file. I believe the bill itself and the testimony that was given and the discussion we have had certainly merits your support and as I said before, I will, if you advance the bill, do some visiting with some juvenile judges and if we can improve the bill as we go along with it, I'm certainly willing to do it. Thank you very much sir.

PRESIDENT: Now the question is, shall L.B. 25 be advanced from general file to E&R initial. All those in favor vote aye. All those opposed vote no. You are voting on the advancement of L.B. 25 from general file. Have you all voted? Voting on the advancement of L.B. 25. Okay. Clerk will record. Just a minute. I'm sorry, Senator Epke.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 8 nays, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Okay. The bill is advanced.

CLERK: Mr. President, we have a--

PRESIDENT: Just a minute, before we advance to the business on the desk there, the Chair is pleased to introduce, seated in the South Balcony this morning, I think the 7th grade speech class, wasn't it, from Irving Junior High School and I spoke to them a while back and we're delighted to have them here this morning as visitors to the Unicameral Legislature. Their instructor is Miss Dischner, I think she's the student assistant and Mrs. Frost is up there and we're delighted to have you here today as visitors to the Nebraska Unicameral chambers. Now, we have some other business on the desk?

CLERK: Yes, Mr. President, we have a letter from the Governor (read). Unanimous consent asked.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections? Any objections. Hearing none, so ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President--

PRESIDENT: --wait, wait a minute. Senator Burbach, do you object? Okay, fine and dandy. Stand by just a minute. Do we have other business on the desk?

CLERK: Yes, Mr. President (read).

PRESIDENT: Now, Senator Burbach.

CLERK: We have a motion, Mr. President.

SENATOR BURBACH: We have, excuse me; we have a public hearing of the Revenue Committee this afternoon. It will be held in the East Senate Lounge rather than in this chamber here.

PRESIDENT: I, didn't catch your--it will be held in the East--

SENATOR BURBACH: --in the East Senate Lounge.

PRESIDENT: East Senate Lounge.

SENATOR BURBACH: And not in this chamber.

PRESIDENT: And not in this chamber.

SENATOR BURBACH: Right.

PRESIDENT: Revenue Committee hearing this afternoon in the East Senate Lounge, not in the main chamber here. All right, now, Senator Barnett did you have an announcement here? Any further information here?

SENATOR BARNETT: Just, Mr. President and fellow members of the body, we've passed out the cards for their files if they want to fill them out fine, if they don't, send them back to
