

March 8, 1973

SPEAKER: Senator Stull.

SENATOR STULL: (mike off)--is this; would that mean that the University could actually acquire Hiram Scott College with this amendment?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Acquire what?

SENATOR STULL: The Hiram Scott College?

SENATOR CARPENTER: It could.

SENATOR STULL: It could with this amendment?

SENATOR CARPENTER: If you gave them the money to operate it. That's not the purpose of it but it could.

SENATOR STULL: Well, thank you very much.

SENATOR CARPENTER: While we're talking--I'm glad the Senator brought it up. There has been a lot of controversy on Hiram Scott and it's my opinion it's brought about by a complete misunderstanding of what we intend to do. I am now in the process of having the University and others in a like position like the normal schools, in order to draft an amendment for 197, applying only the Hiram Scott--
