SENATOR SNYDER: Mr. President, members of the body, I'd like to speak on a point of personal privilege, going back to May 9, 1935, I'm reminded of this due to the excellence of the recently completed state basketball tournament that I would personally give my congratulations to, the victors including most especially Lincoln Northeast High School, but I've had an article here which I've shared with a few people and I thought it, noticeable enough that I would like to make mention of it for the record. Is Cal "Sweetwater" Carstens still in here, there he is. Sitting in a barber chair a while back, my barber is the great one for old articles. Thursday May 9, 1935, from the Omaha Bee News Sports, and it's got about a four column picture of Babe Ruth, as he entered his third decade of home run hitting, that got my attention, but my
