FLOOR DEBATE

February 27, 2003 LR 14

It turns into that for not everybody. A lot of people it's a recreation, and so be it. That's fine. Like I told you, you know, I'm not totally against gambling, because I'm Catholic. We've had bingo for years. But I think that's a much, much smaller scale of gambling. But the thing is, I am totally against this bill. I'm also against the other one. And now I would turn any excess time I have over to Senator Brashear, if he would like to use it. Senator Brashear declines, so I turn the time back to the Chair. Thank you.

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Beutler?

SENATOR BEUTLER: (Microphone malfunction) I yield my time to Senator Schimek.

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Schimek, Senator Beutler has yielded time to you. Do you care to use it?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Well, Mr. Speaker, it depends on whether I can use it to talk about the bill or the amendment. And I think that we have a couple of precedents here. (Laugh) Were you going to go back to Senator Vrtiska and Senator Redfield?

SPEAKER BROMM: Depending on what time of day it is, yes. No, we will. In all fairness, I'll do that I think very soon, if we're not going to address the amendment.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Okay. I really don't have anything more to say about the amendment, except that if you look at it carefully, there are a couple of typos in it that need to be called to your attention. And this bill came down really fast. We asked the people upstairs to do it very quickly yesterday morning. And instead of "change" it should say "chance," and instead of "play-activated" it should be "player-activated," and that can be taken care of, I think, once the amendment is adopted. I didn't want to ask them to redraft it at that point. I would like to talk about some of the things that have been raised on this floor with regard to Indian gaming. And I'm missing one of my notebooks here, I think. I'm sorry, but I'll just be a minute. Several questions have been raised about how compacting works, and about Class III gaming. And I would like
