

January 8, 1973

SPEAKER: Senator Proud.

SENATOR PROUD: Senator Duis I wrote that motion out just a few minutes ago very carefully, and I left it to the discretion of the presiding officer as to what is a dignitary and of course I'll give that more thought and we can discuss it at our meeting.

SPEAKER: Senator Duis.

SENATOR DUIS: I wanted to thank you Senator Proud because this might make a difference as to who the presiding officer is and I just wanted to check it, thank you.

SPEAKER: Senator Carpenter for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR CARPENTER: To further expand on the motion for the body.

SPEAKER: On the what sir?

SENATOR CARPENTER: To further expand on the rule that's going to be referred to the rules committee.

SPEAKER: Yes sir.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Mr. President, it seems to me that we ought to abandon all introductions from this floor while we are in session. I can realize some of the reasons for it, but many times the introduction interrupts what is many times, at least to a Senator who is speaking, who has some desire and interest in the bill, this is the only legislative body I know of, there may be others who permits that to be done in area in which they are in session. It really doesn't serve any good purpose, its a matter of recognition which I presume is desirable under certain conditions but to use promiscuously as it probably is and I've used it at times, I don't think we ought to permit it at all, and I'll appear before the Rules Committee at that particular time to see if I can amend the rule at that particular time to that definition.

SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes Senator Barnett. For what purpose do you rise Senator?

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President I rise for a point of personal question, how's that?
