

April 11, 1973

have another look at this thing from the standpoint that we're not going to make people happy. Senator Marsh, Senator Marvel, all these people have students and they're going to be sitting underneath these balconies anyway and the free and access of in and out of the rows is going to happen to in one way or another and so I would have to say to Senator Stroger, I think that we will have to, at this point, let the Speaker of the floor take its course and let the various people have what they want because it doesn't seem like this Legislature is ready to say to the Government agency as Senator Stroger-- Senator Warner has said, Governor's people that have to come in here, fiscal analysts who come in here, but I don't know how the poor Sergeant at Arms is going to be able to recognize these ladies on lobbyists could come too because they all wear the same badge; think you're probably going to have to have a different kind of badge, but I would think that there is no way we can control this and I don't think there is anybody here that can do it and I think we're going to have to just let the Governor's people

(End of Belt #3)