The following constitutes the reasons for this bill and the purposes which are sought to be accomplished thereby:

Current law provides that if a person fails to pay a fine and court costs for a traffic infraction, their operator's license can be suspended. Once a person satisfies the fines and court costs, the person can apply to have their license reinstated but must pay a reinstatement fee of $50. Legislative Bill 822 would waive the reinstatement fee so that people can have their operator's license more readily reinstated after payment of fines and court costs.
