16           (2) Any bank doing business in this state may, by a brief written 17 notice at, on, or near its front door, fully dispense with or restrict, 18 to such extent as it may determine, the hours within which it will be 19 open for business.

20           (3) Any bank may close on Saturday if it states such fact by a brief 21 written notice at, on, or near its front door. When such bank will, in 22 observance of such a notice, not be open for general business, such day 23 shall, with respect to the particular bank, be the equivalent of a 24 holiday as fully as if such day were listed in subsection (1) of this 25 section, and any act authorized, required, or permitted to be performed 26 at, by, or with respect to such bank which will, in observance of such 27 notice, not be open for general business, acting in its own behalf or in

29 day and no liability or loss of rights on the part of any person shall 30 result from such delay.

1 this section, has created the holiday for such bank may, without 2 destroying the legal effect of the holiday for it and solely for the 3 convenience of its customers, remain open all or part of such day in a 4 limited fashion by treating every transaction with its customers on such 5 day as though the transaction had taken place immediately upon the 6 opening of such bank on the first following business day.

7 (5) Whenever the word bank is used in this section it includes 8 building and loan association, savings and loan association, credit 9 union, savings bank, trust company, investment company, and any other 10 type of financial institution.

11 Sec. 3. Original sections 25-2221 and 62-301, Revised Statutes
12 Cumulative Supplement, 2020, are repealed.
