Summary of purpose and/or changes:

LB162 would create a new Class IV felony for removing or tampering with an electronic monitoring device required to be worn pursuant to a court order or as a condition of parole.

Explanation of amendments:

AM3249 would replace the original bill.

The offense would be restated to prohibit knowingly and intentionally removing or damaging an electronic monitoring device that is required pursuant to an order from a county court, district court, the Department of Correctional Services, or the Board of Parole. A violation of the offense would be punishable as a Class I misdemeanor.
