

LB 577

April 10, 1973

probably tomorrow we'll start considering the budget and I don't see how you can consider the budget without first disposing of this problem if it is a problem. The law now says on the books that you cannot start a building for example until you've got all the money accumulated...

(End of Belt #18)