ARCH: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen. Welcome to the George W. Norris Legislative Chamber for the tenth day of the One Hundred Eighth Legislature, First Session. Our chaplain for today is Senator Bostelman. Please rise.

BOSTELMAN: Please join me in prayer. Almighty God, you have given us this good land as our heritage and allow us to prosper under a form of government which has brought great benefit to many. Give us thankful hearts to remember your generosity and strength, our, our desire to do what which contributes to common good of the people of the state. Bless our land with productive agriculture, honest industry, fruitful labor, truthful education, and an honorable way of life. Save us from irreconcilable division, violent discord and selfish pride. Support us in defending our liberties and formulating just and equitable laws and in carrying out the responsibilities of the offices entrusted to us. Give to the members of this legislative body a spirit of wisdom, mutual respect and collaboration that the proper and necessary work of government be advanced and justice and peace reign in our land through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

ARCH: I recognize Senator DeBoer for the Pledge of Allegiance. Senator Lowe.

ARCH: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Next item on the agenda.

CLERK: Next item, Mr. President. Senator Hurt would move to withdraw LB86 pursuant to Rule 5, Section 12.

ARCH: Senator Hunt, you are recognized.

HUNT: Thank you, Mr. President. Good morning, colleagues. Good morning, Nebraskans watching. I would like to withdraw LB86. It's a bill that deals with minimum wage. It's a bill that I've been working on with, with stakeholders for over a year. And the truth is that we just aren't there. You know, the stakeholders and I aren't in agreement on the best way to move forward with this issue, and we have to just keep working on it. There have been many times over the four years that I've been here where I've withdrawn bills. My very first year in 2019, one of the first bills I introduced was, I don't even want to say this on the record, it's so embarrassing, I can't believe I did it. I introduced a bill to tax piercings and tattoos and tanning services to, to raise revenue for something. I thought I had this great idea and obviously, like the backlash from people was huge. People were posting on Facebook and social media and calling my office and emailing and talking about what a bad idea it was. It took about one minute to completely convince me that it was not a good idea to do the bill, and I withdrew it with help from the Clerk and help from the

Speaker at the time. And at the time I thought it was a really embarrassing thing to withdraw a bill and I was embarrassed to have introduced the bill and I was embarrassed to withdraw it. And, you know, I've withdrawn bills many, many times since then and it's no big deal. So I say this to model, but also send an explicit message to new senators that if you have a bill that's not ready, if you have a bill that doesn't have consensus, if you have a bill that somebody asked you to introduce, and now you're kind of having second thoughts about it. And I know many of you do, because many of you have personally spoken to me about it. And I'm speaking to some people right now who know who they are, who I don't have to say who they are. But if you would like to withdraw a bill, that's a fine thing to do. And there's a couple other motions on the agenda today to withdraw bills. I also wanted to speak briefly. I wanted to let the moment speak a little bit here about the sine die motion that we had yesterday. Several colleagues asked me why I supported the sine die motion. Many people contacted my office in different ways through different channels to ask the same thing and let me tell you about the context in the Chamber here when, when that motion was made. There was nobody here, maybe four people. Everybody who was here would have supported the motion. And this was coming on the heels of the introduction of several bills that would deeply cut into the civil rights of Nebraskans. I think that something like a motion to adjourn the Legislature is appropriate when we want to send a message to our colleagues that there are procedural motions and things that we can do to hold things up, to just start over. And honestly, I don't even think it would have been a big deal to me if we had adjourned sine die because then you can just get your Governor to call us back in. And that's exactly what would have happened. But when it's an appropriate and valid response to the undercutting, slowly over the years of the rights of Nebraskans. We had an abortion ban introduced yesterday that Nebraskans are going to be very activated around because the majority of Nebraskans do not support an abortion ban. The majority of Nebraskans are not asking us to come down to the Legislature and work on things like that. We had two anti-trans bills introduced yesterday that are cutting into the rights of children and families and sending a message to kids across the state of intolerance and hostility. Before that, we had an anti-drag bill introduced by Senator Murman, which is ridiculous. The way his bill is worded, it would make it illegal for, like a high school theater performance for a girl to play the role of a boy, then that under his bill would be considered a drag show and the school could be fined $10,000. The, the family could be fined $1,000 and it would be a misdemeanor offense. So in your haste to bring your, to be morality police for Nebraska basically when nobody is asking you to do this, you're really hurting yourselves. You're really hurting yourselves. All of this is a circus to divert attention from the financial rip offs that are happening in this state. We have a punch bowl of money from ARPA funds, from federal dollars that everybody wants a piece of. And the people introducing these divisive culture war, fake problem bills don't realize how they're being used by the Wizards behind the curtain to make all these financial rip offs happen. What I want to say on the record before I wrap up here is that trans people are people. And for trans children, life can be overwhelming and lonely and difficult to live. And their parents and families are continually worried about their children and their happiness. For trans youth who do have affirming parents, sometimes that is the lifeline for them that keeps them literally alive. And we are in the Legislature trying to take that away from them. This body should do nothing to contribute to the obstacles and the discrimination that trans people and their families face, especially when this is a made up, fake, culture war toxic issue that's being brought to you by people who are trying to create distractions from the actual, you know, tax and economic rip offs that they're trying to do in this body. So don't let yourself be used for things like that, colleagues. When there is a bill that cuts into the civil rights of Nebraskans, there are tools in the toolbox that we have to use to address that. And I promise trans families in Nebraska, the people who care about them, that that's exactly what we're going to do. And there is plenty of time to withdraw bills that you no longer can support. I would ask for the body's green vote on my motion to withdraw LB86. It still needs some work. It doesn't have the support of all the stakeholders that I need to be at the table. And with that, I'll ask for your green vote. Thank you.

ARCH: Thank you, Senator Hunt. Senator, Senator Machaela Cavanaugh, you are recognized.

M. CAVANAUGH: Thank you, Mr. President. Good morning, colleagues. Good morning, Nebraska. I just wanted to rise in support of Senator Hunt's motion to withdraw and also to say to our LGBTQ plus individuals in the state of Nebraska that you are loved, especially to our trans youth in Nebraska, that you are loved. You are valued, you are important, you matter. You may not always feel that way. There may be people in this Legislature that work to make you not feel that way. But there are several people in this Legislature that care about you, about who you are, and are here to defend your rights and you are loved. Thank you, Mr. President. I yield the remainder of my time.

An announcement: Referencing will meet upon adjournment in Room 1525; Referencing, adjournment, 1525. Finally, Mr. President, an adjournment motion. Senator Brandt moved to adjourn the body until Thursday, January 19, 2023.

ARCH: You've heard the motion.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Brandt would move to adjourn the body until Thursday, January 19 at 9:00 a.m. or at the call of the Speaker.

ARCH: Colleagues, the motion was to adjourn until 9:00 a.m. or at the call of the Speaker. The reason that is on the end of that, that phrase of the call of the Speaker is, not sure exactly what the weather's going to look like tomorrow morning. If we need to postpone, I would have the authority to do that with this motion and to just to make sure that we have a quorum present. You've heard the motion. All those in favor say aye. Opposed, same sign. Motion carries. We are adjourned.
