its a necessary change to a, to depress the press any further than we a do, as of this moment and add one word to what Senator Chambers has said. Yes, the press is like us. Their only human, but to paraphrase the remark, my minister brother once made, a we're only human and hardly that, and it applies to Senators and press alike. I think this system we now have is a good one and I think we ought to keep what we have.

PRESIDENT: All right, Senator Whitney and Senator Kremer, are you both passing? Very good. All right, Senator, we'll move on Senator Syas then, then Senator Luedtke.

SENATOR SYAS: Before I make a statement I would like to have Senator Duis or someone, when you use the wording and this is old wording, accredited press. What do you mean, really?

PRESIDENT: Senator Duis, do you care to respond?

SENATOR DUIS: Well, Senator Syas, as I would presume that the accredited press, would be those who hold a badge, that are titled to come in the Legislative chambers and report the news.

SENATOR SYAS: Well is there any such thing as a non-accredited press?

SENATOR DUIS: That'd be a good question. I couldn't answer to you because I'm not involved in that situation. Now I would suggest that you ask that question of someone who is involved in the allowance of the putting accreditation to the floor of the Legislature.

SENATOR SYAS: Does anyone know the answer to my question?

PRESIDENT: Thats a direct question of Senator Piper.

SENATOR SYAS: Well I'd like to, but it isn't allowed.

SENATOR DUIS: Let me say this George I know we're all

SENATOR SYAS: Not to put anybody on the spot,

SENATOR DUIS: No, and I'm not going to be put on the spot, but I know we're going to get very eloquent here to the press and to the news media pretty soon, so we all get a good press release, and if you can hold it down just a little bit, and have a vote on this, I don't think your going to be changing anybody mind and I would like to get through the rest of these rules before we all a, get up and I could make a nice feature for the press to boost me a little bit too, I don't think thats necessary this morning.

SENATOR SYAS: I'm not going to make a nice speech.

SENATOR DUIS: But lets get on with

PRESIDENT: Gentlemen, lets not carry on a dialogue,

SENATOR SYAS: Well I'd like to make known, I asked a question now I'd like to finish.

PRESIDENT: Senator Syas.

SENATOR SYAS: I asked what a undergr, I mean a accredited press was, and you didn't know. So thats good enough. Now I want to call to this membership to your attention. This is not, has nothing to do with me trying to a, a, doing anything to embarass anybody. But the other day, you passed a Shield Bill and under that Bill, you gave all the press the right in court to a a have immunity under certain conditions. Now today, in by a, by a,
