bills on, that would come up the next day, on the day I made the motion, but I would suggest to the body some danger in doing this, and that is those bills are, on final reading are set for a hearing on a day certain, and so some Senators who have to, have to be gone by necessity, on any particular day or have they choice of being absent on a day or so, may gage when they are going to be absent on when a bill comes up for final reading. Now somebody that might want to vote and be recorded as votin<sup>g</sup> tomorrow and is planning to be here, particularly for that purpose takes the day off, so I'm not sure that we gain anything and perhaps lose when we do this, we only have so much time down here anyway and it almost seems to me that we should probably follow our rules in this respect, but certainly that is open to comment.

SPEAKER: Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I ask unanimous consent to withdraw the motion.
