SENATOR CARPENTER: 10:00 o'clock.

SPEAKER: At 10:00 o'clock. Any discussion? Senator Dickinson?

SENATOR DICKINSON: How many people did we determine would be absent this, on Friday?

CLERK: We do not have any information on it. We have two excused but, obviously, no one else has--

SENATOR DICKINSON: It seems to me we're having about as much problem getting some way to get 25 votes up there on a Tuesday morning as we might have on a Friday morning. I'd like to remind the body that last Friday morning we accomplished more work than we probably had in the past three weeks and I think I would also--there has been many comments in discussing this issue of working on Friday or not about those Senators who have a long ways to drive and I think this is a fair consideration, however, I'd like to remind the body that we have some Senators that have moved their families to Lincoln who have young--
