LB 774 is the First Freedom Act.

Section 2 provides definitions for the Act.

Section 3 prohibits state action from substantially burdening a person’s right to the exercise of religion unless it is demonstrated that applying the burden to the person is essential to further a compelling governmental interest and is the least restrictive means for furthering that compelling governmental interest. In addition, state action shall not restrict a religious organization from operating or engaging in religious services during a state of emergency to a greater extent than it restricts non-religious organizations or businesses.

Section 4 allows persons whose exercise of religion or religious service has been burdened or restricted to bring a civil action or assert such violation as a defense in a judicial or administrative proceeding.

No fiscal impact.
