

February 20, 1973

CLERK: Motion read.

SPEAKER: Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Mr. President, the Governor because of the law has to do something with the bill not later than tomorrow. The bill in one part is in error, because it was supposed to be in effect in 1973. The introducer I presume, figured that they would have the emergency clause whether they did or not. I don't how you would have put any other date in there except that
