

March 20, 1973

happen to be convinced it is. You say, OK, then, why don't you come up with a solution? I don't feel that I am any better prepared than the Attorney General of the United States who met with Mr. Meyer and did not come up with a solution. I personally feel the United States Supreme Court is going to have to come out with guidelines in subsequent cases before we can come up with a constitutional bill to assert the death penalty. I am not convinced this is the way and I will tell you why. The thing that concerns me about LB 268 is particularly the second trial

(End of Belt #5)