

only in this State but across the nation and in Congress where the legislative has built up a great deal of power and this is not, as Senator Mahoney said, the legislature trying to dominate the Executive, just the opposite, it is trying to restore some of the balances that existed years ago and I would urge this body to vote against the amendment, which in effect, puts the bill and advance it as it now stands.

SENATOR: Senator Snyder.

SENATOR SNEYD: Mr. President and Members of the body. I'll be brief. I would urge the members who have been giving their attention to other matters to
