

March 7, 1973

program. Now I think that ought to be clear, and I think we ought to do some study in mass transportation and I'll tell you if you talk to the Federal Government, you'll find out where the priorities are and the small intercity bus system in moderate size communities like Omaha, will be the lowest priority, will be the very lowest priority, Omaha is not going to compete with funds with New York

(End of Belt #4)