LB 193 amends statute related to the Committee on Pacific Conflict. It expands the number of legislative members on the committee from four to five members.

This bill will have a fiscal impact in that it will add a member of the legislature to the committee, and they will be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred. The Legislative Council estimates $3000 in each fiscal year and there is no basis to disagree with this estimate.

Explanation of Estimate:

LB193 would designate five (5) members of the Legislature be appointed to the Committee on Pacific Conflict. The committee would be meeting no less than once every three months. The expenses incurred would be for travel. These expenses would depend on which Senators were on the committee and how much travel they required. The expenditures listed above are merely an estimate of the Senator's travel for each fiscal year
