this is going in a whole new direction, making investigations on the bases of anonymity absolutely necessary.

SPEAKER: Senator DeCamp, in regard to your language, if you will just refer to me as Mr. Speaker, Mr. President, it will be satisfactory. Senator Whitney.

SENATOR WHITNEY: Mr. President, in our books, we do not have Senator DeCamp's Committee's amendment and I just checked with the clerk and they do not have them and as Senator DeCamp was speaking, he referred to our books and said those Committee amendments are in the books, and they are not there. Now, I have a feeling...they are not in my book. Well, they are not in Senator Marsh's book and they are not on the desk.

SPEAKER: Excuse me, Senator Luedtke.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: This bill was raised from Committee notwithstanding the kill motion and when a bill is raised, the amendments are not on it. However,
