found out that those people that wanted to return and be county commissioners were those people who wanted to go and run for Mayor, or run for Congress, or United States Senator, they were going to have to resign, in their mid term, so I'm always skeptical of any bills that come over from that particular department, and you'd better look them over real closely before you even put these on the board.

PRESIDENT: Well, Senator Proud has asked to speak then Senator Stull.

SENATOR PROUD: Well Mr. President, I think that this legislature is and has been willing to do anything that is reasonable, but I want to be sure it is reasonable, because we've got a vast number of bills up there in general file now, and 14 more bills that's a lot more work that we may not even reach, if this in fact an emergency so that these have to go into take care of the next election, that is a different proposition, but I believe we ought to have a written statement from the secretary of state, to the effect if that is a fact, that this is an emergency, if this can be handled next year, then I'm certainly not going to vote to put these, to introduce these bills, if it has to be done this year, then I'll vote for it.

PRESIDENT: Senator Stull.

SENATOR STULL: Well Mr. President, and members of the legislature, we are not really passing this legislation, I'm sure that the Military and Government committee would hold a public hearing on these bills, and it would be in my opinion that we would
