Any Fiscal Notes received from state agencies and political subdivisions are attached following the Legislative Fiscal Analyst Estimate.

LB1148 would explicitly authorize the Motor Vehicle Industry Licensing Board (MVILB) to employ a hearing officer. The bill also prescribes duties a hearing officer may assume.

The MVILB indicates their intent to have parties of a hearing cover the costs of any hearing. In the event the MVILB does cover the cost of the hearing officer, it is estimated expenditures would be between $5,000 and $12,500 per hearing instance with 1-2 hearings occurring per fiscal year. It is anticipated the MVILB is able to accommodate these potential expenses within existing resources.

Explanation of Estimate:

The Board intends for the parties to cover the costs of a hearing officer so there would not be any fiscal impact to the Agency. The Board could choose to cover the costs of a hearing officer at an estimated cost between $5,000 and $12,500 depending on the extensiveness of a particular hearing process. I would estimate an average of one or two hearings per year but would not anticipate utilizing a hearing officer during FY 2022-23.
