

We don't know how many or what and yet we're making a decision here to do a specific thing with them which is kill them and I would think that it's a strong blow to the whole theory of the committee system and the committee hearing. The committee has to make these decisions and I think we should leave it there.

SPEAKER: Chair next recognizes Senator Anderson.

SENATOR ANDERSON: Mr. President and Members of the body. This kind of a conversation that we keep having day after day really concerns me because I feel myself, that I was elected to this body to do the very best job possible in whatever length of time it took and not to do the fastest job possible. For this quite simple reason, I have to oppose this motion.

SPEAKER: Now, is there any further discussion of the Carpenter motion? Do you all understand the motion? All right. We're going to have the Clerk read it again so we'll make sure that everybody understands it. The Clerk will read the motion please. Attention!

CLERK: Motion reread.

SPEAKER: Senator Carpenter, do you care to close on your motion?

SENATOR CARPENTER: I just want to call to the attention of this body that as long as we string this out and as long as we're permitted to do it, I don't care if they do it or not, we're not going to have a full day meeting in this body, only on bills, just mornings and only a small part of a morning and one of these days we're going up against that 90-day limitation and time goes by pretty fast and that thing is immovable. You'll comply with that whether you want to or not. The main thing I want to bring to your attention is that somewhere along the line, in order to get these bills passed, we have to meet in this chamber all day, every day that we're in session and as long as we have bills out, we'll find a reason why we can't do that. We never done it before. As long as hearing are there and we're not going to meet all day. Now if you want to take care of all these bills--what they say to you Senators--I read every bill, I may not know what is in it, but I spend anywhere from two, three
