CLERK: Mr. President we have pending some rules changes which I understand would be properly considered.

PRESIDENT: Senator Duis, are you ready to handle the rules changes?

CLERK: Mr. President, these rules changes are found on page 334 of the Legislative Journal.

PRESIDENT: Chair recognizes Senator Duis.

SENATOR DUIS: Mr. President and Members of the Legislature. Your Committee on Rules met and considered several rules and the following is a report and if it's alright with you, Mr. President, I'll take them one at a time and then we can vote on these rules changes. The first rule change is rule, was promoted by Senator Carpenter and it has to do, if you'll turn to your rule book please; Rule 5, Section 6, sub A, B and C. Now this rule change that we have recommended for adoption is the one that will have our fiscal analyst find the fiscal impact of legislative bills for other subdivisions of Government, for county and municipals. This--we visited with the fiscal analyst and he said that they could take care
