the abstract, so that you might have an examination of the title for your mortgage to be sure you are first, second, or where you are on it. So, I think this is already a function of this business without the necessity of any additional legislation.

SPEAKER: Senator Stahmer, your light has been on for quite a little while. Did you wish to be heard on this motion? All right. Then, we will move on to Senator Proud.

SENATOR PROUD: Mr. President, I just wish to say that this title business is a thing all into itself and there aren't too many people that understand it. It's a relative proposition. It is new in Nebraska and I don't thoroughly understand all the implications of the bill. I didn't vote the first time around. However, in this instance
