situation. It's going to make it a little more difficult to have a call of the Legislature. I know that at times the chair probably has a little problem because hands are raised for one reason or another and you don't know if it was for that particular reason and if I wanted the call pretty bad I might raise both of my hands. The President shakes his head, and I am sure he can tell which are my right and which are my left hand. Let me continue with it and please watch this. Read.
