KELLY: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen. Welcome to the George W. Norris Legislative Chamber for the second day of the One Hundred Eightieth [SIC] Legislature, Second Session. Our chaplain today is Pastor Tevin Eddy from the Berean Bible Church, Hastings, Nebraska, in Senator Halloran's district. Please raise.

PASTOR EDDY: Would you pray with me? Heavenly Father, thank you for-- God, thank you for showing up in the world that you created. And we're so grateful, God, that we get an opportunity like this to come together and work through a legislative process. God, I, I pray that your spirit would be in this place, and you would give wisdom and clarity and unity to the proceedings, God. Lord, I, I pray for each of these men and women outside of work as well, that you would protect them and keep their families safe and help them to grow. And, God, we just ask that in your world you are honored and you are on display. Jesus, thank you for coming to this earth to die for our sins. We love you. Teach us more and more how we can love you, God, and love the people around us. Bind us together in unity. It's in the name of your son, Jesus, I pray. Amen.

KELLY: Thank you. I recognize Senator Albrecht for the Pledge of Allegiance.

ALBRECHT: Please join me in the pledge. I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

KELLY: Thank you. I call to order the second day of the One Hundred Eightieth [SIC] Legislature, Second Session. Senators, please record your presence. Roll call. Mr. Clerk, please record.

CLERK: There's a quorum present, Mr. President.

KELLY: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Are there any corrections for the Journal?

CLERK: There is one, Mr. President. On page 154, line 22, strike "Erin" and insert "Eric." It's the only correction I have, Mr. President.

KELLY: Are there any messages, reports or announcements?

CLERK: There are, Mr. President. The 2023 interim report on the disposition of interim study resolutions has been filed. Additionally, Senator Lippincott has prioritized LB600 as his personal priority bill. That's all I have this time.

KELLY: Senator Erdman, you're recognized for an announcement.

ERDMAN: Thank you, Mr. President, and good morning. Good news, bad news. The good news is this is my last year, and the bad news is this is my last year. So today is Day 2 already. I appreciate that. You have seen the notice about turning in rule changes. If you're going to submit rule changes they need to be in by noon today, by adjournment today. And so I want to update you. Yesterday, we dropped in 29 rule changes. Those are the ones introduced so far. Currently, you can find those rule changes on the Nebraska website, Nebraska legislative website. It's a second link in the middle of the page following the recent legislative information. You can see those rules that have been submitted. This link will allow you to make comments about the rules and also make sure that you get your rule changes in by today. We will have a Rules Committee hearing on Monday, January 8 at 1:30 p.m. and so we'll be scheduling that. So for information for those who are in the public listening today, there will be a hearing on January 8 at 1:30. I was asked this morning, will we have a 10-hour rules hearing like we did last year? The answer is we will not. So we're going to figure out how to make this a streamlined process that we're not there till midnight. But I encourage you, if you have rule changes that you'd like us to consider and get those in and we'll listen to those on Monday and then it is probably going to be on Tuesday morning we'll have an Executive Session on the Rules Committee to decide which ones come to the floor. If you have any questions, please stop by and ask me or send me an email and we'll try to discuss and talk to you about how to get the rules submitted in a way that they're going to be appropriate for us to hear. And please tell all your constituents or anybody interested in the rules hearing it'll be Monday. Thank you very much.
