Summary of purpose and/or changes:

LB 404 Amends section 29-2263 to add new language authorizing the court to extend a term of probation upon joint application of the probation officer and the probationer.

Explanation of amendments:

AM 372 adds a new subsection authorizing the court to waive payment of probation and programming fees described in subdivisions 2(m) and (o) of section 29-2262, in whole or in part if the offender has been previously found to be indigent in the case for which he or she is placed on probation.

AM 372 also adds a new subsection that provides when a motion or information to revoke probation is filed, the probation term may be extended at the joint request of the probationer and prosecutor until final resolution of the motion or until the expiration of the statutorily defined maximum period of probation for the offense for which the probationer has been placed on probation.
