SENATOR GOODRICH: Mr. President, and members of the body, in recent discussions in the meetings of the Executive Board, this thing has been hashed out both ways, and what the Executive Board wants to do, I understand it, and Senator Carpenter can correct me if I'm wrong, we want to get a temperature of this body, you either want the Executive Board to do what it's intended to do, handle the detail stuff, or you want us to submit everything to this body, personally why have an Executive Board if you want every minor detail item brought to this floor brought to this floor for a vote, there is no sense having an Executive Board if you have it that way. You're still going to have an opportunity to veto anything that the Executive Board does, I see no reason then, for taking up the time of this body, especially when we have limited sessions, to handle the detail work that you
