debate two places. One would be on General File. One would be on Select File. Occasionally, we even go so far as to have some debate on Final Reading which we are not suppose to do. Now, If anyone wants to debate these bills on all three places around here and 90 days is going to be a pretty short time to debate bills three times, they can certainly bring their clarification before the Rules Committee. Thank you.

SPEAKER: Senator Duis, the chair would observe, and I don't want to prolong this discussion either, but as a presiding officer I have found it difficult when something is not specifically mentioned in here that I, over the years, have, of course, assimilated, shall I say, what is generally accepted on the floor. For instance, there is not even a Rule at the present time, I don't believe, on closing debate and shutting off questions afterwards, but it has been an accepted practice in here, in this body, to allow questions after closing, but the problem is
