PRESIDENT: The bill is passed with the emergency clause stricken. That concludes final reading for the morning. We have visiting in the south balcony this morning 47 fourth grade students from Hawthorne school here in Lincoln. Their instructors are Mrs. Willis and Mrs. Grandstaff. They are from Senator Luedtke's district. Senator Luedtke maybe you would like to identify yourself to the group there so they know who their Senator is. Very good, he is down here in the corner. We are delighted to have you here today as visitors to the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature. We hope that you enjoy your visit and that you enjoy your visit to the state capital building. Alright, do we have Resolutions on the desk?

CLERK: None.

PRESIDENT: Do we have any bills for introduction?

CLERK: None.

PRESIDENT: We haven't any bills for consideration on Select File unless some are unbracketed. Do we have any motions to reconsider?

CLERK: None.

PRESIDENT: Are there any other pending motions?

CLERK: None to be taken up.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Is there any unfinished business?

CLERK: Read committee report.

PRESIDENT: Any other unfinished business on the desk?

CLERK: Read report of committee on committees. That is all Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: We are ready for the consideration of bills on General File. This morning it looks like the first one is
