

SENATOR STULL: Mr. President and Members of the Legislature. First of all I'd like to ask Senator Carpenter a question.

SPEAKER: Senator Carpenter, will you yield?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Gladly, gladly.

SENATOR STULL: Senator Carpenter, as I understand it now, you've limited the program out there to, to agriculture and then to health services, just those two items, is that correct? Read the amendment. I was out for a while this morning.

CLERK: The Carpenter amendment?

SENATOR STULL: Yes.

CLERK: Okay, the Carpenter amendment would read like this.
(read)

SENATOR STULL: Okay, thank you. Now I think we have the position that Senator Skanda remarked about when he moved to take Pershing College out. He said they had the University of Lincoln and the University of Nebraska. Now by taking over this institution out at Scottsbluff, we're putting the State in a position where we're going to duplicate services. There is no reason in the world why the two things that this amendment limits Hiram Scott College to, couldn't be taken care of by either western, Nebraska Western College at Scottsbluff or at Chadron State College. I think at the present time Nebraska Western and Chadron State College have a
