

February 6, 1973

SENATOR WALDRON: I'd be happy to do that if we could get the Government Military Affairs Committee to agree, to agree to introduce the bill because I had my 10 bill limit already, otherwise, I was going to introduce it, but I could not, and so I thought this would be probably a preferable route, and if we adopt this amendment and the legislation desires to do so, we can always send the bill back for re-hearing which would accomplish the same thing, and I don't think there is any hurry on Senator Stromer's part as long as this bill is passed sometime this year, but I see the Chairman of Government Military Affairs is not here, I was going to ask him if he would consider, oh, he is here, I'd ask him if he would consider introducing

(End of Belt #6)