

April 10, 1973

they cannot regulate county and township offices etc., even though the term flouridation is not contained in the constitution, I would propose here this morning that it is in the same vein, in which this section of the constitution was penned. The only disagreement I find with Senator Kelly's proposition, that we say you will have flouridation unless you vote no, is that is

(End of Belt #9)