This bill would change provisions applicable to attorney licensure requirements.

The Supreme Court states the fiscal impact of this bill is not determinable at this time and their response follows:

LB 644 authorizes the Supreme Court to collect fees to regulate the practice of law. It is assumed that the Supreme Court would track admissions to the Bar, a function currently conducted by the Nebraska State Bar Association, and fees would be deposited in a cash fund created for regulating the profession and funding the Nebraska State Bar Commission. At this time, no estimate has been made of any increase in revenue and expenditures.
