important. This is a budget the fiscal year 74 budget, that is proposed at two hundred and sixty nine billion dollar level up from the two hundred and fifty billion dollar level of 196...1973 roughly an eight percent increase, this increase of course exceeds both the combined inflationary growth in the population group. So obviously there is more money available from the Federal Government then was and is at the present time. Three things have happened to Federal Programs in this budget
