

February 7, 1973

(Start of Belt #13)

what I think the bill does, it allows not to only invest the cash as you say you want to do but it allows them to invest other things and to circumvent the investment board in the purpose it was originally put into law for. I hope I'm wrong but I don't want you to move the bill over so that it takes 25 votes to do anything with it and I don't think you want to do that either.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Alright. Now that I know what..I'm convinced I know what you want, what you're saying, in essence, I will withdraw my motion to advance the bill and I will ask unanimous consent to hold the bill until tomorrow, on General File till tomorrow.

SPEAKER: Motion is to bracket the bill on General File until tomorrow. Are there objections? Senator Duis, do you object? There are none. So ordered. The bill is bracketed. Do we have other business on the desk?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Duis has an announcement.

SPEAKER: Senator Duis.

SENATOR DUIS: That's what I wanted to do, not object.

SPEAKER: Fine.

SENATOR DUIS: Mr. President, I want to call the attention of the Rules Committee meeting at 1:00 this afternoon to consider Rules that were brought forth by, and if these folks will pay attention to, Senator Maresh, Senator Carpenter and Senator Luedtke. Your Rules will come up around 1:00 this afternoon. Your Rule changes, if you desire to be there, we'd appreciate having you there. If you are not there, we will take them up anyway and forever hold our peace. Thank you.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Stromer asks to be excused for the remainder of today, Thursday, and Friday.

SPEAKER: Are there objections? There are none. So ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President, a new Rule. Read.

SPEAKER: It will be referred to the Rules Committee.

CLERK: Read.

SPEAKER: So ordered. That was a motion.

CLERK: Yes, asking unanimous consent.

SPEAKER: Are there..is there any objection to having the Attorney General's opinion printed in the Journal. There are none. So ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President, we have an Attorney General's opinion from the Attorney General addressed to Senator Burbach. Read.

SPEAKER: Thank you.

CLERK: Another opinion from the Attorney General under the date of February 7 addressed to Senator DeCamp. Read. Mr. President, notice of Committee Hearings. Read. I have nothing further except a motion to adjourn.

SPEAKER: Senator Proud, do you have any business to come before the body.

SENATOR PROUD: Yes, I move we adjourn until 9:00 A.M tomorrow.

SPEAKER: You have heard the motion. Any support. Any other
