shall be determined for each
7 individual member on a level percentage of salary basis. The 8 normal cost amount is then summed for all members. The initial 9 unfunded actual accrued liability as of July 1, 2002, if any, shall 10 be amortized over a twenty-five-year period. During each
11 subsequent actuarial valuation, changes in the funded actuarial
12 accrued liability due to changes in benefits, actuarial
13 assumptions, the asset valuation method, or actuarial gains or 14 losses shall be measured and amortized over a twenty-five-year
15 period beginning on the valuation date of such change. If the 16 unfunded actuarial accrued liability under the entry age actuarial
17 cost method is zero or less than zero on an actuarial valuation
18 date, then all prior unfunded actuarial accrued liabilities shall 19 be considered fully funded and the unfunded actuarial accrued
20 liability shall be reinitialized and amortized over a
21 twenty-five-year period as of the actuarial valuation date. If the 22 actuarially required contribution rate exceeds the rate of all
23 contributions required pursuant to the Judges Retirement Act, there 24 shall be a supplemental appropriation sufficient to pay for the 25 differences between the actuarially required contribution rate and 26 the rate of all contributions required pursuant to the Judges
27 Retirement Act.

1 (10) The state or county shall pick up the member
2 contributions required by this section for all compensation paid on 3 or after January 1, 1985, and the contributions so picked up shall 4 be treated as employer contributions in determining federal tax
5 treatment under the Internal Revenue Code as defined in section 6 49-801.01, except that the state or county shall continue to 7 withhold federal income taxes based upon these contributions until 8 the Internal Revenue Service or the federal courts rule that,
9 pursuant to section 414(h) of the code, these contributions shall 10 not be included as gross income of the member until such time as 11 they are distributed or made available. The state or county shall 12 pay these member contributions from the same source of funds which 13 is used in paying earnings to the member. The state or county
14 shall pick up these contributions by a compensation deduction
15 through a reduction in the compensation of the member. Member 16 contributions picked up shall be treated for all purposes of the 17 Judges Retirement Act in the same manner and to the extent as 18 member contributions made prior to the date picked up.

19 Sec. 4. Section 24-708, Revised Statutes Supplement,
20 2002, is amended to read:

21 24-708. (1) Any judge may retire upon reaching the age
22 of sixty-five years and upon making application to the board. Upon

24 provided in section 24-710.

26 years and receive the retirement annuity provided by section 24-710
27 but shall be subject to a reduction of such annuity by three
1 percent for each year after the judge's sixty-second birthday that 2 is between his or her retirement and his or her sixty-fifth
3 birthday.

4 (3) A judge may retire upon the attainment of reaching
5 the age of fifty-five years and elect to receive a reduced monthly
6 retirement income in lieu of a deferred vested annuity. The judge 7 may request that the reduced monthly retirement income commence at 8 any date, beginning on the first day of the month following the 9 actual retirement date and ending on the normal retirement date.
10 The amount of the monthly retirement income shall be calculated
11 based on the length of creditable service and average compensation 12 at the actual retirement date and shall be reduced when the 13 payments commence prior to the normal retirement date to an amount 14 that is actuarially equivalent to the deferred vested annuity
15 payable at the normal retirement date.

16 (3) (4) Payment of any benefit provided under the Judges
17 Retirement Act may not be deferred later than the sixtieth day
18 after the end of the year in which the judge has both attained at 19 least age seventy and one-half years and terminated his or her
20 employment as a judge.

21 (4) (5) The effective date of retirement payments shall 22 be the first day of the month following (a) the date a member 23 qualifies for retirement as provided in this section or (b) the 24 date upon which a member's request for retirement is received on an 25 application form provided by the retirement system, whichever is 26 later. An application may be filed no more than ninety days in 27 advance of qualifying for retirement.

1 Sec. 5. Section 24-710, Revised Statutes Supplement,
2 2002, is amended to read:

3 24-710. (1) The retirement annuity of a judge who is an 4 original member, who has not made the election provided for in 5 subsection (8) of section 24-703 or section 24-710.01, and who
7 follows: Each such judge shall be entitled to receive an annuity,
8 each monthly payment of which shall be in an amount equal to three 9 and one-third percent of his or her final average compensation as 10 such judge, multiplied by the number of his or her years of 11 creditable service. The amount stated in this section shall be 12 supplemental to any benefits received by such judge under the 13 Nebraska and federal old age and survivors' insurance acts at the 14 date of retirement, but the monthly combined benefits received
15 thereunder and by the Judges Retirement Act shall not exceed 16 sixty-five percent of the final average compensation such judge was 17 receiving when he or she last served as such judge. The amount of

19 24-709 shall not be less than twenty-five dollars per month if he 20 or she has four years or more of service credit.

21 (2) The retirement annuity of a judge who is a future
22 member and who retires after July 1, 1986, under section 24-708 or 23 24-709 shall be computed as follows: Each such judge shall be 24 entitled to receive an annuity, each monthly payment of which shall 25 be in an amount equal to three and one-half percent of his or her
26 final average compensation as such judge, multiplied by the number
27 of his or her years of creditable service, except that the monthly
1 benefits received under this subsection shall not exceed seventy 2 percent of the final average compensation such judge was receiving 3 when he or she last served as such judge.

4 (3) Except as provided in section 42-1107, any member
5 may, when filing an application as provided by the retirement
6 system, elect to receive, in lieu of the normal form annuity
7 benefits to which the member or his or her beneficiary may 8 otherwise be entitled under the Judges Retirement Act, any form of 9 annuity which the board may by rules and regulations provide, the 10 value of which, determined by accepted actuarial methods and on the 11 basis of actuarial assumptions recommended by the actuary, approved 12 by the board, and kept on file in the office of the director, is 13 equal to the value of the benefit replaced. The board shall (a) 14 adopt and promulgate appropriate rules and regulations establishing 15 joint and survivorship annuities, with and without reduction on the 16 death of the first annuitant, ~~and~~ such other forms of annuities as 17 may in its judgment be appropriate, and as provided in section
18 24-707, (b) prescribe appropriate forms for making the election by 19 the members, and (c) provide for the necessary actuarial services
20 to make the required valuations.

21 (4) A one-time cost-of-living adjustment shall be made
22 for each retired judge and each surviving beneficiary who is 23 receiving a retirement annuity as provided for in this section.
24 The annuity shall be adjusted by the increase in the cost of living
25 or wage levels between the effective date of retirement and June 26 30, 1992, except that such increases shall not exceed three percent
27 per year of retirement and the total increase shall not exceed two 1 hundred fifty dollars per month.

2 Sec. 6. Original sections 24-701.01, 24-703, 24-708, and 3 24-710, Revised Statutes Supplement, 2002, are repealed.

4 Sec. 7. Since an emergency exists, this act takes effect
5 when passed and approved according to law."

Senators Tyson and Cunningham filed the following amendment to LB 73:

(Amendments to Standing Committee amendments, AM0304)

1 1. Insert the following new sections:

- 4 Ninety-eighth Legislature, First Session, 2003, is amended to read
- 5 as follows:
- 6 79-1007.02. For state aid calculated for school fiscal
- 7 year 1998-99 and each school fiscal year thereafter:
- 8 (1) Using data from the annual financial reports for the
- 9 second school fiscal year immediately preceding the school fiscal
- 10 year in which aid is to be paid, the annual statistical summary
- 11 reports for the school fiscal year immediately preceding the school
- 12 fiscal year in which aid is to be paid, the fall membership reports
- 13 and supplements thereto for the school fiscal year immediately
- 14 preceding the school fiscal year in which aid is to be paid, and
- 15 the school district census as reported under sections 79-524 and
- 16 79-578 for the second school fiscal year preceding the school
- 17 fiscal year in which aid is to be paid, the department shall divide
- 18 the local systems into three cost groupings prior to the
- 19 certification of state aid based upon the following criteria:
- 20 (a) The very sparse cost grouping will consist of local
- 21 systems that have (i)(A) less than one-half student per square mile
- 22 in each county in which each high school attendance center is
- 23 located, based on the school district census, (B) less than one
- 1 formula student per square mile in the local system, and (C) more
- 2 than fifteen miles between the high school attendance center and
- 3 the next closest high school attendance center on paved roads or
- 4 (ii)(A) more than four hundred fifty square miles in the local
- 5 system, (B) less than one-half student per square mile in the local
- 6 system, and (C) more than fifteen miles between each high school
- 7 attendance center and the next closest high school attendance
- 8 center on paved roads;
- 9 (b) The sparse cost grouping will consist of local
- 10 systems that do not qualify for the very sparse cost grouping but
- 11 which meet the following criteria:
- 12 (i)(A) Less than two students per square mile in the
- 13 county in which each high school is located, based on the school
- 14 district census, (B) less than one formula student per square mile
- 15 in the local system, and (C) more than ten miles between each high

16 school attendance center and the next closest high school
17 attendance center on paved roads;

18 (ii)(A) Less than one and one-half formula students per 26 the local system and (B) the local system includes an area equal to 27 ninety-five percent or more of the square miles in the largest 1 county in which a high school attendance center is located in the 2 local system; and

3 (c) The standard cost grouping will consist of local 4 systems that do not qualify for the very sparse or the sparse cost 5 groupings.

6 For purposes of subdivision (1) of this section, if a 7 local system did not operate and offer instruction in grades nine 8 through twelve within the boundaries of the local system during the 9 school fiscal year immediately preceding the school fiscal year in 10 which aid is to be paid, the local system shall not be considered 11 to have a high school attendance center;

12 (2) The department shall calculate the average formula 13 cost per student in each cost grouping by dividing the total 14 estimated general fund operating expenditures for the cost grouping 15 by the total adjusted formula students for all local systems in the 16 cost grouping. For the calculation of state aid for school fiscal 17 year 1999-00 and for each school fiscal year thereafter, the 18 average formula cost per student in each cost grouping shall not be 19 recalculated for the final calculation of state aid pursuant to 20 section 79-1065. The calculation of total adjusted formula 21 students for purposes of this subdivision shall take into account 22 the requirements of subsection (2) of section 79-1007.01. The 23 total estimated general fund operating expenditures for the cost 24 grouping is equal to the total adjusted general fund operating 25 expenditures for all local systems in the cost grouping multiplied 26 by a cost growth factor. ~~The~~ For all school fiscal years except 27 2005-06, the cost growth factor for each cost grouping is equal to

1 the sum of: (a) One; plus (b) the product of two times the ratio 2 of the difference between the formula students attributable to the 3 cost grouping without weighting or adjustment pursuant to section 4 79-1007.01 and the sum of the average daily membership plus 5 tuitioned students attributable to the cost grouping for the most 6 recently available complete data year divided by the sum of the 7 average daily membership plus tuitioned students attributable to 8 the cost grouping for the most recently available complete data 9 year, except that the ratio shall not be less than zero; plus (c) 10 the basic allowable growth rate pursuant to section 79-1025 for the 11 school fiscal year in which the aid is to be distributed; plus (d) 12 the basic allowable growth rate pursuant to section 79-1025 for the 13 school fiscal year immediately preceding the school fiscal year in 14 which the aid is to be distributed; plus (e) one-half of any 15 additional growth rate allowed by special action of school boards 16 for the school fiscal year in which the aid is to be distributed as 17 determined for the school fiscal year immediately preceding the 18 school fiscal year when aid is to be distributed; plus (f) one-half 19 of any additional growth rate allowed by special action of the 20 school boards for the school fiscal year immediately preceding the 21 school fiscal year when the aid is to be distributed. For school 22 fiscal year 2005-06, the cost growth factor for each cost grouping

23 is equal to the sum of: (a) One; plus (b) the product of two times 24 the ratio of the difference between the formula students 25 attributable to the cost grouping without weighting or adjustment 26 pursuant to section 79-1007.01 and the average daily membership
27 attributable to the cost grouping for the most recently available
1 complete data year divided by the average daily membership
2 attributable to the cost grouping for the most recently available 3 complete data year, except that the ratio shall not be less than 4 zero; plus (c) two times the basic allowable growth rate pursuant 5 to section 79-1025 for school fiscal year 2005-06; plus (d) any 6 additional growth rate allowed by special action of the school
7 boards for school fiscal year 2005-06;

8 (3) For all school fiscal years except school fiscal 9 years 2002-03, 2003-04, or 2004-05, each local system's formula
10 need will be equal to the local system's transportation allowance 11 plus the local system's special receipts allowance plus the product 12 of the local system's adjusted formula students multiplied by the 13 average formula cost per student in the local system's cost 14 grouping. The calculation of total adjusted formula students for 15 purposes of this subdivision shall take into account the 16 requirements of subsection (2) of section 79-1007.01; and 17 (4) For school fiscal years 2002-03, 2003-04, or 2004-05, 18 each local system's formula need shall be calculated by subtracting 19 the temporary aid adjustment factor from the sum of the local 20 system's transportation allowance, the local system's special 21 receipts allowance, and the product of the local system's adjusted 22 formula students multiplied by the average formula cost per student 23 in the local system's cost grouping. The calculation of total 24 adjusted formula students for purposes of this subdivision shall 25 take into account the requirements of subsection (2) of section 26 79-1007.01."

RESOLUTIONS

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 87. Introduced by Kremer, 34; Schrock, 38.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this study is to examine the desirability and feasibility of extending the protections afforded to owners and sellers of grain under the Grain Dealer Act and/or the Grain Warehouse Act to grain sold to and received by entities currently excluded from the regulatory and licensing requirements of these acts. It is the intent of this resolution that the Agriculture Committee of the Legislature conduct a study in conjunction with the Public Service Commission and involve producers, grain industry participants, and end users of grain.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Agriculture Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 88. Introduced by Kremer, 34.

PURPOSE: On June 25, 2001, the United States Supreme Court ruled in USDA v. United Foods that mandatory assessments under the federal Mushroom Promotion, Research, and Consumer Information Act of 1990 violated first amendment protections of certain mushroom producers. Similar first amendment challenges to other federal commodity promotion programs are currently being litigated in other federal court venues. The purpose of this study is to examine the implications of USDA v. United Foods and progeny federal court decisions for state commodity promotion programs funded through checkoff assessments against producers.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Agriculture Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 89. Introduced by Kremer, 34.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this study is to examine alternative revenue sources to fund the duties and activities of the Department of Agriculture under the Noxious Weed Control Act. Additionally, the study shall examine potential statutory changes to enable the department and county weed control authorities to better respond to exotic weed infestations and other weed control challenges and opportunities.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Agriculture Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 90. Introduced by Schimek, 27; Baker, 44.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to study residency requirements for elected county officials. Currently, candidates for county offices, except county commissioner candidates, are not required to be residents of the county when they file for election. If the candidate is elected, he or she must become a resident of the county.

Residency requirements of elected county officials, including the advantages and disadvantages of requiring a candidate to reside in the county when filing for office, shall be examined. The Secretary of State and the Nebraska Association of County Officials, as well as other interested parties, shall be asked to participate in the study.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Government, Military and Veterans Affairs Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 91. Introduced by Schimek, 27.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to study the possibility of granting statutory authority to counties to enact ordinances, bylaws, rules, regulations, or resolutions for the welfare of a county.

Pursuant to current law, counties have used their regulatory power through the adoption of resolutions. However, in DLH, Inc. v. Lancaster County Board of Commissioners, 264 Neb. 358 (2002), the Nebraska Supreme Court opined that "regulation" and "resolution" were distinctive terms and concluded that counties do not have the legal authority to regulate certain behaviors by enacting resolutions.

This study shall include, but not be limited to:

1. Gathering input from counties as to which behaviors are beyond its authority to regulate as a result of DLH, Inc. v. Lancaster County Board of Commissioners;

2. Researching current statutes granting cities and villages the authority to enact ordinances, bylaws, rules, regulations, or resolutions;

3. Analyzing how granting counties the authority to enact ordinances may impact the resolutions already adopted by the counties;

4. Examining the powers granted to counties in other states, including the authority to enact ordinances, bylaws, rules, and regulations; and

5. Examining potential conflicts between municipalities and counties if both entities are given the authority to enact ordinances, bylaws, rules, regulations, and resolutions.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Government, Military and Veterans Affairs Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 92. Introduced by Schimek, 27; Wehrbein, 2; Jensen, 20.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to study Nebraska's plan for the continuity of government in periods of emergency, including the necessity for prompt succession of power and duties of public officials.

In response to a previous interim study on terrorism, LB 13 was introduced which changed the order of succession to the Governor when the Governor is not able to complete his or her term. As the bill was debated, it became apparent that further study which included all three branches of government was needed.

The study will explore, but not be limited to, the following questions:

1. Is there a need to update the state's constitution and statutes dealing with the issue of continuity of government?

2. Do the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of government have a plan for continuing their work if the capitol becomes unusable for any length of time? If not, should such plans be developed?

3. Has the Legislature identified the critical system needs that are necessary for the continuation of government?

4. What do other states do regarding the question of succession?

5. What should be the criteria for developing a plan for succession?

6. What should that plan be?

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That a committee comprised of members from the Executive Board, the Government, Military and Veterans Affairs Committee, the executive branch, and the judicial branch shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

Referred to the Executive Board.

Sec. 18. Section 77-27,222, Revised Statutes Supplement, 2002, is amended to read:

77-27,222. (1) For purposes of this section:

(a) Accredited means accredited by the National Association for Family Child Care, the National Association for the Education of Young Children, the National School-Age Care Alliance, or a comparable accreditation process approved by the State Department of Education;

(b) Business firm means any business entity, including a corporation, a fiduciary, a sole proprietorship, a partnership, a limited liability company, or a corporation subject to the state income tax imposed by section 77-2715 or 77-2734.02, an insurance company paying premium or related retaliatory taxes in this state pursuant to section 44-150 or 77-908, or a financial institution paying the tax imposed pursuant to sections 77-3801 to 77-3807;

(c) Costs incurred by the business firm in providing child care services for children of employees means the amounts

26 expended by the business firm during the year for improvements to 27 the premises for purposes of making the premises suitable in whole
1 or in part for use as a child care facility, including furnishing 2 the facility with fencing, landscaping, sidewalks, furniture,
3 fixtures, equipment, supplies, and other improvements and materials
4 reasonably required to operate a child care facility and the direct 5 operating costs of staffing, operating, and maintaining a child
6 care facility. The costs include the payroll taxes and employee
7 benefit costs of staffing the child care facility and sales and use
8 taxes on purchases included in the costs of providing child care,
9 but not an allocation of the business firm's general,
10 administrative, and other operating expenses. The costs do not 11 include the acquisition of land or the construction of new 12 buildings. The costs include payments to third parties to 13 reimburse the third parties for amounts expended by them and which 14 would have been costs incurred by the business firm in providing 15 child care services if incurred directly by the business firm or to 16 subsidize the cost of providing child care for the children of 17 employees in such third parties' facilities; and 18 (d) Providing child care services means expending funds
19 to improve, furnish, license, accredit, qualify for accreditation, 20 staff, operate, or subsidize a child care facility licensed by the 21 Department of Health and Human Services Regulation and Licensure
22 which provides child care services to children of employees of the 23 business firm or contracting with a child care facility licensed by 24 the department to provide child care services to children of such 25 employees.

26 (2) Any For taxable years beginning or deemed to begin on 27 or after January 1, 2007, under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
1 as amended, any business firm which provides child care services
2 shall be allowed a credit against the individual income tax,
3 corporate income tax, premium or related retaliatory tax, or 4 franchise tax equal to thirty percent of the costs incurred by the 5 business firm in providing child care services for children of 6 employees for each taxable year, up to fifty percent of such 7 business firm's total tax liability. In the case of a sole 8 proprietorship, partnership, or limited liability company which is 9 taxed as a pass-through entity or a corporation which has in effect
10 an election under subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code, the 11 maximum allowable amount of credit shall be fifty percent of the 12 income tax liability determined as if such business firm had been a
13 corporation subject to the state income tax imposed by section
14 77-2734.02. Such pass-through entities shall allocate the 15 allowable credit among their proprietors, partners, members, or 16 shareholders in the same manner as taxable income is allocated. In 17 the case of a fiduciary, the maximum allowable amount of the credit
18 shall be fifty percent of the income tax liability of the fiduciary
19 computed without any deduction for distributions, and the allowable
20 credit shall be allocated among the fiduciary and its beneficiaries

21 in proportion to the taxable income included by each beneficiary in 22 his or her Nebraska income tax returns. In the case of a
23 corporation which is part of a unitary group as defined in section
24 77-2734.04 and which is included in the combined income tax return 25 of such group, the unitary group shall be the business firm which 26 is providing child care services. Entities which are disregarded
27 for federal income tax purposes shall be disregarded for purposes
1 of defining the business firm which is providing child care
2 services. The credit shall only be used to reduce the tax
3 liabilities of the business firm, or in the case of pass-through 4 entities, the beneficiaries, proprietors, partners, members, or 5 shareholders, for the year in which the costs were incurred. The 6 credit may not be carried forward to the next taxable year. The 7 credit may be taken by the business firm for not more than three 8 taxable years, except that if the child care facility is accredited
9 under section 43-2620 or becomes accredited under section 43-2620
10 during the three-taxable-year period, the credit may be taken for 11 an additional consecutive two taxable years after the end of the 12 third taxable year for which a credit was taken under this section.

13 (3) Costs incurred by the business firm in providing 14 child care services for children of employees shall be reduced by 15 payments received by the business firm from employees. If the 16 business firm provides child care services for the children of 17 employees and also for the children of non-employees, the direct 18 operating costs of staffing, operating, and maintaining the child
19 care facility, including the related payroll taxes, employee
20 benefits, and sales and use taxes, shall be multiplied by a
21 fraction, the numerator of which is the total child hours of care 22 provided to the children of employees and the denominator of which 23 is the total child hours of care provided in the child care
24 facility. Child hour means one hour of care provided for one
25 child. For purposes of calculating child hours, if the business 26 firm does not in the ordinary course of its business compile the 27 actual child hours of care, it may determine the number of child
1 hours based on a reasonable convention if such convention is used
2 consistently for each year that the credit is claimed or the
3 business firm obtains the advance consent of the Tax Commissioner
4 to change the convention. Costs shall be considered incurred in 5 the taxable year in which they are either accruable or are paid in 6 accordance with the business firm's overall income tax method of 7 accounting.

8 (4) A business firm operating a child care facility on 9 January 1, ~~2003~~ 2007, shall only qualify for the two years of tax 10 credits allowed under subsection (2) of this section relating to 11 expenditures by the business firm for direct operating costs if the 12 child care facility is accredited after January 1, ~~2003~~ 2007.

13 (5) A business firm shall not be considered to be 14 providing child care services for purposes of this section unless 15 the child care services are provided to the employees of the firm

16 who qualify under classifications established by the business firm
17 which are found by the Tax Commissioner not to be discriminatory in 18 favor of highly compensated employees. For purposes of this 19 section, highly compensated employee means an employee who was a 20 five-percent owner of the business firm at any time during the year
21 or the preceding year or, for the preceding year, either (a) had 22 compensation from the employer in excess of eighty thousand dollars
23 or (b) was among the highest twenty percent of employees ranked by 24 compensation, whichever results in the smaller group. Whether an 25 employer's classifications are nondiscriminatory shall be 26 determined on the basis of employees' eligibility to place children
27 in the child care facility.

1 (6) No amount paid or incurred by an employer to provide
2 child care assistance to an employee shall qualify for the credit
3 if the amount was paid or incurred pursuant to a salary reduction
4 plan or is not paid for services performed within this state.

5 (7) This section shall only apply to business firms that
6 meet the requirements of this section on or before December 31, 7 ~~2007~~ 2011.

8 (8) If two or more business firms share in the cost of 9 providing child care services for children of such business firms' 10 employees, each business firm shall be allowed a tax credit in 11 proportion to such business firm's share of the total costs.

12 (9) The Department of Revenue and the Department of 13 Insurance shall issue a joint report by December 1, ~~2004~~ 2008, and 14 by each December 1 thereafter for so long as the credit is 15 effective, that provides the following information:

16 (a) The number of business firms qualifying for the 17 credit under this section during taxable years ending on or before
18 the previous December 31;

19 (b) The number and location by county of child care
20 facilities qualifying for the credit under this section during the 21 taxable years ending on or before the previous December 31;

22 (c) The total child-years of child care provided, the 23 range of child-years of child care provided per qualifying
24 business, and the average and median child-years of care provided 25 per qualifying business, sorted in reasonable groupings by maximum 26 enrollment during the year that include a sufficient number of 27 qualifying businesses in each group to maintain the confidentiality

1 of the taxpayers qualifying for the credit;

2 (d) The percentage of costs paid by the employees in each
3 size grouping in subdivision (c) of this subsection;

4 (e) The percentage of such child-years of care provided
5 in accredited facilities in each size grouping in subdivision (c)
6 of this subsection; and

7 (f) The total credits claimed and the total credits
8 allowed in each size grouping in subdivision (c) of this 9 subsection.

10 (10) The Department of Revenue shall develop a form for

11 claiming the credit allowed by this section stating that any 12 business firm seeking a credit under this section must supply the 13 information listed in subsection (9) of this section as a condition
14 for receiving the credit.

15 (11) The Tax Commissioner and Director of Insurance may 16 adopt and promulgate rules and regulations as necessary to carry 17 out this section."

18 2. Renumber the remaining sections and correct internal 19 references and the repealer accordingly."

20 2. Renumber the remaining amendments accordingly.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINIONS

Opinion # 03011

DATE: May 7, 2003

SUBJECT: LB 762; Disposition Of Fines And Penalties Levied Under The Nebraska Campaign Finance Limitation Act Under Art. VII, § 5 Of The Nebraska Constitution.

REQUESTED BY: Senator Kermit A. Brashear

LB 762 would repeal the Nebraska Campaign Finance Limitation Act, Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 32-1601 through 32-1614 (1998, Cum. Supp. 2002) (the "Act"). That bill also provides that any monies left in the Campaign Finance Limitation Cash Fund ("CFLA Cash Fund") upon repeal of the Act would be placed in the Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Cash Fund. LB 762, § 11. From your opinion request letter, we understand that monies in the CFLA Cash Fund come from four sources: (1) late fees and penalties, (2) income tax "checkoff funds," (3) private donations, and (4) an initial General Fund appropriation from the Legislature.

You state that you propose to offer an amendment to LB 762 which would require that any monies remaining in the CFLA Cash Fund attributable to late filing fees, civil penalties and the interest thereon be disposed of in accordance with art. VII, § 5 of the Nebraska Constitution. That proposed amendment would also provide that any monies in the CFLA Cash Fund not attributable to late fees and penalties would be transferred to the Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Cash Fund. In that context, you first ask us, "[i]s the introduced version of LB 762 constitutional, or would the proposed amendment to dispose of the money in accordance with Art. VII, § 5 be required in order to comply with the State Constitution?"

Article VII, § 5 of the Nebraska Constitution provides, as is pertinent here:

Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, all fines, penalties, and license money arising under the general laws of the state, . . . shall belong and be paid over to the counties respectively where the same may be levied or imposed, and all fines, penalties, and license money arising under the rules, bylaws, or ordinances of cities, villages, precincts, or other municipal subdivision less than a county shall belong and be paid over to the same respectively. All such fines, penalties, and license money shall be appropriated exclusively to the use and support of the common schools in the respective subdivisions where the same may accrue, . . .

We have discussed art. VII, § 5 in previous opinions of this office, and we will quote at length from our Op. Att'y Gen. No. 93038 (May 14, 1993), because the analysis there is directly pertinent to your first question:

Several decisions by the Nebraska Supreme Court have set out rules for the application of Article VII, Section 5. This constitutional provision is self-executing, and punitive assessments such as fines and penalties under penal statutes together with license monies must be used for the schools. School District of the City of Omaha v. Adams, 147 Neb. 1060, 26 N.W.2d 24 (1947). On the other hand, compensatory damages or assessments under remedial statutes are not subject to Article VII, Section 5. Id. If money exacted is punitive in character, and not remedial or compensatory, that money is a penalty within the meaning of Article VII, Section 5. School District of McCook v. City of McCook, 163 Neb. 817, 81 N.W.2d 224 (1957). A penal statute is prosecuted for the purpose of punishment, and to also deter others from offending in the same way, while a remedial statute is for the purpose of adjusting the rights of the parties involved as between themselves with respect to the wrong alleged. School District of the City of Omaha v. Adams, supra. It is also clear that court costs which are legitimately compensatory are not penalties within Article VII, Section 5. DeCamp v. City of Lincoln, 202 Neb. 727, 277 N.W.2d 83 (1979). In addition, liquidated damages in favor of a private person, although in the form of a penalty, are not violative of Article VII, Section 5 if the amount provided bears a reasonable relation to the actual damages which might be sustained and which damages are not susceptible to measurement by ordinary pecuniary standards. Abel v. Conover, 170 Neb. 926, 104 N.W.2d 684 (1960).

The factual settings of various Nebraska cases also offer additional guidance as to the application of Article VII, Section 5. For example, in the Adams case cited above, an amount was collected from the estate of certain deceased persons as a statutory penalty for failure to list particular property for taxation. The Court held that the penalty in question did not fall under Article VII, Section 5, because it was remedial and compensatory to the taxing bodies involved. This was true even though the penalty was punitive as to the wrongdoer. In DeCamp v. City of Lincoln, supra, the Court held that court costs collected for parking violations were not fines or penalties under Article VII, Section 5 because the costs were collected by an administrative arm of the municipal court, because the costs were uniform throughout the entire range of offenses, and because the costs actually appeared to be compensatory.

This office has also issued previous opinions dealing with the application of Article VII, Section 5. Most recently, in Op. Att'y Gen. No. 93018 (March 19, 1993), we indicated that a surcharge to be assessed against all convicted criminal defendants could constitutionally be placed into the Victims' Compensation Fund and into the Crime Victim and Witness Assistance Fund. We concluded that the surcharge payments could be characterized as liquidated damages which were compensatory to the victims of uncompensated injury by criminals. In Op. Att'y Gen. No. 21 (February 10, 1981), we stated that a $1 additional court cost assessed against convicted criminal defendants could be placed in a special Law Enforcement Improvement Fund because there was a reasonable relationship between the cost and the maintenance of the law enforcement and criminal justice system. On the other hand, we indicated in the same opinion that placing a portion of certain increased court costs in the state's general fund would likely violate Article VII, Section 5 since those increases could be considered a fine or penalty rather than compensation. Placing court costs in the state's general fund under those circumstances could also violate the separation of powers provision of the state Constitution in that the courts would be acting as tax collectors.

Op. Att'y Gen. No. 93038 (May 14, 1993) at 2-4.

In the present case, the Act contains various provisions for late fees and civil penalties. For example, Neb. Rev. Stat. § 32-1014.01 (4) (Cum. Supp. 2002) provides that "[a] candidate who fails to file an affidavit [pertaining to spending limitations] as required by this section shall pay to the commission a late filing fee of twenty-five dollars for each day the statement remains not filed in violation of this section not to exceed seven hundred fifty dollars." In addition, Neb. Rev. Stat. § 32-1612 (1998) provides:

(1) The Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Commission shall assess any person that the commission finds to have violated subsection (3) or (5) of section 32-1607 a civil penalty of one thousand dollars or an amount equal to ten percent of the amount by which the limitation was exceeded, whichever is greater, for each violation.

(2) Unless a specific penalty is otherwise provided, the commission shall assess any person that it finds to have violated any other provision of the Campaign Finance Limitation Act a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each violation.

On balance, it appears to us, under the various authorities cited above, that the late fees and civil penalties which are the subject of your opinion request are penalties under penal statutes which must be distributed under the provisions of art. VII, § 5. Those late fees and penalties do not seem compensatory to any governmental bodies or to any individuals. On the other hand, it could be fairly stated that the purpose of the late fees and civil penalties, when considered together with the language of the Act, is to punish improper conduct and to deter others from acting in the same manner. Therefore, we do not believe that the introduced version of LB 762 is constitutional under art. VII, § 5. Your proposed amendment or other language which does not provide for placement of late fees and civil penalties in the Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Cash Fund is required in order to comply with the Nebraska Constitution.

In your opinion request letter, you also state that the Nebraska Political Accountability and Disclosure Commission (the "Commission") sits in Lancaster County, and that any fines and penalties imposed by the Commission are "levied or imposed" in Lancaster County. In that regard, you ask whether art. VII, § 5 requires that such fines or penalties imposed by the Commission must be remitted to Lancaster County.

As noted above, art. VII, § 5 provides that fines or penalties arising out of the general laws of this state "shall belong and be paid over to the counties respectively where the same may be levied or imposed." Our research has disclosed no Nebraska cases which discuss, in any detail, where particular fines or penalties are levied or imposed for purposes of art. VII, § 5. However, the Nebraska Supreme Court has indicated that, "[a]ll fines and penalties imposed under the general laws of the state by section 5 of article 8 of the constitution [a predecessor section to art. VII, § 5] are declared to belong to the county school fund, and are required to be paid to the county where the same were imposed." State ex rel. Broatch v. Moores, 52 Neb. 770, 73 N.W. 299 (1897). See also School District No 54 of Douglas County v. School District of the City of Omaha, 171 Neb. 769, 107 N.W.2d 744 (1961). In addition, the words and terms of a constitutional provision are to be interpreted and understood in their most natural and obvious meaning, unless the subject indicates or the text suggests that they have been used in a technical sense. Hall v. Progress Pig Inc., 259 Neb. 407, 610 N.W.2d 420 (2000); State ex rel. Douglas v. Beermann, 216 Neb. 849, 347 N.W.2d 297 (1984). As a result, it seems to us that if the Commission sits in Lancaster County and imposes fines and penalties there, then all such fines and penalties imposed should be remitted to Lancaster County in some fashion as per the requirements of art. VII, § 5.

Finally, your contemplated amendment to LB 762 apparently provides that any monies remaining in the CFLA Cash Fund attributable to late filing fees, civil penalties and the interest thereon must be disposed of "in accordance with art. VII, § 5 of the Nebraska Constitution." You wish our opinion as to whether that latter language is sufficient, or whether more specific language should be added to the bill which would state that the fine and penalty monies in the CFLA Cash Fund must be remitted to the county where those fines or penalties were levied or imposed and used for the support of the common schools.

In State ex rel. Stenberg v. American Midlands, Inc., 244 Neb. 887, 509 N.W.2d 633 (1994), the Nebraska Supreme Court considered the constitutionality of civil penalties under the Nebraska Consumer Protection Act. The court stated:

The Bazemores also argue that the imposition of civil penalties in this instance violated article VII, § 5 of the Nebraska Constitution because the Consumer Protection Act fails to specify that any civil penalties recovered pursuant to that act must be paid to the appropriate school fund. Again, the Bazemores' assertion lacks merit. The fact that a statute is silent as to the distribution of possible civil penalties does not render it inconsistent with the provisions of article VII, § 5, of the Nebraska Constitution.

American Midlands, 244 Neb. 893, 509 N.W.2d 637. (Emphasis added). Based upon the language in the American Midlands case, we do not believe that it is necessary to include language in your amendment to LB 762 which would specify how the fine and penalties monies in the CFLA Cash Fund should be distributed, and your proposed language referencing art. VII, § 5 appears sufficient. However, whether you wish to include more specific language in your amendment is ultimately a matter of legislative policy, and a decision for you and the Legislature.

Sincerely yours,

DATE: May 7, 2003

SUBJECT: Constitutionality of AM 7091 to LB 667; More than One Subject

REQUESTED BY: Senator Ernie Chambers
Nebraska Legislator

Lynn A. Melson, Assistant Attorney General

You have requested the opinion of the Attorney General regarding the constitutionality of proposed legislation, that is, LB 667 with amendments. You have specifically asked whether AM 7091, which has become LB 667, contains more than one subject so as to violate Art. III § 14 of the Nebraska Constitution. This bill amends various Nebraska statutes concerning the following topics: public accommodations for persons with disabilities, the practice of pharmacy, the Mail Service Pharmacy Licensure Act, the Nebraska Drug Product Selection Act, practice of respiratory care, infectious diseases, automated external defibrillators, the Parkinson's Disease Registry Act, and eligibility for food stamps. Nearly all of the amendments concern regulatory statutes administered by the Department of Health and Human Services Regulation and Licensure. One exception is § 22 as the Departments of Health and Human Services and Health and Human Services Finance and Support have responsibility for all public assistance, including food stamps. See Neb. Rev. Stat. § 68-717 (1996). The other exception occurs at §§ 1 and 2 of LB 667. These provisions regarding public accommodations for persons with disabilities amend Neb. Rev. Stat. §§ 20-127 and 20-129, which provide for certain civil rights and penalties for violations of those civil rights.

You have asked whether LB 667, as amended, contains more than one subject so as to be constitutionally suspect. Art. III, § 14 of the state constitution provides in part "[N]o bill shall contain more than subject, and the same shall be clearly expressed in the title." The purpose of this constitutional provision is "to challenge the attention of those affected by the provisions of the act and to prevent surreptitious legislation." Omaha Parking Authority v. City of Omaha, 163 Neb. 97, 102, 77 N.W.2d 862, 867 (1956). At first glance one might well conclude that LB 667 is constitutionally suspect because of the variety of statutes which would be amended by this bill. However, the Nebraska Supreme Court has adopted a liberal construction with respect to the interpretation of this constitutional amendment. See for example, Op. Att'y. Gen. No. 89003 (January 23, 1989); Op. Att'y. Gen. No. 87018 (February 9, 1987); and Op. Att'y. Gen. No. 87009 (January 23, 1987).

In Anderson v. Tiemann, 182 Neb. 393, 155 N.W.2d 322 (1967), appeal dismissed, 390 U.S. 714, 88 S. Ct. 1418 (1968), the plaintiffs challenged a bill providing for a variety of taxes as violating the constitutional prohibition against including more than one subject in a single bill. The Nebraska Supreme Court rejected the plaintiffs' claim. "If an act has but one general object, no matter how broad that object may be, and contains no matter not germane thereto, and the title fairly expresses the subject of the bill, it does not violate Art. III, Section 14, of the Constitution. (Citation omitted). . . . This Court holds that the provisions of LB 377 contain but one general subject, taxation, and that it does not violate the Constitution of Nebraska." Id. at 408-409, 155 N.W.2d at 332.

Similarly, in Midwest Popcorn Co. v. Johnson, 152 Neb. 867, 43 N.W.2d 174 (1950), it was held that the Tax Appraisal Board Act was constitutional and not violative of Art. III, § 14. The act at issue dealt with taxation of property and the establishment of a tax appraisal board. Other provisions of the act were found to be incidental and germane to this one subject. "The test is not whether the title chosen is the most appropriate but whether it fairly indicates the scope and purpose of the act. The constitutional provision under consideration does not require that the title to an act shall be a complete abstract of the bill. Its purpose is to prevent the inclusion of unrelated matters not within the legal contemplation of the title. . . . When dealing with form and not substance we are required to give a liberal construction to the constitutional provision." Id. at 872-873, 43 N.W.2d at 179.

As further example, the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals has interpreted Art. III, § 14 in Peet Stock Remedy Co. v. McMullen, 32 F.2d 669 (8th Cir.

1929). The title to the act at issue therein began "an act relating to the public health, convenience and welfare" and provided for the licensing of numerous categories of health care providers. No violation of Art. III, § 14 was found.

With regard to LB 667, the title describes the bill as "an act relating to public health and welfare" and then sets out the statutes to be amended and lists the various topics or matters included within the bill. While two of the topics, the provisions relating to the civil rights of disabled persons and the provision under which the State would opt out of certain federal food stamp provisions, could be challenged as unrelated to the remainder of the bill, they do appear to be germane to the main purpose of the bill which is described within the title as relating to public health and welfare. Because the courts have given such a liberal interpretation to this constitutional provision in the past, we cannot conclude with any certainty that this bill violates Art. III, § 14 of the Nebraska Constitution.

Sincerely,

9 Sec. 22. Section 77-27,222, Revised Statutes Supplement,
 10 2002, is amended to read:

11 77-27,222. (1) For purposes of this section:

12 (a) Accredited means accredited by the National 13 Association for Family Child Care, the National Association for the 14 Education of Young Children, the National School-Age Care Alliance, 15 or a comparable accreditation process approved by the State
 16 Department of Education;

17 (b) Business firm means any business entity, including a 18 corporation, a fiduciary, a sole proprietorship, a partnership, a 19 limited liability company, or a corporation subject to the state 20 income tax imposed by section 77-2715 or 77-2734.02, an insurance 21 company paying premium or related retaliatory taxes in this state 22 pursuant to section 44-150 or 77-908, or a financial institution 23 paying the tax imposed pursuant to sections 77-3801 to 77-3807;

24 (c) Costs incurred by the business firm in providing 25 child care services for children of employees means the amounts 26 expended by the business firm during the year for improvements to 27 the premises for purposes of making the premises suitable in whole

1 or in part for use as a child care facility, including furnishing 2 the facility with fencing, landscaping, sidewalks, furniture,
3 fixtures, equipment, supplies, and other improvements and materials
4 reasonably required to operate a child care facility and the direct 5 operating costs of staffing, operating, and maintaining a child
6 care facility. The costs include the payroll taxes and employee
7 benefit costs of staffing the child care facility and sales and use
8 taxes on purchases included in the costs of providing child care,
9 but not an allocation of the business firm's general,
10 administrative, and other operating expenses. The costs do not 11 include the acquisition of land or the construction of new 12 buildings. The costs include payments to third parties to 13 reimburse the third parties for amounts expended by them and which 14 would have been costs incurred by the business firm in providing 15 child care services if incurred directly by the business firm or to 16 subsidize the cost of providing child care for the children of 17 employees in such third parties' facilities; and 18 (d) Providing child care services means expending funds
19 to improve, furnish, license, accredit, qualify for accreditation,
21 Department of Health and Human Services Regulation and Licensure
22 which provides child care services to children of employees of the 23 business firm or contracting with a child care facility licensed by 24 the department to provide child care services to children of such 25 employees.

27 or after January 1, 2007, under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
1 as amended, any business firm which provides child care services
2 shall be allowed a credit against the individual income tax,
3 corporate income tax, premium or related retaliatory tax, or 4 franchise tax equal to thirty percent of the costs incurred by the 5 business firm in providing child care services for children of 6 employees for each taxable year, up to fifty percent of such 7 business firm's total tax liability. In the case of a sole 8 proprietorship, partnership, or limited liability company which is 9 taxed as a pass-through entity or a corporation which has in effect
10 an election under subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code, the 11 maximum allowable amount of credit shall be fifty percent of the 12 income tax liability determined as if such business firm had been a
13 corporation subject to the state income tax imposed by section
14 77-2734.02. Such pass-through entities shall allocate the 15 allowable credit among their proprietors, partners, members, or 16 shareholders in the same manner as taxable income is allocated. In 17 the case of a fiduciary, the maximum allowable amount of the credit
18 shall be fifty percent of the income tax liability of the fiduciary
19 computed without any deduction for distributions, and the allowable
20 credit shall be allocated among the fiduciary and its beneficiaries 21 in proportion to the taxable income included by each beneficiary in 22 his or her Nebraska income tax returns. In the case of a

24 77-2734.04 and which is included in the combined income tax return 25 of such group, the unitary group shall be the business firm which 26 is providing child care services. Entities which are disregarded
27 for federal income tax purposes shall be disregarded for purposes
1 of defining the business firm which is providing child care
2 services. The credit shall only be used to reduce the tax
3 liabilities of the business firm, or in the case of pass-through 4 entities, the beneficiaries, proprietors, partners, members, or 5 shareholders, for the year in which the costs were incurred. The 6 credit may not be carried forward to the next taxable year. The 7 credit may be taken by the business firm for not more than three 8 taxable years, except that if the child care facility is accredited
9 under section 43-2620 or becomes accredited under section 43-2620
10 during the three-taxable-year period, the credit may be taken for 11 an additional consecutive two taxable years after the end of the 12 third taxable year for which a credit was taken under this section.

13 (3) Costs incurred by the business firm in providing 14 child care services for children of employees shall be reduced by 15 payments received by the business firm from employees. If the 16 business firm provides child care services for the children of 17 employees and also for the children of non-employees, the direct 18 operating costs of staffing, operating, and maintaining the child
19 care facility, including the related payroll taxes, employee
20 benefits, and sales and use taxes, shall be multiplied by a
21 fraction, the numerator of which is the total child hours of care 22 provided to the children of employees and the denominator of which 23 is the total child hours of care provided in the child care
24 facility. Child hour means one hour of care provided for one
25 child. For purposes of calculating child hours, if the business 26 firm does not in the ordinary course of its business compile the 27 actual child hours of care, it may determine the number of child
1 hours based on a reasonable convention if such convention is used
2 consistently for each year that the credit is claimed or the
3 business firm obtains the advance consent of the Tax Commissioner
4 to change the convention. Costs shall be considered incurred in 5 the taxable year in which they are either accruable or are paid in 6 accordance with the business firm's overall income tax method of 7 accounting.

8 (4) A business firm operating a child care facility on 9 January 1, ~~2003~~ 2007, shall only qualify for the two years of tax 10 credits allowed under subsection (2) of this section relating to 11 expenditures by the business firm for direct operating costs if the 12 child care facility is accredited after January 1, ~~2003~~ 2007.

13 (5) A business firm shall not be considered to be 14 providing child care services for purposes of this section unless 15 the child care services are provided to the employees of the firm
16 who qualify under classifications established by the business firm
17 which are found by the Tax Commissioner not to be discriminatory in

18 favor of highly compensated employees. For purposes of this 19 section, highly compensated employee means an employee who was a 20 five-percent owner of the business firm at any time during the year
21 or the preceding year or, for the preceding year, either (a) had 22 compensation from the employer in excess of eighty thousand dollars
23 or (b) was among the highest twenty percent of employees ranked by 24 compensation, whichever results in the smaller group. Whether an 25 employer's classifications are nondiscriminatory shall be 26 determined on the basis of employees' eligibility to place children
27 in the child care facility.

1 (6) No amount paid or incurred by an employer to provide

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 94. Introduced by Jones, 43.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this study is to review issues relating to creation of a separate and distinct land classification for agricultural land which has been purchased for use other than solely as agricultural land at a price at least fifty percent higher than the assessed value of the land. Many parcels of agricultural land have been purchased for reasons unrelated to the agricultural use of the land, and the purchasers have paid prices much higher than the price paid for similar land which is to be used for agricultural purposes. These purchases, when used to determine the actual value of other agricultural land for tax purposes, have resulted in higher valuations for all agricultural land. Creation of a separate classification for this type of property could limit that effect. The study should include legal, fiscal, and technical issues relating to creation of a separate classification and may include recommendations for draft legislation for introduction in the next regular legislative session.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Revenue Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 95. Introduced by Kremer, 34; Cunningham, 40; Burling, 33.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this study is to examine the value to Nebraska agriculture of the permit requirement of section 2-2701 to sell or dispose of current tractor models in the state and whether the law remains relevant as the agricultural sector of the economy evolves. The study shall seek to identify the implications for the financial viability of the Nebraska Tractor Testing Laboratory on the University of Nebraska-Lincoln campus should the Legislature repeal this requirement. The study shall further seek to identify alternatives to outright repeal of the permit requirement, and to identify alternative revenue sources and alternative activities which could be performed by the Nebraska Tractor Testing Laboratory to assure its relevance and viability in the likely event that the volume of tractor testing and associated testing fees paid by manufacturers would decline in the absence of the permit requirement.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That Agriculture Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 96. Introduced by Thompson, 14.

PURPOSE: In 1998 the Legislature passed LB 1100, allowing the University of Nebraska and the Nebraska state colleges to issue revenue bonds to complete several badly needed deferred maintenance projects. Revenue from institutional resources and appropriations from the Legislature were pledged to repay the bonds. Since that time most of these projects have been completed and the institutions are experiencing new deferred maintenance problems. A study should be conducted to determine the feasibility of a second round of deferred maintenance projects that could be completed using a mechanism similar to that used with LB 1100.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Education Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 105. Introduced by Preister, 5.

PURPOSE: The purpose of the study is to examine the recycling of hazardous wastes into fertilizers. This practice introduces dozens of toxic metals and chemicals into farm, lawn, and garden soils, including toxic substances such as lead and mercury. Many of the crops extract these toxic metals from the soil causing these toxins to enter the food supply and put people's health at risk. Current fertilizer labeling laws do not require listing toxic metals that are not essential to plant and crop growth.

The study shall include, but not be limited to, an investigation into the following:

(1) An examination of whether or not fertilizers sold and used in Nebraska contain hazardous wastes;

(2) An examination of the costs and benefits of banning the use of hazardous wastes for manufacturing fertilizers;

(3) An analysis of whether or not expanded right-to-know provisions should be enacted for all hazardous wastes going into fertilizer;

(4) An examination of whether hazardous wastes being made into fertilizers should no longer be exempt from treatment, storage, and disposal tracking requirements; and

(5) A review of federal law and other states' statutes regarding hazardous wastes in fertilizers.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 122. Introduced by Janssen, 15.

PURPOSE: To review existing law and the need for legislation regarding the predatory pricing of motor fuel. Unfair competition in the marketing of motor fuel occurs whenever costs associated with the marketing of motor fuel are recovered from other than operations, thus allowing the refined motor fuel to be sold at subsidized prices. Such subsidies most commonly occur in one of three ways: (1) When refiners use profits from refining crude oil to cover below-normal or negative returns earned from motor fuel marketing operations, (2) when a motor fuel retailer with more than one location uses profits from one location to cover losses from predatory pricing practices of motor fuel at another location, and (3) when a business uses profits from nonmotor fuel sales to cover losses from the predatory pricing being lost on motor fuel sales. The study shall include a review of the long-term effects on the competitive market of the pricing of motor fuel at predatory pricing levels, ways to encourage fair and honest competition, and options to safeguard the public against the creation of monopolies or unfair methods of competition in transactions involving the sale of, offer to sell, or inducement to sell motor fuel in the wholesale or retail trades in this state. In addition, the study shall include the feasibility of prohibiting the pricing of motor fuel, an infinite resource, to be used as a loss-leader product.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 133. Introduced by Quandahl, 31.

PURPOSE: During the past two years the State of Nebraska has experienced unprecedented fiscal problems. The Legislature is currently in its fourth budget cutting session in that two-year period.

There are many programs and services that are critical to the future of Nebraska. There are many programs and services critical to the health, safety, and welfare of individual Nebraskans. But the current state of the economy makes it impossible to provide the funds necessary to maintain the current level of programs and services.

It is important for the future prosperity of our state that we have clear spending priorities and that our revenue system be as current as possible. The Legislature should convene an Economic Summit to discuss state priorities and to recommend changes to our revenue system. Attending the Economic Summit would be representatives of the Legislature, the administration, and public and private interests in the state who have a need for a strong state economy. These interested Nebraskans need to study, discuss, and prioritize programs and services offered by the state.

Such a prioritization should serve as a basis for future funding decisions, rather than the current approach of across the board cuts. In addition, a revised state revenue system reflective of the current economy and sustainable into the foreseeable future needs to be developed to fund the priorities.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Executive Board of the Legislative Council shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the executive board shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINIONSOpinion # 03014

DATE: May 14, 2003

SUBJECT: Application of Neb. Rev. Stat. § 60-6,301(5) (Supp. 2002) to vehicles hauling grass sod.

Jeffery T. Schroeder, Assistant Attorney General

You have requested our opinion as to whether a motor vehicle, semitrailer or trailer hauling grass sod on the highways of this state is allowed, pursuant to Neb. Rev. Stat. § 60-6,301 (Supp. 2002), to exceed by up to 15 percent the maximum weight limits set out in Neb. Rev. Stat. § 60-6,294. As discussed below, we believe that a vehicle hauling grass sod does not qualify for the 15 percent overweight exception of Neb. Rev. Stat. § 60-6,301 because grass sod is not a "seasonally harvested product" under this statute.

In your letter, you have provided some information concerning the grass sod industry. You have informed us that sod growers are considered to be farmers by the Internal Revenue Service. You tell us that grass sod takes about 1½ to 2 years to grow and that when it is mature, it can be cut and removed from the field generally at any time from March to November. You have also informed us that once the sod has been cut, the cut sod needs to be installed within 24 hours of cutting. We understand your question to be whether the weight limit exception of Neb. Rev. Stat. § 60-6,301 (5) would apply to the vehicles hauling grass sod.

It is not apparent from the statute whether grass sod is a seasonally harvested product. We are aware of no statutory definition of the phrase "seasonally harvested product." The Nebraska Supreme Court has stated that:

In discerning the meaning of a statute, a court must determine and give effect to the purpose and intent of the legislature as ascertained from the entire language of the statute considered in its plain, ordinary and popular sense, it being the court's duty to discover, if possible, the Legislature's intent from the language of the statute itself. Curry v. State, ex rel. Stenberg, 242 Neb. 695, 496 N.W.2d 512 (1993). The components of a series or collection of statutes pertaining to a certain subject matter may be conjunctively considered and construed to determine the intent of the Legislature so that different provisions of an act are consistent, harmonious, and sensible. Maack v. School Dist. of Lincoln, 241 Neb. 847, 491 N.W.2d 341 (1992).

Becker v. Nebraska Acct. & Disclosure Comm., 249 Neb. 28, 33, 541 N.W.2d 36, 40 (1995).

Based upon this standard, we have reviewed the statutes on this subject in order to understand the intent and purpose of the legislature when it used the phrase "seasonally harvest products." As you know, Nebraska law protects the highways of this State from damage and destruction caused by overweight vehicles by making it illegal to operate vehicles on the public highways that exceed certain maximum weight limits. Neb. Rev. Stat. § 60-6,294 (Supp. 2002). There are, however, various statutory exceptions to the maximum weight limits, including two separate exceptions that involve vehicles carrying "grain or other seasonally harvested products." One of these exceptions is set out in Neb. Rev. Stat. § 60-6,301 (Supp. 2002). Section 60-6,301 states in part as follows:

When any motor vehicle, semitrailer, or trailer is operated upon the highways of this state carrying a load in excess of the maximum weight permitted by section 60-6,294, the load shall be reduced or shifted to within such maximum tolerance before being permitted to operate on any public highway of this state, except that:

. . . (5) Any motor vehicle, semitrailer, or trailer carrying grain or other seasonally harvested products may operate from the field where such grain or products are harvested to storage, market, or stockpile in the field or from stockpile to market or factory up to seventy miles with a load that exceeds the maximum load permitted by section 60-6,294 by fifteen percent on any tandem axle, group of axles, and gross weight. The owner or a representative of the owner of the agricultural product shall furnish the driver of the loaded vehicle a signed statement of origin and destination.

This exception became effective in 2000. This exception was based, however, on language from Neb. Rev. Stat. § 60-6,298 (1)(b) (1998). Subsection (1)(b) of 60-6,298 was repealed in 2000. The phrase "grain or other seasonally harvested products" used in section 60-6,301 (5) was the identical phrase used in the repealed subsection (1)(b) of section 60-6,298. We understand that the purpose for moving this statutory exception from section 60-6,298 to 60-6,301 was to eliminate the permit required under 60-6,298.

There is another exception for vehicles carrying "grain or other seasonally harvested products" contained in Neb. Rev. Stat. § 60-6,298 (1)(a) (Supp. 2002). Section 60-6,298 (1)(a)(ii) authorizes the Department of Roads, the Nebraska State Patrol or local authorities to issue permits for certain vehicles when carrying "grain or other seasonally harvested products." It is important to read these two exceptions together since they both apply to the hauling of overweight loads of "grain or other seasonally harvested products" on the public highways. Section 60-6,298 provides the following insights into the problem the legislature was addressing when it enacted exceptions to the maximum weight limits for vehicles carrying grain or other seasonally harvested products:

(1) Although "seasonally harvested" is not defined, the legislature included the following three examples of products that the legislature deemed to be "seasonally harvested"--grains, dry beans, and sugar beets. These examples are all typical farm crops.

(2) Section 60-6,298 (1)(a)(ii) states that a permit should be granted:

... when failure to move such grain or products in abundant quantities would cause an economic loss to the person or persons whose grain or products are being transported or when failure to move such grain or products in as large quantities as possible would not be in the best interests of the national defense or general welfare.

(3) Section 60-6,298 (7)(b) specifies that permits issued pursuant to (1)(a)(ii) shall be "valid for thirty days or sixty days and shall be renewable for a total number of days not to exceed one hundred and twenty days per year." This language shows that the legislature contemplated that overweight loads of "seasonally harvested products" should only be allowed to travel on the public highways for a limited period of time.

(4) The legislature identified a specific problem with the harvesting of sugar beets. The legislature made specific provision to allow vehicles hauling "sugar beets" to exceed the weight limits by 25 percent. We understand that this special exception for sugar beets was based on the fact that there is an unusually short period of time from when sugar beets mature to when they must be moved out of the field. This special "sugar beet" exception highlights the fact that the legislature was concerned about the specific problem of how to get a mature crop out of the field quickly and efficiently during a relatively short period of time. This suggests that the legislature was considering only a short term use of the highways by overloaded vehicles carrying seasonally harvested products.

(5) The legislature was mindful that it had a compelling need to protect the public highways from undue damage caused by overweight loads as evidenced by the narrow language it used to grant the exceptions in this statute and in the authority it gave the Department to specify the conditions for the permitted uses of the highways by overweight vehicles. See section 60-6,298 (3).

Reading sections 60-6,298 and 60-6,301 together, it appears that the problem the legislature was addressing when it first used the phrase "grain or other seasonally harvested products" related to the problem of getting a crop out of the field quickly and efficiently after the crop becomes mature. Failure to remove the crop quickly from the field when it is ready for harvest could cause the loss of the crop if bad weather or other causes destroy the crop or make it difficult or impossible to remove it from the field. This conclusion is reinforced by the special consideration in this statute for sugar beets. The statute specifically allows vehicles hauling sugar beets to obtain a permit to exceed maximum weight limits by 25 percent. The legislature sought a balance between the need to protect public highways from damage caused by overweight vehicles with the need to quickly remove mature crops from the field at harvest time in order to avoid the risk of the loss of the mature.

In addition to this review of the statutes, we have discussed this matter with officials of the Carrier Enforcement Division of the State Patrol and officials of the Nebraska Department of Roads. We have been informed that the issue you have raised has been considered before and that the longstanding interpretation of this language by the officials charged with enforcing these statutes has been that grass sod does not qualify as "grain or other seasonally harvested products." Further, we have reviewed the legislative history of LB 1361 and have found no substantive discussion of the legislative intent when this phrase was used in the statutes.

It is the opinion of this office that grass sod is not "grain or other seasonally harvested products" based upon the plain and ordinary meaning of the words used and upon the intent and purpose of the legislature as discerned from the statutes discussed above. The key to this conclusion is the legislatures use of the word "seasonally" in this phrase. The Nebraska Supreme Court has stated that: "The word 'seasonal' pertains, of course, to the four seasons of the year--spring, summer, autumn and winter--but is popularly used in a somewhat wider sense." Hogsett v. Cinek Coal & Feed Co., 127 Neb. 393, 255 N.W. 546 (1934). In Hogsett, the court concluded that: "seasonal employment," as used in the compensation law, has reference to an employment which must have been completed during some rather definite period of the year. Id. The court explained further that:

A seasonal occupation is an employment pertaining to a season or a specific part of a year; hence it may be said that a seasonal occupation is an employment pertaining to or of that kind of labor exclusively performed at specific seasons or periods of the year. The word is different in meaning from the words "casual" and "intermittent."

Seasonal occupations are those vocations which cannot, from their very nature, be continuous or carried on throughout the year, but only during fixed portions of it. On the other hand, labor or occupation possible of performance and being carried on at any time of the year, or through the entire twelve months, is not seasonal.

Based upon the meaning of the word "seasonal" and the language of sections 60-6,298 and 60-6,301, we are led to the conclusion that a "seasonally" harvested product is a product that is harvested during a certain season of the year. A seasonally harvested product has a certain planting season, growing season and must be harvested during a relatively short period of time in a specific season. A "seasonally" harvested product is not a product that can be gathered or harvested at any time throughout 8 months of the year. There is a compelling need to quickly remove a mature seasonally harvested crop from the field because the failure to get the crop out of the field could mean the loss of the crop. There is not the same risk of loss for a product that can be removed from the field at any time over an eight month period.

There is simply no suggestion in the legislative history or the language used in the exception statutes that the legislature intended to allow overloaded vehicles to use and potentially damage the public highways of the state during eight months of the year. The statutes clearly contemplate a short term, 30 to 60 day "seasonal" use of the highways by overloaded vehicles. This short term risk of damage to the highways is justified only because there is a significant risk of loss to "seasonal" crops if they are not quickly removed from the field when the crop reaches the optimal condition for harvest. Our interpretation conforms to the long standing interpretation of this language by the officials who have enforced these laws and is consistent with the decision of the legislature to not overrule this long standing interpretation when it revisited this issue in 2000. The Nebraska Supreme Court has stated that: "Although construction of a statute by a department charged with enforcing it is not controlling, considerable weight will be given to such a construction, particularly when the legislature has not taken any action to change such interpretation." Cox Cable v. Nebraska Dept. of Revenue, 254 Neb. 598, 578 N.W.2d 423 (1998). (Headnote number 2). Finally, this exception cannot be interpreted to allow the hauling of a product that can be removed from the field during 8 months of the year because such an interpretation would read the word "seasonally" out of the statute.

Additionally, there is a minor question as to whether grass sod is actually "harvested." The common understanding of the word harvested would tend to be limited to the typical harvesting of farm crops such as corn or wheat. The common understanding of "harvested" would seem to exclude the activity of cutting sod, which seems to actually involve merely transplanting the living grass plants from one place to another. Again, there is no indication from the words used in the statutes that the legislature intended that the term "harvested" would extend to the hauling of plants to be transplanted in another location.

For these reasons, we do not believe that grass sod is a "seasonally harvested product" as that phrase is used in Neb. Rev. Stat. § 60-6,301(5) (Supp. 2002).

JON BRUNING

SUBJECT: Whether The Sales Tax on Gross Income Received for Casino Advertising Proposed Under LB 759, as Amended, Violates the Guarantee of Freedom of Speech in the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

REQUESTED BY: Senator Ray Janssen

L. Jay Bartel, Assistant Attorney General

You have requested our opinion concerning the constitutionality of an amendment to LB 759, AM 1376. The amendment extends Nebraska's sales tax to "[t]he gross income received for casino advertising" when "the seller of the advertising is located" in Nebraska and the advertising is "broadcast, circulated, or displayed" in Nebraska. "Casino" is defined as "any establishment conducting games of chance which are illegal in the State of Nebraska." "Casino advertising" is defined as "purchasing air time on television or radio, purchasing advertising space in newspapers, magazines, or billboards, purchasing or circulating pamphlets or fliers, purchasing or displaying store signs or window displays, or purchasing any product or media time or space to sell or promote the activities of a casino." "Casino advertising does not include consulting, designing artwork or advertising campaigns, or performing any other creative processes that may result in the purchase of casino advertising." Your question is whether the imposition of sales tax on casino advertising under AM 1376 violates the guarantee of freedom of speech in the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

For the reasons set forth below, we conclude that the proposed tax on casino advertising likely inhibits free speech rights in violation of the First Amendment. First, the proposed tax on casino advertising does not appear to be the type of "generally applicable" tax which impacts speech that has been approved by the United States Supreme Court. While it is part of the general sales tax, which includes taxation of a variety of tangible personal property and services, it applies only to casino advertising. By singling out a specific form of advertising for taxation, while exempting other advertising and services, the tax likely cannot be viewed as one of "general application." It also appears to target a relatively small group of speakers. Second, because of the limited and special nature of the tax, it probably cannot withstand scrutiny under the four-part test for assessing the constitutionality of laws regulating commercial speech set forth in Central Hudson Gas & Elec. Corp. v. Public Serv. Comm'n, 447 U.S. 557 (1980). This four-part analysis requires determining: (1) Whether the commercial speech concerns lawful activity and is not misleading; (2) Whether the law involves a substantial governmental interest; (3) Whether the law directly advances the governmental interest asserted; and (4) Whether the law is not more extensive than is necessary to serve the governmental interest. As to part 1, the casino advertising would concern lawful activity relating to casinos located in states where such activity is legal, and, presumably, the advertising would not be misleading. With respect to part 2, the tax would raise revenue, which can be considered a substantial government interest. If raising revenue is deemed a substantial interest, then the requirement of part 3 that the tax directly advance that government interest is also met. Part 4, however, likely is not satisfied. Because the tax is not general, but narrowly targets a specific message and limited group of speakers, it is more extensive than necessary to achieve the governmental interest, as more narrowly tailored alternatives which avoid the selective taxation proposed could be enacted to further the state's need to raise revenue.

I. ANALYSIS

A. The Protection of Commercial Speech Under the First Amendment.

The First Amendment provides that "Congress shall make no law. . .abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press. . . ." U. S. Const., amend. 1.¹ At one time, the United States Supreme Court did not view commercial speech as worthy of First Amendment protection. Valentine v. Chrestensen, 316 U.S. 53, 54 (1942) ("[T]he Constitution imposes no. . .restraint on government as respects purely commercial advertising."). The Court has since altered this view, and, in Virginia Bd. of Pharmacy v. Virginia Citizens Consumer Council, Inc., 425 U.S. 748 (1976), explicitly held that commercial speech is protected by the First Amendment. Explaining its rationale for extending First Amendment protection to commercial speech, the Court in Virginia Bd. of Pharmacy stated:

Generally, society. . .may have a strong interest in the free flow of commercial information. Even an individual advertisement, though entirely 'commercial', may be of general public interest.

Advertising, however tasteless and excessive it sometimes may seem, is nonetheless the dissemination of information as to who is producing and selling what product, for what reason, and at what price. So long as we preserve the predominantly free enterprise economy, the allocation of our resources in large measure will be made through numerous private economic decisions. It is a matter of public interest that those decisions, in the aggregate, be intelligent and well informed. To this end, the free flow of commercial information is indispensable.

425 U.S. at 764-65. Expanding on this theme in its later decision in Edenfield v. Fane, 507 U.S. 761, 767 (1993), the Court stated:

The commercial marketplace, like other spheres of our social and cultural life, provides a forum where ideas and information flourish. Some of the ideas and information are vital, some of slight worth. But the general rule is that the speaker and the audience, not the government, assess the value of the information presented. Thus, even a communication that does no more than propose a commercial transaction is entitled to the coverage of the First Amendment.

Since advertising is commercial speech protected by the First Amendment, the proposed tax on casino advertising raises a question as to whether the tax impermissibly restricts advertisers' First Amendment right to free speech. Resolution of this issue entails considering the Court's decisions involving the validity of taxes challenged as violative of the First Amendment, as well as the Court's First Amendment analysis of the validity of regulations or restrictions affecting commercial speech.

B. Taxation and the First Amendment.

On several occasions, the Court has addressed claims that taxes affecting the press violated the First Amendment. In Grossjean v. American Press

Co., 297 U.S. 233 (1936), the Court struck down a state tax on the gross receipts of advertising imposed only on newspapers with a circulation of more than 20,000 copies per week. While noting that its decision invalidating the tax should not be read "to suggest that owners of newspapers are immune from any of the ordinary forms of taxation for support of the government. . .," the Court held the tax was "not an ordinary form of tax, but one single in kind * * * with the plain purpose of penalizing the publishers and curtailing the circulation of a selected group of newspapers." Id. at 250-51.

In Minneapolis Star and Tribune Co. v. Minnesota Comm'r of Revenue, 460 U.S. 575 (1983), the Court held a use tax imposed on the cost of paper and ink products exceeding $100,000 a year consumed in the production of periodic publications violated the First Amendment guarantee of freedom of the press. The Court noted that "[b]y creating this special use tax, . . . , Minnesota ha[d] singled out the press for special treatment." Id. at 582. In striking down this special tax, the Court found the danger posed by subjecting the press to special taxation, rather than taxes of "general applicability," was crucial:

A power to tax differentially, as opposed to a power to tax generally, gives a government a powerful weapon against the taxpayer selected. When the State imposes a generally applicable tax, there is little cause for concern. We need not fear that a government will destroy a selected group of taxpayers by burdensome taxation if it must impose the same burden on the rest of its constituency. . . . When the State singles out the press, though, the political constraints that prevent a legislature from passing crippling taxes of general applicability are weakened, and the threat of burdensome taxes becomes acute. That threat can operate as effectively as a censor to check critical comment by the press, undercutting the basic assumption of our political system that the press will often serve as an important restraint on government.

Id. at 585.

Minnesota's asserted interest justifying the tax was "the raising of revenue." Id. at 586. While recognizing "that interest is critical to any government. . .," the Court held it could not "justify the special treatment of the press, for an alternative means of achieving the same interest without raising concerns under the First Amendment [was] clearly available: the State could raise the revenue by taxing businesses generally." Id. The Minnesota tax was found unconstitutional not only because "it single[d] out the press," but also because "it target[ed] a small group of newspapers. . . ." Id. at 591. By exempting the first $100,000 in paper and ink costs from taxation, the tax targeted only a few large publishers. Id. at 592. Singling out only a select group of publishers for special taxation created a "potential for abuse" which "resemble[d] more of a penalty for a few of the largest newspapers. . . ." Id. Even absent any indication of an "[i]llicit legislative intent" to target the press or selected members of the press, the Court found the Minnesota tax violated the First Amendment. Id.

In Arkansas Writers' Project, Inc. v. Ragland, 481 U.S. 221 (1987), on remand 293 Ark. 395, 738 S.W.2d 402 (1987), the Court invalidated a state sales tax scheme that taxed general interest magazines, but exempted newspapers and religious, professional, trade, and sports journals, as violating the First Amendment guarantee of freedom of the press. Arkansas asserted the differential taxation was permissible because "the Arkansas sales tax [was] a generally applicable economic regulation." Id. at 228-29. The Arkansas tax was invalidated, however, because it singled out a small group of magazines for taxation, while exempting most other magazines, and did so based on content. Id. at 229-30. While recognizing the state's interest in raising revenue was "an important one," the Court found "it [did] not explain selective imposition of the sales tax on some magazines and not others, based solely on their content." Id. at 231.

A few years after its decision in Arkansas Writers' Project, the Court upheld the constitutionality of Arkansas' sales tax on cable television services, even though newspapers and other print media were exempt, against a First Amendment challenge. Leathers v. Medlock, 499 U.S. 439 (1991). In Leathers, the Court explained the principles set forth in Grosjean, Minneapolis Star, and Arkansas Writers' Project as follows:

These cases demonstrate that differential taxation of First Amendment speakers is constitutionally suspect when it threatens to suppress the expression of particular ideas or viewpoints. Absent a compelling justification, the government may not exercise its taxing power to single out the press. . . . The press plays a unique role as a check on government abuse, and a tax limited to the press raises concerns about censorship of critical information and opinion. A tax is also suspect if it targets a small group of speakers. . . . Again, the fear is censorship of particular ideas or viewpoints. Finally, for reasons that are obvious, a tax will trigger heightened scrutiny under the First Amendment if it discriminates on the basis of the content of taxpayer speech.

499 U.S. at 447 (citations omitted).

The Court in Leathers found the Arkansas sales tax on cable television "present[ed] none of these types of discrimination." Id. "The Arkansas sales tax [was] a tax of general applicability. . ." which "applie[d] to receipts from the sale of all tangible personal property and a broad range of services, unless within a group of specific exemptions." Id. The tax did "not single out the press. . .," and did not "target[] a small number of speakers. . .," as it applied to approximately 100 cable systems in the State of Arkansas. Id. at 447-48. Finally, the tax "[was] not content based. . . ." Id. at 449.

Since the Arkansas tax "present[ed] none the First Amendment difficulties that. . . led the [Court] to strike down differential taxation in the past," the Arkansas tax would be invalidated "only if the Arkansas tax scheme present[ed] 'an additional basis' for concluding the tax violated the First Amendment. Id. at 449 (quoting Arkansas Writers' Project, 481 U.S. at 233). The cable operators argued the discrimination between different media (i.e., taxing cable television but exempting print media) constituted an "additional basis" requiring invalidation of the Arkansas sales tax on cable television services. Rejecting this claim, the Court noted its decisions in Regan v. Taxation with Representation of Wash., 461 U.S. 540 (1983) and Cammarano v. United States, 358 U.S. 498 (1959), established "that a legislature is not required to subsidize First Amendment rights through a tax exemption or a tax deduction." 499 U.S. at 450-51. Citing to Regan, as well as Mabee v. White Plains Publishing Co., 327 U.S. 178 (1946) and Oklahoma Press Publishing Co. v. Walling, 327 U.S. 186 (1946), the Court stated:

Taken together, Regan, Mabee, and Oklahoma Press establish that differential taxation of speakers, even members of the press, does not implicate the First Amendment unless the tax is directed at, or presented the danger of suppressing, particular ideas. That was the case in Grosjean, Minneapolis Star, and Arkansas Writers', but it is not the case here. The Arkansas Legislature simply chose to exclude or exempt certain media from a generally applicable tax. Nothing about that choice has ever suggested an interest in censoring the expressive activities of cable television. Nor does anything in this record indicate that Arkansas' broad-based, content-neutral sales tax is likely to stifle the free exchange of ideas. We conclude that the State's extension of its generally applicable sales tax to cable television services alone, or to cable and satellite systems, while exempting the print media, does not violate the First Amendment.

The United States Supreme Court's decisions concerning First Amendment taxation have involved only taxes on noncommercial speech. While the Court has not considered the validity of taxes imposed on commercial speech, such as advertising, at least two state courts have addressed First Amendment challenges to advertising taxes. In City of Baltimore v. A. S. Abell Co., 218 Md. 273, 145 A.2d 111 (1958), the Court of Appeals of Maryland held that municipal ordinances taxing advertising violated the First Amendment. One ordinance imposed on purchasers a tax of four percent of the gross sales price of the space for printed advertising or the time for any broadcast advertising in Baltimore. Id. at 277-78, 145 A.2d at 112-13. A second ordinance levied on the sellers of such advertising a tax of two percent on gross receipts. Id. Although the tax ordinances were repealed after only one year, newspaper publishers, radio and television broadcasters, billboard operators, and advertising purchasers sued to recover taxes paid under the ordinances, asserting the taxes violated the First Amendment. Id. at 113, 145 A.2d at 278. Finding the effect of the two taxes was essentially the same for purposes of considering the First Amendment issue, the court applied a single analysis in assessing the claim that the taxes

The City of Baltimore defended the validity of the taxes by asserting that, while not reaching all advertising, the taxes were "broad enough in their nature and character so as to escape the designation of being 'single in kind' and therefore [did] not violate the immunities of freedom of speech or of the press." Id. at 283, 145 A.2d at 116. Discussing this contention, the court noted "this argument is predicated upon, and assumes, the fact that the taxes involved herein are ordinary or general in nature and operation, as distinguished from special or 'single in kind' taxes." Id. at 287, 145 A.2d at 118 (emphasis in original). This was significant because, the court noted, "when [a] tax is imposed upon a business that enjoys one of the constitutional immunities of the First Amendment, it must be general in its nature and character and affect this business only incidentally as it affects other businesses in their combined duty to support the government." Id. The court found the taxes were not general, but "singled out" entities entitled to First Amendment protection "to pay a special tax that [was] not required of business in general or some broad portion thereof." Id. at 288, 145 A.2d at 118-19. Because the taxes were "so single in their nature and the range of their impact [was] so narrow - 90% to 95% thereof falling upon the newspapers and the [radio and television] stations-[] their effect ma[de] them constitute a restraint on the freedoms of speech and of the press guaranteed" by the Constitution. Id. at 288-89, 145 A.2d at 119.

In an advisory opinion issued at the request of the Governor, the Supreme Court of Florida concluded that legislation extending Florida's sales tax to previously untaxed services, including advertising, did not facially violate the freedom of speech and press guarantees in the First Amendment. In re Advisory Opinion to the Governor, 509 So. 2d 292 (Sup. Ct. Fla. 1987). Citing the U. S. Supreme Court's decision in Arkansas Writers' Project, Minneapolis Star, and Grosjean, the court stated "[i]t was beyond question that advertisers and the press are not immune from ordinary, nondiscriminatory taxes of general application." 509 So.2d at 306. The court found the "tax on the sale of services [was] one of general application and [did] not single out advertisers or the press for special taxation." Id. In finding the advertising tax did not violate the First Amendment, the court noted did the tax did "not impact only a select few advertisers or publications. . .," and did not "unconstitutionally discriminate between publications based on content." Id. at 308.

City of Baltimore v. A. S. Abell Co. and In re Advisory Opinion to the Governor indicate that the question of whether a tax impermissibly impacts commercial speech such as advertising may, to some degree, appropriately be analyzed by resort to the standards used by the Supreme Court in cases such as Grosjean, Minneapolis Star, Arkansas Writers', and Leathers, to evaluate the constitutionality of taxes on noncommercial speech. Basically, the relevant considerations are whether the tax is "generally applicable," and does not "single out" particular speakers or "target only a small number" of

Judged by these standards, the casino advertising tax is constitutionally suspect. The tax is part of Nebraska's sales and use tax scheme, which imposes a tax on the sale or use of tangible personal property and certain services, subject to specific exemptions. In that respect, it could be argued that the tax, although limited to "casino" advertising, is "generally applicable." While this argument has facial appeal, it fails to properly recognize the extremely narrow and limited application of the tax. The tax is not imposed on advertising generally, but applies only to the extraordinarily limited subject of "casino advertising." By "singling out" commercial speech relating only to casino advertising for taxation, while all other advertising remains exempt from taxation, the tax does not appear to truly be one of "general application." Also, while the bill does apply to advertising by all media, limiting the tax to casino advertising appears to target the tax towards a small number of speakers. Since, as noted in the legislation, casino gambling in Nebraska is illegal, the casino advertising to be taxed likely relates to advertising by casinos in surrounding states which permit casino gambling. While we obviously have no empirical data concerning the scope and nature of advertising activity in Nebraska by out-of-state casinos, it is logical to conclude that the bulk of such advertising involves marketing by the three casinos located in Council Bluffs, Iowa, and directed towards the large metropolitan population in Omaha, Nebraska, as well as eastern Nebraska as a whole. If the primary impact of the tax would, as we surmise, fall almost exclusively on these three casinos in Iowa, it may well violate the First Amendment because it is directed at too small a group of speakers. A tax which singles out a specific advertiser or advertisers for disproportionate taxation may be found to impermissibly inhibit First Amendment rights. The casino advertising tax appears to be just such a tax.

C. Commercial Speech and the Central Hudson Test.

In addition to the line of authority in which the United States Supreme Court has considered the validity of taxes imposed on activities protected by the First Amendment, the Court has, in a long series of cases, addressed First Amendment challenges to restrictions on commercial speech in a variety of areas. As noted in part I.A., infra, the Court first explicitly held that commercial speech was protected by the First Amendment in Virginia Bd. of Pharmacy v. Virginia Citizens Consumer Council, Inc., 425 U.S. 748 (1976). In its later decision in Central Hudson Gas & Elec. Corp. v. Public Serv. Comm'n, 447 U.S. 557 (1980), the Court clarified the standards to be employed in assessing the constitutionality of restrictions or regulations of commercial speech.

In Central Hudson, the Court invalidated regulations prohibiting advertising and other promotional activities by electric utilities. Confirming prior precedents recognizing that "[t]he Constitution. . . accords a lesser degree of protection to commercial speech than to other constitutionally guaranteed expression. . .," the Court adopted the following four-part analysis for evaluating the constitutionality of commercial speech regulations:

At the outset, we must determine whether the expression is protected by the First Amendment. For commercial speech to come within that provision, it at least must concern lawful activity and not be misleading. Next, we ask whether the asserted governmental interest is substantial. If both inquiries yield positive answers, we must determine whether the regulation directly advances the governmental interest asserted, and whether it is not more extensive than is necessary to serve that interest.

447 U.S. at 566.

The Court has applied the Central Hudson analysis in a variety of contexts. In Posadas de Puerto Rico Associates v. Tourism Co. of Puerto Rico, 478 U.S. 328 (1986), five members of the Court joined in an opinion which upheld the constitutionality of a Puerto Rican statute that restricted advertising of casino gambling aimed at residents of Puerto Rico, while allowing local advertising targeted at tourists. Applying Central Hudson, the majority found this was commercial speech which involved a lawful activity (casino gambling was legal in Puerto Rico) and was not misleading. Id. at 340-41. The government interest asserted in support of the restriction, reducing the demand for casino gambling by residents of Puerto Rico, was found to be "substantial," in view of the potential harm to the "health, safety, and welfare" of Puerto Rico's citizens posed by casino gambling. Id. at 341. The majority found the challenged restrictions "directly advance[d]" the government's interest, finding the "legislature's belief" that the restrictions would reduce casino gambling by residents was "a reasonable one." Id. at 342. The Court reached this conclusion in spite of the fact that the restrictions applied only to casino gambling, and did not apply to advertisements concerning horse racing, cockfighting, and the lottery. Id. Finally, the majority concluded the restrictions were no more extensive than necessary to serve the government's interest, as the restrictions were limited to advertising to Puerto Rico residents. Id. at 343-44. The majority distinguished the advertising restrictions on casino gambling at issue in Posadas from advertising bans struck down in prior cases (Carey v. Population Services International, 431 U.S. 678 (1977) (ban on advertising or displaying contraceptives) and Bigelow v. Virginia, 421 U.S. 809 (1975) (ban on advertisements encouraging abortion)) by noting the advertising in those cases related to conduct that was "constitutionally protected and could not have been prohibited by the State." Id. at 345. "Here, on the other hand, the Puerto Rico Legislature surely could have prohibited casino gambling by the residents of Puerto Rico altogether. In our view, the greater power to completely ban casino gambling necessarily includes the lesser power to ban advertising of casino gambling. . . ." Id. at 345-46.

In United States v. Edge Broadcasting Co., 509 U.S. 418 (1993), the Court upheld the constitutionality of federal statutes (18 U.S.C. §§ 1304 and 1307) that prohibited the broadcasting of lottery advertising by a broadcaster licensed in a state that did not allow lotteries (North Carolina), while allowing such broadcasting by a broadcaster licensed in Virginia, a state that sponsored a lottery, even though the Virginia broadcaster's signal extended into North Carolina. Applying Central Hudson, the Court recognized that the advertising involved a legal activity, since it concerned a legal lottery in Virginia, and assumed the advertising would not be misleading. Id. at 426. The statutes were found to "directly advance" the federal government's substantial interest in supporting the policies of nonlottery states while at the same time not interfering with the policies of lottery states. Id. at 428. The majority also concluded that the statutory restriction was "no more extensive than necessary" because, as was the case in Posadas, the "fit" between the restriction and the governmental interest, while "not necessarily perfect," was "reasonable." Id. at 429.

In subsequent decisions, the Court has retreated from the deferential standard of review taken in Posadas and Edge relating to the requirements of Central Hudson that restrictions on commercial speech must "directly advance" the government's interest and must not be more extensive than necessary to serve that interest. In Rubin v. Coors Brewing Co., 514 U.S. 476 (1995), the Court, without dissent, held unconstitutional a federal statute prohibiting beer labels from displaying alcohol content. There was no question that the statute related to commercial speech about a lawful activity which was not misleading. Id. at 483. In support of the ban, the government argued it directly advanced Congress' substantial interest in curbing "strength wars" by beer brewers competing for customers based on alcohol content. Id. The Court determined the ban did not "directly and materially advance its asserted interest because of the overall irrationality of the regulatory scheme." Id. at 488. The statute allowed disclosure of alcohol content on labels of wine and hard liquor, and permitted identification on labels of higher alcohol content by inclusion of the term "malt liquor." Id. at 488-89. The exceptions and internal contradictions in the statute thus did not materially advance the asserted goal. Further, the Court found the advertising ban was "not sufficiently tailored to its goal." Id. at 490. Other alternatives, including directly limiting alcohol content of beer, were available to achieve the government's interest. Id. at 490-91. Significantly, the Court unanimously rejected the government's contention that, under Posadas and Edge, "legislatures' have broader latitude to regulate speech that promotes socially harmful activities, such as alcohol consumption, than they have to regulate other types of speech." Id. at 482n.2. The Court noted that neither Posadas nor Edge compelled crafting such an exception to Central Hudson, and specifically retreated from the statement in Posadas that the "greater power" to prohibit casino gambling included the "lesser power" to ban promotional advertising of casino gambling, noting this passage was dictum reached after the Court had already held the statute valid under Central Hudson. Id.

In 44 Liquormart, Inc. v. Rhode Island, 517 U.S. 484 (1996), the Court considered a First Amendment challenge to a state law banning advertising of retail prices of alcohol except at the point of sale. Justice Stevens, writing for the plurality, noted that because the "price advertising ban constitute[d] a blanket prohibition against lawful, nonmisleading speech about a lawful product. . .," the Court "review[ed] the price advertising ban with 'special care,' . . .," stating that "speech prohibitions of this type rarely survive constitutional scrutiny." Id. at 504 (citation omitted). The blanket prohibition on price advertising failed to survive scrutiny under Central Hudson, as there was no evidence it would "significantly advance the State's interest of temperance." Id. at 505. The ban also failed to "satisfy the requirement that the restriction on speech be no more extensive than necessary. . .," as "obvious" other forms of regulation which did not restrict speech were available to achieve the state's temperance goals, including higher prices through direct regulation or increased taxation. Id. at 507. The plurality also rejected the "greater-includes-the-lesser" reasoning in Posadas, as well as the contention that the Court should recognize a "vice" exception in commercial speech matters based on language in Edge characterizing gambling as a "vice," an exception which was "effectively rejected" in Rubin. Id. at 508-14.

The Court again applied Central Hudson in the context of considering a restriction on gambling advertising in Greater New Orleans Broadcasting Ass'n, Inc. v. United States, 527 U.S. 173 (1999). Greater New Orleans involved a First Amendment challenge to a federal statute (18 U.S.C. § 1304) asserting the statute could not be applied to prohibit advertisements regarding casino gambling broadcast in a state where the gambling was legal. Id. at 176. There was no question that the speech involved lawful activity, and was not misleading. Id. at 184. The asserted governmental interest behind the restriction was "reducing the social costs associated with 'casino gambling,'" as well as "assisting States that 'restrict gambling' or 'prohibit casino gambling' within their own borders." Id. at 185. The Court "accept[ed] the characterization of these two interests as 'substantial,' " but noted "that conclusion [was] by no means self-evident." Id. at 186. The restriction did not, however, "directly and materially advance[] the asserted governmental interest[s]. . .," and was "more extensive than necessary" to achieve such interests. Id. at 188. The Court found the statute was "so pierced by exemptions and inconsistencies" that it could not survive First Amendment scrutiny. Id. at 190.

In Lorillard Tobacco Co. v. Reilly, 533 U.S. 525 (2001), the Court considered, in part, First Amendment challenges to Massachusetts regulations restricting the promotion of tobacco products. Expanding on the scope of the third and fourth parts of the Central Hudson test, the Court noted "[t]he third step of Central Hudson concerns the relationship between the harm that underlies the State's interest and the means identified by the State to advance that interest." Id. at 555. "It requires that 'the speech restriction directly and materially advance[] the asserted government interest. . . .'" Id. (quoting Greater New Orleans, 527 U.S. at 188). The fourth step of Central Hudson " 'complements' " the third step, " 'asking whether the speech restriction is not more extensive than necessary to serve the interests that support it.' " Id. at 556 (quoting Greater New Orleans, 527

U.S. at 527). " '[T]he least restrictive means' " is not the standard; instead, the case law requires a reasonable " 'fit between the legislature's ends and the means chosen to accomplish those ends,. . . a means narrowly tailored to achieve the desired objective.' " Id. at 556 (quoting Florida Bar v. Went for It, Inc., 515 U.S. 618, 632 (1995) (quoting Board of Trustees v. State Univ. of N.Y. v. Fox, 492 U.S. 469, 480 (1989))).

Applying these aspects of Central Hudson, the Lorillard Court struck down regulations prohibiting outdoor advertising for smokeless tobacco and cigars within a certain distance of schools or playgrounds, finding the regulations were "more extensive than necessary to advance the State's substantial interest in preventing underage tobacco use." Id. at 565. In addition, regulations which restricted indoor, point-of-sale advertising for cigars and smokeless tobacco by placing a height requirement on such advertising in retail establishments a certain distance from schools or playgrounds were held invalid because they did not satisfy the third and fourth prongs of Central Hudson. Id. at 566-67. The height requirement did not directly advance the state's goals of preventing minors from using tobacco products or curbing demand by limiting youth exposure to advertising, nor did it "constitute a reasonable fit" to achieve those goals. Id.

Evaluating the proposed casino advertising tax under the four part test set forth in Central Hudson and its progeny, there is no question that part 1 is satisfied. While the term "casino," as defined in the amendment, refers to an establishment which conducts games of chance which would be illegal if conducted in Nebraska, the advertising to be taxed obviously pertains to advertising in Nebraska by casinos located in states in which such gambling activity is lawful. Presumably, this advertising would be truthful and not misleading. As to part 2 of Central Hudson, the tax would raise revenue, which can be considered a "substantial" governmental interest.² Accepting raising revenue as a substantial governmental interest, then the requirement of part 3 that the commercial speech restriction "directly advance" the government's interest is necessarily met. Part 4 of the Central Hudson test, however, likely is not satisfied. In considering application of this aspect of Central Hudson, the Court's evaluation of the validity of taxes on noncommercial speech is instructive. Because the casino advertising tax is not truly general, but narrowly targets a specific category of advertising and a limited group of speakers, it is more extensive than necessary to achieve the governmental interest, as more narrowly tailored alternatives which avoid the selective taxation proposed could be enacted to further the state's need to raise revenue. For example, the tax could be imposed on all advertising, thus avoiding the disproportionate impact on specific commercial speech implicated by the narrow "casino advertising" tax. As a result, we do not believe that the casino advertising tax proposed under AM 1376 would be likely to survive scrutiny if challenged as violating the First Amendment.³

II. CONCLUSION

Based on the foregoing, we conclude that the casino advertising tax proposed under AM 1376 to LB 759 is constitutionally suspect. Extending the sales tax to only casino advertising, as opposed to advertising generally, singles out a distinct form of advertising for taxation, and appears to target a few selected speakers. As such, the tax does not seem to be the type of "generally applicable" tax impacting speech which the United States Supreme Court has held is permissible under the First Amendment. For the same reason, the casino advertising tax probably does not satisfy the requirement of the last portion of the Court's Central Hudson test for assessing the constitutionality of restrictions on commercial speech. Because the casino advertising tax is not truly general, but narrowly targets a specific category of advertising and a limited group of speakers, it is more extensive than necessary to achieve the governmental interest of raising revenue, as more narrowly tailored alternatives which avoid the selective taxation proposed could be enacted to further the state's revenue raising needs.

² The casino advertising tax has reportedly been justified as a means to raise revenue to fund programs which deal with the social costs imposed on Nebraska resulting from the harm its citizens suffer because of legalized casino gambling in other states. Nothing in the proposed legislation indicates any revenue raised by the casino advertising tax is dedicated for such a purpose, and, as such, it must be evaluated as a general revenue raising measure.

³ Because the tax at issue is directed only to "casino advertising," it has been suggested that the tax is a "content-based" restriction on free speech subject to strict or heightened scrutiny. The Court has declined to adopt a strict scrutiny approach to content specific commercial speech regulations, and has consistently applied "the somewhat less rigorous standards of Central Hudson." Anderson v. Treadwell, 294 F.3d 453, 460 (2d Cir. 2002) (citing Thompson v. Western States Medical Center, 535 U.S. 357 (2002)). Since we believe the proposed tax fails to satisfy the traditional Central Hudson standard, it is not necessary to consider if a heightened "content-based" scrutiny would be appropriate.

Very truly yours,

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 136. Introduced by Bourne, 8.

PURPOSE: To examine the impact of manual strangulation, the resulting injury potential to a victim of manual strangulation, and the charges filed under Nebraska law when such manual strangulation does not result in immediate death. The study should include, but not be limited to, a consideration of the injuries or potential injuries sustained by a victim of manual strangulation, including such permanent disabilities as brain damage and the exacerbation of preexisting conditions. The study should also include an examination of other states' laws with respect to aggravated assaults and statutes that classify manual strangulation assaults as felony crimes rather than misdemeanor crimes.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Judiciary Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 137. Introduced by Preister, 5.

PURPOSE: The purpose of the study is to examine the financial assurance requirements in all of the programs in the Department of Environmental Quality and the Department of Agriculture and compare them to other states' financial assurance requirements to determine if the state is adequately protecting itself and its political subdivisions from potential costs by imposing adequate financial assurance requirements on licensees and permitholders.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Natural Resources and the Agriculture Committees of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committees shall upon the conclusion of the study make a report of their findings, together with their recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 138. Introduced by Cunningham, 40.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to study the collective-bargaining process used by teachers' unions and school boards when determining the negotiated agreement for teachers. With the present teacher shortage that is occurring in Nebraska as well as other states, it is becoming increasingly difficult to hire teachers, particularly in certain fields. This study shall focus on whether school boards should be given statutory authority to deviate above the standard contract when necessary to attract quality teachers.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Business and Labor Committee and the Education Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committees shall upon the conclusion of the study make a report of their findings, together with their recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 139. Introduced by Dw. Pedersen, 39; Brashear, 4.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this interim study is to study the effect of closing the Lincoln Correctional Center as authorized by AM1778 to Legislative Bill 407, Ninety-eighth Legislature, First Session, 2003.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Judiciary Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 141. Introduced by Wehrbein, 2.

PURPOSE:

The Nebraska Forest Service provides education and services to Nebraskans covering all aspects of planting, protection, care, and utilization of our forest and tree resources. Through its work with volunteer fire departments, the Nebraska Forest Service also provides fire protection to all rural land, including rangeland and cropland.

The mission of the Nebraska Forest Service is to provide technical assistance and support for rural fire control, rural forestry assistance, community forestry, and forest pest management programs, and the service is part of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln's public service activities.

State law provides, and the policy of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska states, that the university's first priority is undergraduate instruction, the university's second priority is graduate and professional instruction and research, and the university's third priority is public service, but during state budget reductions and reallocations, funding for the Nebraska Forest Service may be in jeopardy due to its priority status within the University. The elimination of the Nebraska Forest Service would have a profound impact on Nebraska citizens.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Appropriations Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution. The study shall include, but need not be limited to, an analysis of the following:

(1) Funding requirements necessary to preserve, at a minimum, the Nebraska Forest Service core programs of rural fire control, rural forestry assistance, community forestry, and forest pest management;

(2) Funding requirements necessary to ensure compliance with federal law and federal rules and regulations;

(3) Funding necessary for federal matching requirements;

(4) How Nebraska Forest Service programs should be coordinated among federal, state, and local agencies; and

(5) Alternatives for the administration and management of the Nebraska Forest Service, including, but not limited to: Changing it to a free-standing state agency, making it a part of an existing state agency, aligning it with the natural resources districts, or modifying the existing arrangement with the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Referred to the Executive Board.

4 retirement fee shall be charged for filing a report pursuant to 5 sections 33-126.02 and 33-126.06. When collected by the clerk of 6 the district or county court, such fees shall be paid to the 7 director in charge of the judges retirement system on forms
8 prescribed by the board by the clerk within ten days after the 9 close of each calendar quarter. Such director shall promptly
10 thereafter remit the same to the State Treasurer for credit to the

18 (5) The fund shall consist of the total fund as of 19 December 25, 1969, the contributions of members as provided in this 20 section, all supplementary court fees as provided in subsection (3)
21 of this section, and any required contributions of the state.

22 (6) Not later than January 1 of each year, the State
23 Treasurer shall transfer to the fund the amount certified by the 24 board as being necessary to pay the cost of any benefits accrued
25 during the fiscal year ending the previous June 30 in excess of 26 member contributions for that fiscal year and court fees as 27 provided in subsection (3) of this section, if any, for that fiscal 1 year plus any required contributions of the state as provided in 2 subsection (9) of this section.

3 (7) Benefits under the retirement system to members or to 4 their beneficiaries shall be paid from the fund.

5 (8) Any member who is making contributions to the fund on 6 December 25, 1969, may, on or before June 30, 1970, elect to become

7 a future member by delivering written notice of such election to 8 the board.

9 (9) Not later than January 1 of each year, the State
10 Treasurer shall transfer to the fund an amount, determined on the 11 basis of an actuarial valuation as of the previous June 30 and 12 certified by the board, to fully fund the unfunded accrued
13 liabilities of the retirement system as of June 30, 1988, by level
14 payments up to January 1, 2000. Such valuation shall be on the 15 basis of actuarial assumptions recommended by the actuary, approved
16 by the board, and kept on file with the board. For the fiscal year 17 beginning July 1, 2002, and each fiscal year thereafter, the 18 actuary for the board shall perform an actuarial valuation of the 19 system using the entry age actuarial cost method. Under this 20 method, the actuarially required funding rate is equal to the 21 normal cost rate, plus the contribution rate necessary to amortize
22 the unfunded actuarial accrued liability on a level payment basis.
23 The normal cost under this method shall be determined for each 24 individual member on a level percentage of salary basis. The 25 normal cost amount is then summed for all members. The initial 26 unfunded actual accrued liability as of July 1, 2002, if any, shall 27 be amortized over a twenty-five-year period. During each
1 subsequent actuarial valuation, changes in the funded actuarial
2 accrued liability due to changes in benefits, actuarial
3 assumptions, the asset valuation method, or actuarial gains or 4 losses shall be measured and amortized over a twenty-five-year
5 period beginning on the valuation date of such change. If the 6 unfunded actuarial accrued liability under the entry age actuarial
7 cost method is zero or less than zero on an actuarial valuation
8 date, then all prior unfunded actuarial accrued liabilities shall 9 be considered fully funded and the unfunded actuarial accrued
10 liability shall be reinitialized and amortized over a
11 twenty-five-year period as of the actuarial valuation date. If the 12 actuarially required contribution rate exceeds the rate of all
13 contributions required pursuant to the Judges Retirement Act, there 14 shall be a supplemental appropriation sufficient to pay for the 15 differences between the actuarially required contribution rate and
17 Retirement Act.

18 (10) The state or county shall pick up the member
19 contributions required by this section for all compensation paid on 20 or after January 1, 1985, and the contributions so picked up shall 21 be treated as employer contributions in determining federal tax
22 treatment under the Internal Revenue Code as defined in section 23 49-801.01, except that the state or county shall continue to 24 withhold federal income taxes based upon these contributions until 25 the Internal Revenue Service or the federal courts rule that,
26 pursuant to section 414(h) of the code, these contributions shall 27 not be included as gross income of the member until such time as 1 they are distributed or made available. The state or county shall

2 pay these member contributions from the same source of funds which 3 is used in paying earnings to the member. The state or county
4 shall pick up these contributions by a compensation deduction
5 through a reduction in the compensation of the member. Member 6 contributions picked up shall be treated for all purposes of the 7 Judges Retirement Act in the same manner and to the extent as 8 member contributions made prior to the date picked up.
9 Sec. 2. Original section 24-703, Revised Statutes
10 Supplement, 2002, is repealed.
11 Sec. 3. Since an emergency exists, this act takes effect
12 when passed and approved according to law."

RESOLUTIONS

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 142. Introduced by Jones, 43.

WHEREAS, the Sandhills are the only vegetative sand dunes in the western hemisphere and cover over 19,000 square miles of Nebraska; and

WHEREAS, it is important to acknowledge the people of the Sandhills and their heritage because of the manner in which they have adapted to and persevered over what was once thought of as the Great American Desert; and

WHEREAS, the Sandhills area contains many naturally unique plant and animal communities and is much the same as it was when cattle were first introduced to the region; and

WHEREAS, the communities in the Sandhills can boast of a strong work ethic, a dedication to the land, and an open-hearted hospitality to travelers.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the week of July 1 to July 7, 2003, be declared Sandhills Recognition Week.

Laid over.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 143. Introduced by Hudkins, 21; McDonald, 41.

PURPOSE: The goal of this interim study is to examine ways to ensure that candidates for the office of county sheriff are qualified to assume office immediately upon election.

Under current law, an individual elected county sheriff in this state is granted an eight-month grace period after taking office in which to obtain the requisite certification by the Nebraska Law Enforcement Training Center. Concerns have been raised that allowing uncertified candidates to begin exercising their official law enforcement duties is detrimental to the best interests of the communities which they have been elected to serve. Apprehension exists that an uncertified sheriff may lack the knowledge and skills needed to carry out effectively the duties of his or her office. Similarly, it is possible that a sheriff's failure to obtain the mandatory certification during the statutorily specified period would force the county to go to the expense of locating, hiring, and paying for a qualified replacement while continuing to honor the duly elected sheriff's contract, despite his or her incapacity to perform officially.

It is the intent of the Legislature that this interim study will produce a workable proposal for ensuring that all county sheriffs are certified by the Nebraska Law Enforcement Training Center prior to undertaking their official duties.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Judiciary Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

Referred to the Executive Board.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 144. Introduced by Beutler, 28.

PURPOSE: Despite the progress made this session in the area of need-based aid to students attending postsecondary educational institutions, Nebraska still ranks quite low in the support given to needy students. Legislative Bill 777, Ninety-eighth Legislature, First Session, 2003, was introduced to present a unique approach to identify needy students earlier in their academic careers and to assure them support to attend postsecondary educational institutions. An interim study should be conducted to examine the feasibility of enacting such a measure.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Education Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 187. Introduced by Quandahl, 31.

PURPOSE: There exist Nebraska health provider networks that are owned by certain health providers. These networks are not insurers in that they do not accept final responsibility for payment of claims. They do maintain a list of eligible providers which can be accessed by insurers and self-insurers and allow provider discounts to those responsible for payment. They are a part of the claims process and determine which providers will be eligible to provide services through the network.

The purpose of this study is to examine to what extent such networks are regulated and whether the Department of Insurance should be authorized to regulate such networks to the same extent as insurers. Specific attention should be given to the practices of such networks with respect to prompt payment of claims and determination of which providers may become eligible to provide service through the networks.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Banking, Commerce and Insurance Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.

SUBJECT: Federal Rural Economic Development Loan And Grant Program; Constitutionality Of Participation In The Grant Portion Of That Program By Public Power Districts Under Art. XIII, § 3 Of The Nebraska Constitution.

REQUESTED BY: Senator Jim Jones

Dale A. Comer, Assistant Attorney General

In our Op. Att'y Gen. No. 00042 (December 5, 2000), we considered the constitutionality of zero-interest loans by public power districts for rural economic development under the federal Rural Economic Development Loan and Grant Program ("REDLG"). That opinion, which was prepared at your request, concerned the application of art. XIII, § 3 of the Nebraska Constitution to the loans in question. We ultimately concluded that zero-interest loans by a Nebraska public power district for economic development purposes under the REDLG program would involve a violation of art. XIII, § 3.

You have now requested a second opinion from us regarding the REDLG program. In this instance, you are concerned about the grant portion of that program which was not the subject of your previous inquiry. We understand that, depending upon our response, you are considering introduction of corrective legislation or a constitutional amendment to allow Nebraska public power districts to participate in the grants.

The federal "cushion of credit payments program," set out at 7 U.S.C. § 40c and 7 CFR, Subpart B, §§ 1703.10 through 1703.68, is a federal program whereby Rural Electrification Act borrowers can obtain federal loans and grants for rural economic development purposes from the Rural Utilities Service ("RUS"). You describe the grant program in the following terms:

The grant is made to the PPD [public power district], which is required to contribute 20 percent of the amount of the grant to the fund, and the PPD sets up a revolving loan program to fund eligible economic development projects.

Unlike the zero-interest loans which were the subject of our earlier opinion, it does not appear that public power districts are required to pay back amounts provided to them under the REDLG grant program. However, public power districts which do receive REDLG grant funds must follow various RUS requirements and procedures in making loans under a grant.

We will quote extensively from our Opinion No. 00042, since it has direct application to the present question you have presented. In that opinion, we began with a general discussion of art. XIII, § 3:

Art XIII, § 3 of the Nebraska Constitution provides that "[t]he credit of the state shall never be given or loaned in aid of any individual, association, or corporation" The purpose of that section is to prevent the state or any of its political subdivisions from extending the state's credit to private enterprise. Callan v. Balka, 248 Neb. 469, 536 N.W.2d 47 (1995). "It is designed to prohibit the state from acting as a surety or guarantor of the debt of another." Haman v. Marsh, 237 Neb. 699, 718, 467 N.W.2d 836, 850 (1991). It applies to the State and all of its political subdivisions. State ex rel. Beck v. City of York, 164 Neb. 223, 82 N.W.2d 269 (1957).

The Nebraska Supreme Court has established a three-part test for determining whether an expenditure violates art. XIII, § 3 of the Nebraska Constitution. To establish a violation of that constitutional provision, it must be shown that (1) the credit of the state (2) is given or loaned (3) in aid of any individual, association, or corporation. Callan, 248 Neb. at 476, 536 N.W.2d at 51; Haman, 237 Neb. at 719, 467 N.W.2d at 850. In that context, there is a distinction between the loaning of state funds and the loaning of the state's credit. The loan of state funds places the state in the position of a creditor, and the loan of state's credit places the state in the position of debtor. Callan, 248 Neb. at 476, 536 N.W.2d at 51; Haman, 237 Neb. at 719, 720, 467 N.W.2d at 850. In addition, the prohibition against the pledge of the state's credit does not hinge upon whether the expenditure at issue achieves a "public purpose" when the pledge benefits a private individual, association or corporation. Haman, 237 Neb. at 722, 467 N.W.2d at 852. Instead, the key focus of art. XIII, § 3 is whether the state stands as a creditor through the expenditure of its funds, or as a debtor by the extension of credit in the interest of private parties. Callan, 248 Neb. at 479, 536 N.W.2d at 53; Haman, 237 Neb. at 722, 718, 467 N.W.2d at 852. (1991).

Op. Att'y Gen. No. 00042 (December 5, 2000) at 3. We then discussed application of the credit of the state aspect of art. XIII, § 3 to the zero-interest loan program at issue in that opinion:

In the present instance, we understand that the focus of your inquiry is the REDLG "pass-through" loan program, whereby the Rural Utilities Service of USDA (RUS) would make a zero-interest loan to a public power district in Nebraska for rural economic development purposes. That power district would then, in turn, make a zero-interest loan of the funds from RUS to another entity that would ultimately own or undertake a private development project using the proceeds of the loan. Under such a scenario, RUS could require the public power district, as borrower, to provide it with an irrevocable letter of credit or other guarantee satisfactory to RUS that the loan would be repaid. 7 CFR, Subpart B, § 1703.29 (d). With respect to your first question to us, you wish to know, in essence, if removing the letter of credit requirement or other guarantee by the power district from the zero-interest loan process would cure any potential problems with that process under art. XIII, § 3. For the reasons discussed below, we do not believe that removing the letter of credit requirement would bring about the cure which you seek.

As noted above, the initial element of the test for a proposal under art XIII, § 3 requires a determination as to whether the proposal involves lending the credit of the state. In regard to that determination, the key issue is whether the state or the governmental subdivision involved stands as a creditor in the process through the expenditure of its funds, or as a debtor in the process by the extension of credit in the interest of private parties. One aspect of the REDLG pass-through loan program would involve a loan from a public power district to another entity that would ultimately own or undertake a private development project using the proceeds of that loan. The power district would stand as a creditor in that transaction, since it would loan funds to the private entity. As a result, that portion of the program does not appear to involve lending the credit of the state.

On the other hand, the pass-through loan program, as outlined in your initial question, requires the public power district to borrow funds from RUS in order to loan those funds to the private entity. That loan from RUS to the power district would necessitate a letter of agreement and any additional legal documentation from the power district which RUS deemed appropriate, including loan agreements, promissory notes, security instruments, certifications or legal opinions. 7 CFR, Subpart B, § 1703.59 (a). In addition, the repayment terms of the loan from RUS to the public power district would have to equal the terms of the loan from the power district to the private borrower, and the power district would be required to make payments on the zero-interest loan in accordance with the legal documents executed by the power district. 7 CFR, Subpart B, §§ 1703.29 (a) and 1703.61 (a). Presumably, the power district would also have to pay back its zero interest loan to RUS even if the private pass-through borrower defaulted in its duty to make payments to the power district.

It appears to us that the second aspect of the pass-through loan program, where the public power district borrows money from RUS and then must repay that loan, implicates the credit of the state. In that latter situation, the power district stands as a debtor through the extension of its credit, rather than as a creditor through the loan of public funds. Consequently, the pass-through loan portion of the REDLG program meets the first element of an unconstitutional extension of credit under art. XIII, § 3.

Op. Att'y Gen. No. 00042 (December 5, 2000) at 3-5.

In the present instance, we understand that a public power district which participates in the REDLG grant program does not borrow the funds which it uses for zero-interest loans from RUS, and that it has no obligation to repay those monies to RUS. Instead, the public power district receives grant monies from RUS which it uses, along with its own monies, to fund loans to borrowers for economic development purposes in accordance with the applicable federal regulations. Under those circumstances, it seems to us that the public power district would not stand as a debtor to RUS, and participation in the REDLG grant program would not involve lending the credit of the state under art. XIII, § 3. For that reason, we believe that participation in the REDLG grant program is permissible for a public power district under that constitutional provision.

In your opinion request letter, you also ask us to address any other issues regarding public power districts and the REDLG grant program presented by the materials you provided to us. In that regard, you gave us a copy of an opinion prepared by private counsel concerning public power district participation in the REDLG grant program. That opinion discusses the issue of whether public power districts in Nebraska currently have authority to use district monies to contribute 20% of the loan amount to borrowers under a REDLG grant.

We have reviewed the opinion prepared by private counsel which you provided to us, and we agree with the analysis stated therein. In essence, that opinion indicates that public power districts in Nebraska do have implied authority under the applicable statutes and cases to use district monies to contribute 20% of the funding for loans made under the REDLG grant program. However, that the authority for public power districts to contribute their own monies for REDLG loans is implied under the existing statutes, and you may wish to consider additional legislation to explicitly give public power districts such authority if you feel that such legislation is warranted.

JON BRUNING

15 be distributed pursuant to the Uniform Disposition of Unclaimed
16 Property Act and no amounts may be applied to increase the benefits 17 any member would otherwise receive under the Judges Retirement Act.

18 Sec. 3. Section 24-721, Reissue Revised Statutes of 19 Nebraska, is amended to read:

20 24-721. Any citizen of the State of Nebraska shall have 21 the right at all times to complain to the Commission on Judicial 22 Qualifications with reference to the acts, activities, or 23 qualifications of any Justice or judge of the Supreme Court or 24 judge of any of the courts of the State of Nebraska or to request 25 that the commission consider the qualifications of any Justice or 8 prehearing proceedings with the person or persons filing the 9 complaint or request, or with his or her or their agents or 10 attorneys; and to hold confidential prehearing proceedings with the 11 judge or Justice involved in the complaint or request. If the 12 commission finds probable cause for the existence of any of the 13 grounds for disciplinary action or retirement specified in section 14 24-722, it shall privately reprimand the Justice or judge or order 15 a formal open hearing to be held before it concerning the 16 reprimand, discipline, censure, suspension, removal, or retirement 17 of such Justice or judge. A judge who receives official notice of 18 a complaint or request pursuant to this section shall not be 19 allowed to retire pursuant to the Judges Retirement Act until the 20 matter is resolved by the commission or the Supreme Court, if the 21 commission recommends action by the court. If a hearing is 22 ordered, the commission shall advise the judge or Justice involved, 23 in writing, of the specific charges which have been made and 24 supported, substantiated, or revealed by the independent 25 investigation of the commission. The judge or Justice shall be 26 given reasonable time in which to formally answer such charges in 27 writing and the matter shall then be set for formal open hearing, 1 at which time the commission shall cause the testimony and the 2 documentary evidence relating to the charges to be produced and 3 recorded in such manner as the commission shall determine to be 4 advisable, giving the judge or Justice involved and his or her 5 attorney a full opportunity to question and cross-examine the 6 witnesses and evidence so produced. The judge or Justice shall 7 have an opportunity to produce at such hearing, testimony, 8 evidence, and documents relating to the charges involved;

15 other evidence when required to do so in any hearing held before 16 the Commission on Judicial Qualifications or before a special 17 master or masters appointed under the provisions of this section 18 for the reason that the testimony or evidence required of him or 19 her may tend to incriminate him or her or subject him or her to a 20 forfeiture or penalty, he or she may nevertheless be compelled to 21 testify or produce such evidence by order of the Commission on 22 Judicial Qualifications or special master or masters on motion of 23 counsel to the commission. No person who testifies or produces 24 evidence in obedience to the command of the commission or special 25 master or masters in such case shall be liable to any forfeiture or 26 penalty for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing 27 concerning or arising from that as to which he or she may so

1 testify or produce evidence, nor shall such testimony or evidence 2 be used directly or indirectly in any proceedings against him or 3 her, except that no person shall be exempt from prosecution and 4 punishment for perjury or contempt committed in so testifying. The 5 requirement to testify or produce evidence shall not apply when 6 such person proves the real and substantial danger of a prosecution 7 against him or her in another jurisdiction based on the admissions
8 to be made by him or her in this state. The commission or special 9 master or masters shall have power to punish for contempt for any 10 action specified in section 25-2121. If, after formal open 11 hearing, or after considering the record and report of the masters, 12 the commission finds that the charges are established by clear and 13 convincing evidence, it shall recommend to the Supreme Court that 14 the Justice or judge of the Supreme Court or other judge involved 15 shall be reprimanded, disciplined, censured, suspended without pay 16 for a definite period of time not to exceed six months, removed, or 17 retired as the case may be. All hearings before the commission and 18 all proceedings before masters and before the Supreme Court shall 19 be conducted in accordance with rules promulgated or to be 20 promulgated by the Supreme Court."

21 2. On page 1, strike beginning with "Judges" in line 1 22 through line 4 and insert "judges; to amend section 24-721, Reissue

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, and Members of the Legislature
State Capitol
Lincoln, Nebraska 68509

Dear Mr. President and Members of the Legislature:

With this letter, I am returning LB 407 without my signature and with my objections.

We disagree on the philosophical premise from which to frame state spending over the next two fiscal years. Over four and one-half months ago, I delivered a proposal for the 2003-2005 budget biennium for your consideration. These recommendations were based upon five principles:

- 1) that the State budget must reflect economic reality;
- 2) that spending reductions must be the major part of the budget solution-not tax increases;
- 3) that overall structural balance had to be accomplished so that spending will not forever outpace our citizens' ability to pay for their government;
- 4) that we first meet our core responsibilities for safe communities, ensuring care for our most vulnerable citizens, and the health and safety of our children; and
- 5) that the State cash reserve fund be protected and increased because of continued economic uncertainty and as a contingency against the possibility of an adverse opinion in the low-level radioactive waste site litigation.

I acknowledged that the recommendations presented for your consideration represented stout fiscal medicine and that difficult choices to reduce spending could not be avoided. My overall budget recommendations reduced the budget by 2.9 percent for fiscal year 2004 and maintained a no-growth budget for the budget biennium.

Legislative Bill 407 and certain other budget-related legislation you have presented to me are in conflict with the basis of my original budget recommendations and my continuing position about the size of state spending that can be afforded by the citizens of Nebraska during these difficult economic times. LB 407 does not reduce the state budget. According to your own general fund financial status, spending will grow by over 1% for fiscal year 2004 and by over 2.4% for the budget biennium. This spending increase is financed by sales taxes, income taxes, excise taxes, and the taxation of additional services.

Furthermore, safe communities have been, and continue to be, a priority in my administration. As you know, I take great exception with your decision to eliminate $7.3 million dollars necessary to incarcerate convicted felons – a reduction that you intend be accomplished by closing the Lincoln Correctional Center and releasing inmates into our communities.

Additionally, I urged you to protect and increase our Cash Reserve Fund because of continued economic uncertainties and a possible adverse opinion in our low-level radioactive waste litigation. You used monies from this fund to balance your spending plan.

Legislative Bill 407 and the other budget-related legislation you presented to me conflicts with the policy principles that I asked you to consider. The legislation represents spending in excess of that which can be afforded by Nebraskans during these difficult economic times.

For these reasons, I urge you to sustain my veto of Legislative Bill 407.

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, and Members of the Legislature
Lincoln, Nebraska 68509

Dear Mr. President and Members of the Legislature:

With this letter, I am returning LB 540 without my signature and with my objections.

I appreciate the difficult decision that the Legislature has made to address our State's current budget shortfall by including a reduction in public school aid and community college aid funding for the next two fiscal years. I cannot, however, support the provisions of the bill that raise the maximum allowable levy from $1.00 to $1.05 without a vote of the people. I firmly believe that Nebraskans are asking for greater spending restraint at all levels of government. That is not the approach taken by this legislation. Rather, if the full authority granted by LB 540 were exercised by schools and community colleges, property taxes levied statewide in the next fiscal year, alone, could be increased by $63 million dollars.

LB 540 provides a two-year approach to the direction that our State is heading with respect to our school aid formula. The bill fails to address the anticipated growth that the current formula will generate in the out-biennium and into the future. I believe that, collectively, we need to address this critical spending issue.

For these reasons, I urge you to sustain my veto of LB 540.

Sincerely,

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, and Members of the Legislature
Lincoln, Nebraska 68509

Dear Mr. President and Members of the Legislature:

I am returning LB 759 and LB 759A without my signature and with my objections.

LB 759 makes the cigarette, income and sales tax rate increases approved in the last legislative session permanent, expands the sales tax base, increases the alcohol tax, and makes other tax changes. Collectively, the tax increases proposed in the bill have been characterized as only being intended to "fill-in the gap" between the proposed General Fund appropriations for the biennium and existing, available revenue. This approach to taxation appears to be driven by the needs of government spending rather than by a long-term policy perspective.

Once again, the Legislature is balancing the State's budget by asking Nebraskans to pay more taxes from their already limited resources. Annualized over the next four calendar years, these tax increases reflect a nearly $1 billion dollar drain on Nebraskans' wallets. This increased tax burden makes it more expensive for our small businesses to operate, for our families to thrive, and for our retirees to live on their fixed incomes.

As proposed in LB 759, these taxes are permanent increases. Even still, the receipts that these taxes will bring us provide only a short-term solution. The General Fund Financial Status, calculated by your fiscal office, already anticipates annual spending growth to be 9.9% in FY2005-06 and 7.5% in FY2006-07. This nearly double-digit projected growth in state spending coupled with tax revenues that are forecasted to increase – even under the rosiest of scenarios – by only 5.5% - 7% per year continue to take Nebraska down an unfortunate path of unsustainable spending growth and uncertain fiscal stability.

I urge you to sustain my vetoes of LB 759 and LB 759A.

Sincerely,
