

February 23, 1973

that right?

SPEAKER: Well, let him have the mike, there.

SENATOR DeCAMP: No, I didn't say that, but it's a good point. If you want to take the attitude that each board should make their own determination as to whether they want to be subject to the liability, then the word "may" is certainly safe enough and satisfactory enough, but then you have to be satisfied in your own minds here that most boards, or the majority, or all boards, are going to be aware of the risk and take the proper action. I think at the present time that there are very, very few boards, whether it's a weed board or a school board, are aware of the seriousness of this problem. Now, I've got to go back to what I said earlier. A year or two years ago, it didn't exist really because

(End of Belt #11)