it anyway. All these people find excuses not reasons, they really don't tell you the real reason why they are opposed to this bill, and they don't tell you that people who are opposed to this bill outside of this body, who are opposed to this bill for obvious reasons, but how can you say that the people shouldn't be alerted to what we are doing, how can you say that two or three men in the secrecy of their own company can set and write these laws and these bills and conduct public business. How can you say that, that's what they've said, they said the public are not concerned and they shouldn't have access to what we are doing. Just a few people of us will do these things, we'll take care of the public and the record showed we haven't taken care of the public, you can take alot of these bills and the public have no benefit at all, which doesn't stop us from doing it, and that again is a matter of opinion. All I'm saying this bill should not be defeated, and when you get to the vote I want a roll call vote.

SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes Senator Cavanaugh.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Mr. Chairman I have some question on this nonsocial, Senator DeCamp and Senator Carpenter both have defended it today, now I understand Senator Carpenter you would not oppose reinstating nonsocial.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I would, we struck it out for obvious reasons to give people no more excuse then they already have in order to kill this bill. Nonsocial meetings and social meetings, if you want to put it back in there -

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: My concern, what is the intent of striking nonsocial, is the intent to include social meetings?

SENATOR CARPENTER: No.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Well what is the intent to striking nonsocial?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Well I presume nonsocial meetings as outlined in the language that follows are nonsocial, which makes it all inclusive.
